

Open House Observes Eightieth Birthday

Mrs. Lyla Tucker, Ashland, was honored at a family dinner and open house Sunday, October 14, on the occasion of her eightieth birthday. The event was held in the home of her son, Wilbur L. Tucker, and Mrs. Tucker, 2233 Aloha street, Medford.

Mrs. Tucker's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flock, Yreka, Calif., were cohosts.

A family dinner for 23 persons was served, and an open house and dessert buffet followed. Approximately 50 relatives and friends called during the afternoon.

The serving table was centered with a floral arrangement and tapers in turquoise and pink and the table was covered with a lace cloth which had been crocheted some years ago by the honored guest.

Mrs. Lyla Tucker is shown cutting the cake served at an open house October 14 which observed her 80th birthday anniversary.

Clean light bulbs give better light. Wash the bulbs but don't dunk them. The bases of the bulbs are cemented to the glass and too much moisture may loosen the cement. Make sure the bulbs are dried well before using them.

Guild Women To Hold Bazaar

Holiday bazaars are an annual activity of many women's groups in the valley. Members of Providence guild of Sacred Heart hospital hold such an event each winter, and they are busy preparing many articles for the sale.

The bazaar will be held in the Johnson stores location in the Medford Shopping center on Friday, November 9. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The women put in many weeks of work on handmade articles. Among those to be offered this year will be toad Christmas trees, Thanksgiving and Christmas candles and table centerpieces, Christmas wreaths, winter bouquets, hand-knitted articles, children's clothing, aprons, and decorative pillows.

Baked foods and candies are also a part of the annual sale.
