

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Knife and Fork Club Announces New Members

A large group of new members was announced by Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club at the club's last dinner and meeting.

The group includes Mr. and Mrs. William Berthold Barnum Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Francis H. Bogard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clinkinbeard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dames, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Diepenbrock, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Manville M. Heisel, Comd. and Mrs. Carl W. Fin-

Training Session Is Slated for Parents of Blind

A southern Oregon area training session for parents of blind children will be held in Medford Saturday, November 3, with the auxiliary to Crater Lions club as host group. The session will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Washington school.

Lions' auxiliaries of Oregon sponsor these training programs in various areas of the state to instruct parents in the care and training of blind children. Oregon Lions auxiliaries also aid the Oregon School for the Blind in Salem which has classes for children from the first through the eighth grades.

Although Saturday's session is primarily for parents of blind children, any interested person is invited to attend, according to Mrs. Marvin Hart, Crater auxiliary president. Members of the auxiliary will serve luncheon.

Officers Elected By Grandmothers

Mrs. Otto Gaston was installed president of Rogue chapter, National Federation of Grandmother Clubs of America, at a meeting Monday, October 22, at Girls Community club Mrs. Matilda Dietrich was installed officer, Mrs. Clayton Walker, conductress and Mrs. Ebel Severson, chaplain.

Others installed were Mrs. Vera Bashaw, first vice president; Mrs. Mary Fredricks, second vice president; Mrs. Fred Ryde, secretary and Mrs. Paul Kurz, treasurer.

Mrs. Arthur Webster is the retiring president. Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Bashaw, and Mrs. Walker and others who had attended the national convention at Portland gave reports.

Refreshments were served, with Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Gaston pouring. Mrs. Mary Fredricks headed the committee in charge.

Mrs. Charles Hansen, Alameda, Calif., daughter of Mrs. Dietrich and Mrs. Pearl Isaits, Walla Walla, Wash., were guests of the club.

This is the season for cheerful, grinning jack o'lanterns and sinister looking black cats. Mrs. I. D. Fitzgerald, president of Medford Garden club and staging chairman for the recent fall flower show of the club, made this colorful Halloween arrangement of three stacked pumpkins topped with cattails, bright autumn leaves, berries and flowers. A cantaloupe, peach, popcorn and orange berries were arranged at the base and the black cat figurine adds atmosphere. Set for today and tomorrow is the fall dried flower show of Central Point Garden club and the event, being held in the Extension building at the Fairgrounds will be open tonight until 8 o'clock and Wednesday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Women Hold Installation

Mrs. Wilbur Howell, Medford, presided for the last time as president of Women of Unity, Friday, October 26, in the Unity church, Holly and Haven streets. Her successor, Mrs. Edgar N. Terrill, Talent, was installed at the conclusion of the business session.

Other officers installed with Mrs. Terrill are Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, first vice president; Mrs. Jewel Parr, Phoenix, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Froeschle, Grants Pass, third vice president; Mrs. William Turner, Ashland, secretary; Mrs. Ralph R. Weiss, Medford, treasurer.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity church of Medford, was installing officer.

Mrs. Howell presented the newly installed officers with carnation corsages. Mrs. Dorothy Bowen, Ashland, presented Mrs. Howell with a gift in appreciation of her work during her term as president.

During the business session, the president read new by-laws for the first time. She announced Wednesday evening, November 14, as the date for a Harvest festival. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Lee Cornaby, Ashland, was appointed chairman for the event.

Mrs. Earl Moore gave the devotionals which were taken from Proverbs 3:6.

Mrs. Bosworth gave a brief review of the latest book, "The Unity Way of Life" by Marcus Bach. Mr. Bach gives an outsider's view of Unity by a religious researcher. Before writing the book, he arranged a stay at Unity Village. He states Unity's world is one world, the world of living men and memories, the world of hard, cold facts and the secret world with its miracles of truth, the world of roaring highways and the world of prayer.

Mrs. Bosworth described the book as a deeply moving story of Unity (it), officially known as the Unity School of Christianity, its beginning, its early struggles through its steady growth, to its place in the world of today.

Mrs. Robert Snider, Ashland, sang a group of solos and Glenn Taylor, Ashland, played several violin numbers. Both were accompanied by Mrs. Taylor.

At noon a buffet luncheon was served from a table with an arrangement of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Mrs. Moore poured.

Mrs. R. F. Lamb, and Mrs. Ira Jones were hostesses.

Two Women Winners of Tournament

Mrs. F. E. Bowman and Mrs. J. J. Finegan captured the annual open pairs tournament of the Medford unit, American Contract Bridge league, played Sunday at Girls Community club in two sessions.

The two women scored 300 1/2 points to lead 13 tables of players. The B. L. Sandersons were second with 294 1/2 points; Mrs. Dolph Phipps and Ray S. Wise took third with 291; Mrs. Leona Robertson and Dick Briggs, Klamath Falls, were fourth with a score of 284; George Rode and John Shortridge were fifth with 282 1/2 and the Paul A. Hattons ranked sixth with 279 1/2 points.

First session winners were Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Briggs, first, 184 1/2; the Sandersons, second 176 1/2; the B. L. Martens, third, 169 1/2; Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Finegan, fourth, 159 1/2; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baldersee, Grants Pass, fifth, 159; Mrs. George Adams and John Solheim, sixth, 158 1/2.

Mrs. Phipps and Mr. Wise headed the second session with 156 and other winners were Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Finegan, second, 152; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coode, Wilderville, Ore., third, 148; Mr. Rode and Mr. Shortridge, fourth, 143; the Hattons, fifth, 140 1/2; Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and Mrs. Sam Richardson, sixth, 138 1/2.

Although fewer players entered the tournament this year than last, competition was said to be keen. Out-of-town players were taken to dinner at various local restaurants between the afternoon and evening sessions.

The telephone just rang and rang and rang yesterday morning. Sometimes it was news and sometimes it was a complaint and sometimes it was an invitation. Usually, the complaints are just a big headache, but the one yesterday was made in such a friendly fashion that we enjoyed the conversation. The caller, Mrs. Ray Doran, wanted to remind all and sundry, particularly Photographer Robert Vroman and the women's editor, that Sams Valley and the Table Rock area aren't the same thing.

On Sunday's picture page Photographer Bob wrote that Frank Meyers lived in Sams Valley, and that R. E. Nealon was one of his neighbors. "You ought to know better than that," said Mrs. Doran, accusingly. "After all, Mr. Nealon is your Table Rock correspondent!" We meekly replied that we should know better, both of us.

Mrs. Doran, who for a long time wrote the Table Rock news for The Tribune, pointed out that Sams Valley is a good eight miles from Mr. Meyers' farm, and that the Table Rock area residents think they live in the most beautiful part of the Rogue valley.

"How would you like it if someone referred to Medford as the suburbs of Central Point?" asked Mrs. D., as a parting shot. Well, it probably wouldn't exactly overjoy Medford. We promised to try and remember that Table Rock is a community and area all its own, and not a part of Sams Valley. We hope that the woman we are about to agree with reads this, for we don't know her name. We heard her talk on John Linn's program on our day at home, and she was filled with righteous indignation against someone who had been urging her, through the mails, not to buy UNICEF Christmas cards and not to support that UN agency. She said something like this:

"If a cold and hungry child came to my door and needed food and clothing, I'd feed and warm that child. I wouldn't look to see if the child was black or white or yellow, and I wouldn't care if he had been born in another country, or if his religion was different from mine. Now, if this be treason, and I should be burned at the stake, come and get me, I'm waiting."

She also said she thought residents of this country, who have so much, should help to feed and clothe the needy children of other countries whenever opportunity affords.

As she spoke, we thought that she must have been reared in the "Suffer little children . . ." tradition, and that she believes this is something to be remembered and heeded.

When she was through speaking, Mr. Linn could be heard clapping his hands in a gesture of approval. Potpourri also applauds this woman.

Rushing Events Held By Chapter

A series of rushing events have been held by Gamma Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi this month.

A pledge party was held October 22 at the home of Mrs. Harold Sloper, 4756 South Pacific highway.

Wax-laden wine bottles, red checked table accessories and music set the mood for an Italian buffet dinner for 15 members and guests.

Mrs. Richard White provided the entertainment, modeling a wig has in various Italian hair styles.

Rushes attending included Mrs. David Brabbin, Mrs. Roland Knuckles, Mrs. Frank Testerman, Mrs. Evan Thumler, Mrs. William Willis, and Mrs. Wayne Woodward.

Mrs. Albert Lowry and Mrs. William Knips, rush captains and Mrs. Sloper were in charge.

David G. Alexander, instructor of English and philosophy at Southern Oregon college, spoke for a model meeting October 24. Mr. Alexander talked on fiction prose, reviewing a novel by the famous contemporary French author, Albert Camus.

Mrs. David Taylor was in charge of the program.

The meeting was held at the home of the chapter president, Mrs. Darrel Hughes, 2791 Hilsinger road. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Knips and Mrs. Jack Wheeler.

A get-acquainted hour was held earlier in the month for the rushes at the home of Major Albert Knips, 2910 Madrona lane.

An impromptu program on the topic "What Beta Sigma Phi Means to Me," was presented by each Gamma Rho member.

Major Knips entertained the group by showing and relating the history of furnishings and accessories in her home which she had collected in her travels as an Army nurse.

Mrs. Charles Williamson, chapter Director, assisted Mrs. Knips and Mrs. Lowry in serving refreshments.

Earlier, a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Kidson 4428 South Pacific Highway. Mrs. Richard White was co-hostess for the evening.

The chapter selected Mrs. White to represent the chapter on the convention council.

An after-Halloween party is scheduled for November 3, in honor of the new pledges and their husbands.

This is an appropriate season for relating this incident, because Wednesday night scores of Jackson county youngsters will be going from door to door in their neighborhoods in the customary "Trick or Treat" fashion of Halloween. They will carry small cartons and their friends and neighbors will be asked to drop small coins into these. The money will be sent to the United Nations headquarters, where it will be pooled with money collected in the same fashion in hundreds of cities throughout the United States and will be used to buy food and medicine for children in countries where it is desperately needed.

UNICEF, declared to be the most successful and most universally accepted of all the United Nations agencies, has been endorsed by presidents of the United States and Pope John.

Since Halloween was originally a religious festival, and since helping one's neighbor and one's fellow man is in the best Christian tradition, it seems only right that the UNICEF project be supported. — O.S.

CALENDAR

Tuesday
8 p.m. — Pi Beta Phi alumnae, Mr. and Mrs. Houston L. Bush, Jr., 118 Black Oak dr.
8 p.m. — Mistletoe camp, RNA, Pythian hall.

Wednesday
9 a.m. — Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations, Red Cross chapter house, 60 Hawthorne avenue.
10 a.m. — Central Point Garden club dried flower show, Jackson county home extension auditorium, fairgrounds, Medford.
10 a.m. — DUV, Mrs. Ruby Mallory, 207 Cottage st.
11 a.m. — Security Benefit club, Pythian bldg.

Jacksonville Group Hears Talk on Bulbs

Jacksonville — Mrs. Dee Ifendrickson was speaker for the afternoon meeting of the Jacksonville Garden club held recently in the home of Mrs. Harold Reed, 202 North Oregon street. Her topic concerned bulbs and she spoke on the planting and culture of all varieties of fall planting bulbs. She then spoke on the culture of lilies and iris.

Mrs. Mattie Carson, horticulture chairman, gave a talk on early flowering chrysanthemums. Miss Claire Hanley gave the continuity program having for her topic, pine trees.

Mrs. C. P. Smets spoke on conservation of top soil.

Seventeen members attended and 14 made plans to attend the fall session of the Slakkyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, held October 24 in Central Point.

Delegates appointed to represent the club were Mrs. J. B. Noble, president; Mrs. P. T. Nichol and Miss Hanley, with Mrs. A. G. Moteschenbacher and Mrs. Ray Coleman as alternates.

At the close of the business session tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Noble. Mrs. Kenneth Farley and Mrs. Smets poured.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. R. T. Nichol, 1555 South Peach street, Medford, with Mrs. Lesta Dufek assisting.

Bethel Sponsors To Be Honored

Bethel 69, International Order of Jobs Daughters, will entertain its sponsors, members of the Scottish Rite Masons, at a meeting to be held Thursday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic temple in Medford.

Honored Queen Camille Eri announced that an auction would be held immediately following the meeting. Members and the Guardian Council are to bring the articles to be auctioned.

At a recent meeting, the girls came in costume and prizes were awarded to Janice Nash for the most original one. Judy Fogelquist received the prize for the most comical costume. The meeting was presided over by Junior Past Queen Lynn Boughner. Mrs. John North, grand fourth messenger, and Mrs. Carl Elhart, past grand guardian were introduced.

Refrigerate cooking and salad oils for long storage periods. If they turn cloudy or solidify, no harm is done — just let them reach room temperature before using.

Walkers Return

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walker, 4229 Hamrick road, have recently returned from a three-day shopping trip in Portland. En route home they visited friends in the Salem area.

"Self-polishing wax can harm your wood floors!"

... says Henry M. Tobey, Research Director of the world's largest hardwood floor maker

"Those self-polishing waxes that work wonders on kitchen floors can be the ruin of your wood floors. How come? Most of these self-polishing waxes are made primarily of synthetic plastics. They simply cannot be removed without damaging the finish or wood.

Layer after layer of old self-polishing wax piles up until your wood floor is darkened and discolored.

To avoid this problem, we recommend Bruce Cleaning Wax or Bruce Floor Cleaner. Both contain a removable liquid paste wax and waterless wood floor cleaner. They clean; remove the old wax, and leave a rich, new coat of paste wax protection — all at the same time.

Where a heavy coat of wax is desired, use Bruce Cleaning Wax. For lighter waxing and badly soiled floors, you'll prefer Bruce Floor Cleaner. It's the right way, and the easiest way to keep your wood floors looking clean and bright."

Officers Visit Post, Auxiliary

Shady Cove — George Connel, Gold Hill, district commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Mrs. W.B. Wubler, Ashland, auxiliary district president, were guests at the last meeting of the Shady Cove post and auxiliary.

Other visitors were Mrs. Fred Peabody, district conductress, Mrs. Linn O'Toole and Mrs. B. K. Riggs, all Ashland.

Coming events were announced, among these being the annual secret pal party December 20 at 10 a.m. The next meeting will be Friday, November 2.

Anniversaries Are Celebrated

O'Brien — Four October birthday anniversaries and a wedding anniversary were celebrated at a party given for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Menard and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Christensen by a group of their friends. It was the Christensen's 18th wedding anniversary.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. William Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moon.

Mann's
MEDFORD

773-7484

EASY GOING ENSEMBLE IN CAREFREE NYLON JERSEY

Shelton Stroller

Try this beauty-without-bother jacket dress for a choice of two pretty looks to answer your question "What shall I wear?" No matter where or when you wear it, you'll find it merrily brightens the scene. Washable, it dries dry, just needs only the occasional touch of an iron.

17.95

10 to 20, 12 1/2 to 22 1/2

red — green — brown — blue

Memory Gardens

Memorial Park and Funeral Home

1395 Arnold Lane

Phone 773-7338

"More Understanding"

Day or Night Service