

Women's Events Planned For ODC Convention

Women's activities during the 16th annual state convention of the Oregon Dry Cleaners association to be held in Medford Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 2 through 4, include a style show at the Rogue Valley Country club and a luncheon at 12 noon Saturday in Mon Desir Dining inn, Central Point.

Mrs. Dalton L. Gressett, wife of the association president, is in charge of the women's events.

Mrs. H. D. Christensen is chairman for the luncheon program, and Mrs. Richard Mole is chairman for the style show, for which Miss Marty Wyatt, Miss Oregon of 1962, will be one of the models.

The style show will be held in connection with the social evening for association members and will be preceded by a cocktail hour at the country club from 6:30 to 7:15 p.m., and a buffet dinner at 7:30 p.m. The style show will be held from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m., and will be followed by dancing.

Belle Van Dyke, organist will furnish the background music for the show. Mrs. Frank Keller, Portland, wife of an association member, will be commentator.

Mrs. Jack Dumas and Mrs. Murray Dumas will arrange decorations.

Women's fashions are to be furnished by Burelson's Ladies Ready-to-Wear store and men's styles will be from Drews Manstore from the Medford

Shopping center. Hair styles will be done by Hair Fashions. The show theme is "More Glamor in Fashion for 1963." Models in addition to Miss Wyatt will be Mrs. William Tyner, Mrs. Jack Dumas, Mrs. Larry Neely, Miss Christine Mole, Mrs. Geri Lockman and the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gressett, Sam and Ron Gressett, John McKinley, Southern Oregon college student will show the men's styles.

Miss Wyatt also will model the gown which she wore during the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City, N. J.

About 50 women from throughout the state are expected to attend the luncheon Saturday noon at Mon Desir Dining inn, Garner Haupt, a Field Service Exchange student last summer in Norway, will tell of his experiences there. The Checkmates, a girls' quartet from Medford High school, will furnish songs.

Men of the association will meet for lunch at Kim's restaurant at the same time Saturday.

Students Earn Project Funds

Yreka - Yreka High School Girls' league is raising money to send 15 girls to the annual conference. It is held every May at Richardson Mineral springs, near Chico, Calif.

League members proved that they will work hard for their project by holding a "we'll do anything" day. For 50 cents an hour the girls washed dishes, ironed, babysat, washed walls and cars. The girls with top points earned during the year will attend the conference.

The girls, who automatically become members of the league when they enter Yreka High school as freshmen, earn points by attending meetings, holding office, etc.

Chairman of the work day was Marilyn Shelton. Sonya Franson is president.

Junior Garden Clubs Stressed at Session

Central Point-Mrs. A. H. Mason, Portland, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, stressed the importance of the formation of junior garden clubs when she spoke last week at the Siskiyou district meeting of the federation. There now are 15 junior clubs and one high school club in the state, she explained.

Mrs. M. C. Overgaard, Wolf Creek, a graduate of Landscape Design school, spoke on landscaping suggesting that gardeners not overplant and develop more pride in home gardens and community plantings.

John McLoughlin, agent for the Jackson county extension service, told of the proposed aboretum at the experiment station on Hanley road.

Music was provided by Norman D. Carothers, Medford, music director of Crater High school, Central Point, and his choir, the Lavaliers.

Students from the Colleen Hope Dance studio entertained. In the group were Cindy Newham, Judy Johnson and Charlene Gammelgaard.

Mrs. Cliff E. Green, Central Point, showed slides. The pledge to the flag was led by Camp Fire Girls of the sixth grade. The invocation was given by the Rev. Paul Kroon.

Fourteen clubs were represented with an attendance of 100 garden club members. Arrangements were exhibited by the different clubs, representing the months of the year.

Mrs. O. V. Poe, Medford, director, presided, with Mrs. L. C. Gordon, Central Point, as assistant. Mrs. Dale Hoover, Ashland, is secretary and Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald, Central Point, treasurer. The session was held in the Central Point Grange hall with the Crater Garden club as host group.

FREE BOW MAKER YOURS FOR BUYING ARMOUR STAR FRANKS

MAKE BEAUTIFUL BOWS IN SECONDS WITH A FEW TWISTS OF THE WRIST

The bow maker almost works by itself. You just attach one of the little plastic pins to the top of the big spindle and spike one end of a length of ribbon on the pin. Then you loop and spike the ribbon enough times to make a beautiful bow. And finally you detach the pin—bow and all—and stick it on the package. Simple. And we send you enough bow pins to help you beautify 20 presents. * We thought up this offer to help you out during the holidays. The bow maker is a 98¢ value. And it's yours free for buying two pounds of the franks that are as nourishing as steak. Armour Star Franks. (Which will help you out during the holidays, too, because they're so quick.) * To get a bow maker send proof of purchase from both Frank packages to: Miracle Bow Maker, P.O. Box 1937, Decatur, Ala. * Happy Holidays.
