Should Be Proud

To the Editor: I would like to add my support to a most able and capable legislator, Bob Duncan.

I hope the people of southern Oregon will give honor to a man who has proved, beyond a doubt, he should represent the 4th District of Oregon.

I have found few men so dedicated to doing a good job for the people of Oregon as Bob Duncan.

His two terms as speaker of the House is a record of faith of both parties.

I am sure if you send him to Congress, you will be proud of his record, and beyond this you will receive attention to your problems.

I have known Bob for many years, and his family. You should be proud to have him represent you.

Hatfield Challenged

To the Editor: As a lawyer I was interested in Hatfield's statement on "Viewpoint" that a number of "competent" attorneys had advised him that he could employ Loren Hicks as his private attorney at state expense and in direct violation of Oregon law.

Sec. 180.220 (1) provides that the Attorney General shall have "full charge and control of all the legal business of all departments, commissions and bureaus of the state, or of any office thereof, which requires the services of an attorney or counsel."

Sec. 180.220 (2) provides as follows: "No state officer, board, commission or the head of a department or institution of the state shall employ or be represented by any other counsel or attorney at law."

Sec. 180.230 (1) states: "No compensation shall be allowed to any person for services as an attorney or counselor to any department of the state government or to the head thereof."

This law was enacted by the legislature in 1947. In that session I served as Speaker of the House and I know the intent of the legislature was to prevent state officers from employing private lawyers at state expense. Despite the clear, unequivocal and unambiguous wording of the law Hatfield has employed a private attorney at an annual salary in excess of $13,000 a year and which illegal salary is being paid by Oregon taxpayers.

Hatfield has challenged the attorney general to prosecute him. In the interest of economy I hope Mr. Thornton does just that. I now challenge Hatfield to reveal the names of these "competent" lawyers who have advised him that he can violate Oregon law with impunity. In my opinion no lawyer worthy of this calling would render such an opinion in view of the plain and clear provisions of the law covering the subject.

The Best Man

To the Editor: As I see it, the most important reality of the moment, besides the ever present worry of the Communists and Cuba, is that an election is upon us. On Tuesday we will go to the polls and here in Oregon - elect a governor, senator and four congressmen, as well as state, county and local officials.

We have a special part to play here in Jackson County. Again, it is a distinct privilege to have a local man running for 4th District congressman. This man, of course, is Bob Duncan. I wonder how many voters here realize that it is a vast improvement to have one of our own people in Congress who has already distinguished himself with his ability to work administration-wise, both as an administrator and as a legislator. We often have problems that can't be solved either at the local or state level.

Bob Duncan, so well informed on the particular needs of this area, would be a tremendous asset to us on the national level. One need only know Bob to be assured that he would quickly win the respect and friendship of his colleagues in Congress, as was exhibited in the Oregon Legislature where he became the only speaker to be twice consecutively elected. He has already received recognition by the administration, being one of only three state legislators in the entire country appointed by the President to his Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations.

The opportunity we have of electing our own Bob Duncan to Congress is enhanced by our secure knowledge that he has those qualities we need in a good congressman: sound independent judgment, a fine legislative background, maturity combined with vision, and a warm desire to understand the ideas and problems of all the people he comes in contact with. I have often seen him actually defend the opinion of his adversaries through a sense of fair play, when he knew that their difference lay only in view point, not from lack of mutual desire to serve. This has been expressed in his conduct as a lawyer as well as a true representative of the people.

We do not need to look any further than the boundaries of our own county for the best Congressman we can possibly elect; Bob Duncan.

Found Wanting

To the Editor: Since the school district reorganization law has been tried and found wanting in the estimation of a substantial proportion of us we would like to quote from a letter which appeared over our signature in the M.M.T. when the present consolidation with Medford was under consideration.

"Those who favor over-consolidation do not realize that we are sacrificing one of our most democratic institutions and are moving one more step nearer centralized government or fascism. We refuse to surrender our personal responsibility in government. "Besides giving the proper amount of concern for our children, who are the most precious of our possessions, some consideration should be given to the state of mind of our adults. All are inclined to be mentally lazy to say the very least. It is so easy to lose the personal responsibility for public welfare and satisfy conscience by voting for some alleged specialist to run affairs for us. Hitler considered the people incapable of governing themselves and it didn't take long for him to acquire their cooperation in that way of thinking."

"Our legislators who passed the reorganization law were not so democratically minded as they should have been. "There has been set up a centralized administration so far removed from the electorate that it is practically taxation without representation. It was a step which may be costly to undo but more costly to continue to tolerate."

We have had enough of school buses traveling thousands of unnecessary miles with their incalculably precious cargo in rain and snow and fog in order to cram these children into overcrowded schoolrooms with overburdened teachers who scarcely learn the names of the pupils, many of whom sadly need personal attention. For months many of these youngsters must leave home before daylight and return after dark. How well do you think you could do your home work on a swaying school bus?

Vote for the repeal of the school district reorganization law.

Brainwash

To the Editor: Undoubtedly, many of you readers have been totally disgusted with the gigantic and, in many cases, idiotic give-aways of our tax dollars both here and abroad. Yet, you felt frustrated in doing anything to stop it.

In the 49 other states we can do little or nothing, but here in Oregon we have the perfect opportunity to kick out of the Senate one of the foremost spenders of our time - Wayne Morse. In recent years he has voted for these wild-eyed spending schemes almost 100 per cent of the time.

Many union members are being brainwashed through COPE, by their own dues money, to vote for Morse. The union bosses and the racketeers among them have been helped to their pinnacles of power by Morse in past years and they intend to do their utmost to keep him in the Senate for future favors. Union members and other voters need only check the Senate voting record of Wayne Morse and see for themselves. You will be shocked at the audacity of this man in asking for your vote because he "will hold down taxes and conserve spending."

Those who have been sufficiently brainwashed to vote for Morse again - and should be re-elected - can only hang their heads in shame when reading about future wasteful spending programs.

Candidates Grateful

To the Editor: We, the undersigned, wish to express our sincere appreciation to the people of Jackson County who have given so unstintingly of their time in support of our campaigns to be of service to this county.

It is sometimes exceedingly difficult to express the depth of our appreciation for the support that has been given by the people of this county. We wish to point out at this time that whether we are selected to the offices which we as individuals seek, or whether we are not elected, our gratitude is deep and sincere. Those of us who may be chosen to be of further public service to our fellow citizens promise to fulfill the duties of our office with the utmost conscientiousness, bearing always in mind that we are, in truth, only the servants of the people of Jackson County. Those of us who may not be elected wish to make it eminently clear that our desire to be of service to our fellow citizens will not diminish and that we will always owe a great debt of gratitude to those who nominated us in the primary and gave us this opportunity to take part in self-government which is our heritage and our right as citizens of the greatest country on earth.

Your Republican Team

Leigh Endorsed

To the Editor: I am writing this as a result of my heartfelt belief in "De" Leigh. I can assure you that I have never known a finer man, nor one for whom I have greater admiration.

I worked in the Jackson County sheriff's office part-time during 1948 and as a full-time deputy beginning in January of 1949 and until Nov. 7, 1949. During that period of time I worked directly under and took my instructions from "De" Leigh, who was the supervisor of the criminal department of the sheriff's office. As far as I was concerned he was my boss.

I give full credit to "De" Leigh for my training, which enabled me to do my present work.

"De" is one of the best instructors I have ever had and he knows how to train men and is an excellent administrator. I can most simply and honestly assure you that I hold no man in higher regard and I sincerely urge all responsible citizens of this county who are desirous of responsible county administration to elect "De" sheriff on Nov. 6.

Bi-Partisan Vote Urged

To the Editor: There are times to rise above party labels and the election of Henry F. Padgham as state senator is, for me, the proper time. Henry has shown an honest, selfless determination to serve the people of this area and is deserving of both Democratic and Republican support.

He is a successful businessman and a sensitive citizen. He has displayed high principle within his party and great integrity in our community. No special interests bind him and a heartfelt call to responsible public service guides him.

As a Republican I am proud to support him and urge a bi-partisan vote to put him in the state senate!

Still The Great Voice

To the Editor: It should be obvious to everyone who has watched TV or listened to the radio for the past few weeks that Sen. Wayne Morse has a tremendous amount of money to spend on his reelection campaign. Therefore, every voter should ask himself these questions: (1) Where is the money coming from to pay for this huge amount of advertising? (2) Why is it necessary to flood the voters of Oregon with this emotional, sometimes distorted political propaganda?

In answer to the first question, one need only remember the $100 and $50 a plate dinners held for Senator Morse in Los Angeles and Washington, D. C., earlier this year to know the most of Sen. Morse's campaign funds are from out of state, and that they come from labor bosses, labor unions and others with special interests to whom Senator Morse is and will continue to be obligated (if he is reelected).

To answer the second question, Senator Morse and his propagandists are using every method possible to make you, the voters of Oregon, forget the facts of his record. They want you to forget he has insulted and antagonized members of both parties in the Senate, endangering approval of Oregon projects; has never
