

District Missionary Group Plans Local Convention

The Rev. Victor Macy, area secretary of the Free Methodist Missions in Africa, and Mrs. Paul Embree of Southern Rhodesia, will be guest speakers at the Southern District Missionary convention in Medford. It is being held at the Free Methodist church to-day through Sunday with the first service being held at 7 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Macy is a photographer and has produced several motion pictures of mission work. He is producer and photographer of the sound color films "Beauty for Ashes," "African Harvest," "Eastern Harvest," and "World Parish."

He will show one of these films tonight and Saturday. The excitement of living in the wilds of the African "bush" will be told by Mrs. Embree, missionary mother of three children and assistant to her doctor husband. As helper to her husband, Mrs. Embree served as ambulance driver, emergency worker in the hospital, and school teacher to her children.

The theme of the Missionary convention planned, by the conference president of the missions committee, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Salem, is "The Unfinished Task."

Services will also be held Saturday at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. with the concluding rally Sunday at 2:45 p.m.

A fellowship dinner will be held at North's Chuck Wagon Saturday and an evening supper at the church with Mrs. Linda Olson and Mrs. Mary James in charge.

THE REV. VICTOR MACY
From Africa

MRS. PAUL EMBREE
From Southern Rhodesia

Former Pastor To Speak Here Nov. 4

Dr. W. A. Dawes, former pastor of the First Baptist church, will speak at both services Sunday. Dr. Dawes pastored the local church for 19 years, leaving in 1955 to take a pastorate in Redmond.

The local church meets in the Wilson school at Grand and Corona aces, while the new sanctuary is under construction at Crater Lake ave. and Stevens st.

Maynard Hadley will be soloist for the 11 a.m. service. A mixed trio will also sing.

The Rev. B. E. Andrews, pastor of the church, will be in McMinnville Sunday through Friday leading the First Baptist church there in a prayer crusade. He will also speak to the student body of the Western Baptist seminary in Portland Friday.

Dr. Dawes will also preach at the 7 p.m. service. Music will be provided by a trumpet trio consisting of Don Tinselt, Jim and Steve Andrews, Myrna Wagner and Linda Scott will sing a duet.

Wednesday the church will be observing "A Day of Prayer for Missions" in cooperation with 1,600 Conservative Baptist churches across the nation. Prayer meetings will be held in various homes throughout the valley and the midweek service at 7:30 p.m. will emphasize the work of missions.

Tithing Enlistment Program Announced

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young will speak on "Jesus and the Kingdom of God," using Philippians 3:20 as his text. The church choir will sing, "Let Us Break Bread Together." Communion will be observed.

At the 6 p.m. Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship those faithful in attendance will receive their BYF pins, according to President David White.

At the 6:30 p.m. Senior High BYF the general discussion topic, "Do Beliefs Matter?" will be continued. There will also be election of officers. President is Linda Morse.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on the theme, "Jesus Saves" with Mark 10:14-29 as his scriptural background.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, an all-church dinner will be held. Robert Balk and John Johnson, members of the tithing enlistment program, will announce the faith proposal, and present a budget based upon this proposal. Church members will be asked to try tithing.

The Bible Study group will meet Saturday at 8 p.m.

Official Board To Meet Sunday Evening

Gold Hill — Members of the official board of Gold Hill Community Methodist church will meet Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Glen Bowen is chairman of the church board.

At the 11 a.m. worship hour the Rev. Lechen L. Gregory, pastor of the church, will give the sermon message.

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS

National Religious Publicity Council

November Designated As Loyalty Month at Church

The month of November has been designated as Loyalty month at the First Christian church. Emphasis will be put on church attendance and the total work and life of the congregation.

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at both services on the subject "Dedication: It Makes a Difference." At the close of the 10:55 a.m. service there will be a baby dedication ceremony. Parents of babies will dedicate themselves to rear their children in an awareness of God and into the likeness of Jesus Christ.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "Purer in Heart, O God." The combined chancel and carillon choirs will sing the anthem "My God, How Wonderful" at the second service.

Mrs. Jennie Pitts and Mrs. Erma Hedgepeth will act as hostesses at the coffee hour following the second service.

The Chi Rho and Middlers Fellowships will both meet at 6 p.m. Jeannette Greer will give the devotionals at the Chi Rho meeting and Bill Brooks will lead the study on a new series of lessons on "Looking Toward a Career."

Dr. Otto Emig will be the guest speaker at the Christian Youth Fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. and talk on "A Doctor Looks at Love and Marriage."

The official board will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The Wednesday night Bible study group will continue its study on the word of God at 7 p.m.

An all-church Fellowship dinner is planned for Sunday, Nov. 11 at 1 p.m. at which time all who have come into the church during the past year will be honored.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Nelson, 333 Lindero ave. All young people, ninth grade and above, are welcome.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

Alvin Birman was elected chairman of property and finance and Dennis Bolz was elected a member of the district youth conference's cabinet. He will serve as witness chairman.

Sunday Mr. Wash will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on "A Choice You Must Make." Jim Evernden will play a trumpet solo and Mrs. Wash will tell the children's story, "The Fable of the Encourager."

Beginning Sunday the Sunday school department will attempt to boost their attendance. The class having the largest percentage of their class present will receive a trophy to be placed in their class.

Sunday will be the quarterly business meeting and potluck dinner at the church.

Westminster — At the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach his sermon series on the theme "The Fruit of the Spirit." The subject of this Sunday's sermon will be "Kindness: Race Relations in the Light of Christ."

Donald Quisenberry will serve as lay assistant and the church choir will sing the anthem "Be Still and Know." Children's church will be held for those from 5 to 10 years of age and nursery care is provided for pre-school children.

Church school classes meet at 9:45 a.m. In addition to classes for all ages of children and youth, there is a study group for adults which meets under the direction of the pastor in the church office. This week's study is on the nature of the church in the first decade of the Christian era.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. for a meeting on Christian Science led by John Castelle. Fireside will be held afterward.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, a family fellowship dinner for members and friends of the church will be held at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a congregational meeting at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to elect persons to the nominating committee from the church-at-large and to consider and approve the 1963 budget.

Community Bible Topics Are Listed — Central Point — "The Western European Alliance or the Revived Roman Empire," will be the title of the sermon given at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point by the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, Sunday at 11 a.m.

"The Seventh Commandment — Is America Guilty?" will be the sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service.

ASHLAND TOPIC — Ashland — Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts. on "Mission of the Church — Part I." A coffee hour will follow.

to rear their children in an awareness of God and into the likeness of Jesus Christ.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "Purer in Heart, O God." The combined chancel and carillon choirs will sing the anthem "My God, How Wonderful" at the second service.

Mrs. Jennie Pitts and Mrs. Erma Hedgepeth will act as hostesses at the coffee hour following the second service.

The Chi Rho and Middlers Fellowships will both meet at 6 p.m. Jeannette Greer will give the devotionals at the Chi Rho meeting and Bill Brooks will lead the study on a new series of lessons on "Looking Toward a Career."

Dr. Otto Emig will be the guest speaker at the Christian Youth Fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. and talk on "A Doctor Looks at Love and Marriage."

The official board will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The Wednesday night Bible study group will continue its study on the word of God at 7 p.m.

An all-church Fellowship dinner is planned for Sunday, Nov. 11 at 1 p.m. at which time all who have come into the church during the past year will be honored.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Nelson, 333 Lindero ave. All young people, ninth grade and above, are welcome.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

Alvin Birman was elected chairman of property and finance and Dennis Bolz was elected a member of the district youth conference's cabinet. He will serve as witness chairman.

Sunday Mr. Wash will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on "A Choice You Must Make." Jim Evernden will play a trumpet solo and Mrs. Wash will tell the children's story, "The Fable of the Encourager."

Beginning Sunday the Sunday school department will attempt to boost their attendance. The class having the largest percentage of their class present will receive a trophy to be placed in their class.

Sunday will be the quarterly business meeting and potluck dinner at the church.

Westminster — At the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach his sermon series on the theme "The Fruit of the Spirit." The subject of this Sunday's sermon will be "Kindness: Race Relations in the Light of Christ."

Donald Quisenberry will serve as lay assistant and the church choir will sing the anthem "Be Still and Know." Children's church will be held for those from 5 to 10 years of age and nursery care is provided for pre-school children.

Church school classes meet at 9:45 a.m. In addition to classes for all ages of children and youth, there is a study group for adults which meets under the direction of the pastor in the church office. This week's study is on the nature of the church in the first decade of the Christian era.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. for a meeting on Christian Science led by John Castelle. Fireside will be held afterward.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, a family fellowship dinner for members and friends of the church will be held at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a congregational meeting at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to elect persons to the nominating committee from the church-at-large and to consider and approve the 1963 budget.

Community Bible Topics Are Listed — Central Point — "The Western European Alliance or the Revived Roman Empire," will be the title of the sermon given at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point by the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, Sunday at 11 a.m.

"The Seventh Commandment — Is America Guilty?" will be the sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service.

ASHLAND TOPIC — Ashland — Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts. on "Mission of the Church — Part I." A coffee hour will follow.

Prayer Vigil for Peace Is Scheduled Next Week End By First Methodists Here

First Methodist church will hold a Prayer Vigil for Peace starting Saturday, Nov. 10 at 9 a.m. and continuing until Sunday at 9 a.m. in Meeker Memorial chapel.

Members are signing up for half-hour vigils throughout the 24 hours. Others have been encouraged to attend and pray and meditate to help carry on the endless chain of intercession which encircles the world among Christians everywhere. Others will take part in the vigil in their homes. This means of spiritual undergirding was planned prior to the increased tensions in the Cuban situation.

Dr. George Roseberry will preach Sunday at both morning worship services on "This Living Age." God and Country awards will be awarded at the 9:30 a.m. service to Melvin Taylor, Rocky James, Ken Dickson, Richard Dickson, Wayne Taylor, Dick Minshall and Larry Dusen.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow will sing "The Lord Is My Light" for both services. The youth choir will sing "O Light, Whose Beams Illumine All" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Send Out Thy Spirit" at 11 a.m.

The School of Christian Living is in the fourth week. There will be a film on "Roots of Happiness" with Thomas L. Goff, from the Jackson County Family Counseling and Child Guidance clinic, as leader in the class on "Responsible Adults for Tomorrow's World." Glen Dusen will lead the class on "The Church Is Mine," assisted by Everett Faber and Mrs. Milton Snow. The Woman's Society of Christian Service will put on the snack supper and the commission on education will have the devotionals.

Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the church at 5 p.m. for their weekly meeting and then join in the snack supper at 6:20 p.m. The Senior High MYF will not have their regular Sunday evening meeting as they will be attending a Sub-District MYF meeting in Grants Pass Sunday afternoon.

The annual Harvest tea for the benefit of the Methodist Home in Salem, will be held Tuesday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Roseberry, 3310 Hollywood ave.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Nelson, 333 Lindero ave. All young people, ninth grade and above, are welcome.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

Alvin Birman was elected chairman of property and finance and Dennis Bolz was elected a member of the district youth conference's cabinet. He will serve as witness chairman.

Sunday Mr. Wash will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on "A Choice You Must Make." Jim Evernden will play a trumpet solo and Mrs. Wash will tell the children's story, "The Fable of the Encourager."

Beginning Sunday the Sunday school department will attempt to boost their attendance. The class having the largest percentage of their class present will receive a trophy to be placed in their class.

Sunday will be the quarterly business meeting and potluck dinner at the church.

Westminster — At the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach his sermon series on the theme "The Fruit of the Spirit." The subject of this Sunday's sermon will be "Kindness: Race Relations in the Light of Christ."

Donald Quisenberry will serve as lay assistant and the church choir will sing the anthem "Be Still and Know." Children's church will be held for those from 5 to 10 years of age and nursery care is provided for pre-school children.

Church school classes meet at 9:45 a.m. In addition to classes for all ages of children and youth, there is a study group for adults which meets under the direction of the pastor in the church office. This week's study is on the nature of the church in the first decade of the Christian era.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. for a meeting on Christian Science led by John Castelle. Fireside will be held afterward.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, a family fellowship dinner for members and friends of the church will be held at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a congregational meeting at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to elect persons to the nominating committee from the church-at-large and to consider and approve the 1963 budget.

Community Bible Topics Are Listed — Central Point — "The Western European Alliance or the Revived Roman Empire," will be the title of the sermon given at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point by the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, Sunday at 11 a.m.

"The Seventh Commandment — Is America Guilty?" will be the sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service.

ASHLAND TOPIC — Ashland — Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts. on "Mission of the Church — Part I." A coffee hour will follow.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on the theme, "Jesus Saves" with Mark 10:14-29 as his scriptural background.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, an all-church dinner will be held. Robert Balk and John Johnson, members of the tithing enlistment program, will announce the faith proposal, and present a budget based upon this proposal. Church members will be asked to try tithing.

The Bible Study group will meet Saturday at 8 p.m.

Official Board To Meet Sunday Evening — Gold Hill — Members of the official board of Gold Hill Community Methodist church will meet Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Glen Bowen is chairman of the church board.

At the 11 a.m. worship hour the Rev. Lechen L. Gregory, pastor of the church, will give the sermon message.

ing worship services on "This Living Age." God and Country awards will be awarded at the 9:30 a.m. service to Melvin Taylor, Rocky James, Ken Dickson, Richard Dickson, Wayne Taylor, Dick Minshall and Larry Dusen.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow will sing "The Lord Is My Light" for both services. The youth choir will sing "O Light, Whose Beams Illumine All" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Send Out Thy Spirit" at 11 a.m.

The School of Christian Living is in the fourth week. There will be a film on "Roots of Happiness" with Thomas L. Goff, from the Jackson County Family Counseling and Child Guidance clinic, as leader in the class on "Responsible Adults for Tomorrow's World." Glen Dusen will lead the class on "The Church Is Mine," assisted by Everett Faber and Mrs. Milton Snow. The Woman's Society of Christian Service will put on the snack supper and the commission on education will have the devotionals.

Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the church at 5 p.m. for their weekly meeting and then join in the snack supper at 6:20 p.m. The Senior High MYF will not have their regular Sunday evening meeting as they will be attending a Sub-District MYF meeting in Grants Pass Sunday afternoon.

The annual Harvest tea for the benefit of the Methodist Home in Salem, will be held Tuesday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Roseberry, 3310 Hollywood ave.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will meet Sunday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Nelson, 333 Lindero ave. All young people, ninth grade and above, are welcome.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Welty House, 2940 Hillcrest rd.

Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The Rev. Paul Otte, minister of the First Congregational church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. He will share with the group his background in and understanding of the Evangelical and Reformed church which has now joined with the Congregational Christian churches to form the United Church of Christ.

Alvin Birman was elected chairman of property and finance and Dennis Bolz was elected a member of the district youth conference's cabinet. He will serve as witness chairman.

Sunday Mr. Wash will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on "A Choice You Must Make." Jim Evernden will play a trumpet solo and Mrs. Wash will tell the children's story, "The Fable of the Encourager."

Beginning Sunday the Sunday school department will attempt to boost their attendance. The class having the largest percentage of their class present will receive a trophy to be placed in their class.

Sunday will be the quarterly business meeting and potluck dinner at the church.

Westminster — At the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach his sermon series on the theme "The Fruit of the Spirit." The subject of this Sunday's sermon will be "Kindness: Race Relations in the Light of Christ."

Donald Quisenberry will serve as lay assistant and the church choir will sing the anthem "Be Still and Know." Children's church will be held for those from 5 to 10 years of age and nursery care is provided for pre-school children.

Church school classes meet at 9:45 a.m. In addition to classes for all ages of children and youth, there is a study group for adults which meets under the direction of the pastor in the church office. This week's study is on the nature of the church in the first decade of the Christian era.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. for a meeting on Christian Science led by John Castelle. Fireside will be held afterward.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, a family fellowship dinner for members and friends of the church will be held at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a congregational meeting at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to elect persons to the nominating committee from the church-at-large and to consider and approve the 1963 budget.

Community Bible Topics Are Listed — Central Point — "The Western European Alliance or the Revived Roman Empire," will be the title of the sermon given at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point by the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, Sunday at 11 a.m.

"The Seventh Commandment — Is America Guilty?" will be the sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service.

ASHLAND TOPIC — Ashland — Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts. on "Mission of the Church — Part I." A coffee hour will follow.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on the theme, "Jesus Saves" with Mark 10:14-29 as his scriptural background.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, an all-church dinner will be held. Robert Balk and John Johnson, members of the tithing enlistment program, will announce the faith proposal, and present a budget based upon this proposal. Church members will be asked to try tithing.

The Bible Study group will meet Saturday at 8 p.m.

Official Board To Meet Sunday Evening — Gold Hill — Members of the official board of Gold Hill Community Methodist church will meet Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Glen Bowen is chairman of the church board.

At the 11 a.m. worship hour the Rev. Lechen L. Gregory, pastor of the church, will give the sermon message.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on the theme, "Jesus Saves" with Mark 10:14-29 as his scriptural background.

Wednesday, Nov. 7, an all-church dinner will be held. Robert Balk and John Johnson, members of the tithing enlistment program, will announce the faith proposal, and present a budget based upon this proposal. Church members will be asked to try tithing.

DEWEY V. JEFFREY
Here From Washington

Gold Hill Christian Has New Minister

Gold Hill — Dewey V. Jeffrey, new minister of Gold Hill Christian church, will give the sermon Sunday, at 11 a.m.

Formerly of Selah, Wash., Mr. Jeffrey was graduated last spring from the Central Washington School of the Bible where he received a bachelor of sacred literature degree.

During his four years of Bible college, Mr. Jeffrey and his wife, Marilyn, spent one summer ministering to the Birch Bay Bethel chapel near the Canadian border. She completed three years at the college from which he was graduated and is a native of Tacoma.

Mr. Jeffrey was born in Texas, leaving there at an early age with his family and eventually settled in Sunny-side, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey and seven month old son, Christopher Alan, are expected to arrive here this week to begin ministering to the Gold Hill Christian church, and will live on Lampman rd.

Mr. Jeffrey was born in Texas, leaving there at an early age with his family and eventually settled in Sunny-side, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey and seven month old son, Christopher Alan, are expected to arrive here this week to begin ministering to the Gold Hill Christian church, and will live on Lampman rd.

Mr. Jeffrey was born in Texas, leaving there at an early age with his family and eventually settled in Sunny-side, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey and seven month old son, Christopher Alan, are expected to arrive here this week to begin ministering to the Gold Hill Christian church, and will live on Lampman rd.

Mr. Jeffrey was born in Texas, leaving there at an early age with his family and eventually settled in Sunny-side, Wash.

Mr. and