Many Familiar Faces Will Be Missing From 88th Congress

Editor's note: This is the last in a series of stories on Tuesday's election by UPI political writers. It deals with congressmen who won't be back in January regardless of the outcome of Tuesday's voting.

By LOUIS CASSELS
Washington — Some familiar faces will be missing when the 88th Congress convenes next January.

Regardless of the outcome of the Nov. 6 balloting, it is already certain that at least 53 House members and five senators won't be back next year.

Some are retiring voluntarily. Some already have been defeated in primaries. Others inevitably will be defeated in incumbent-vs.-incumbent contests created by reapportionment of House districts.

Prominent among the voluntary retirees are Reps. John Taber (R-N.Y.) and Brent Spence (D-Ky.).

Taber, who was 82 last May, is the dean of congressional Republicans, with 49 years service in the House. As senior GOP member of the powerful House Appropriations committee, he has been one of Capitol Hill's most noted budget-slashers.

Spence, 87, is the oldest member now serving in Congress. He has been chairman of the House Banking committee for many years.

Also retiring are other well-known lawmakers retiring of their own volition are Reps. Noah M. Mason (R-Ill.), senior Republican on the tax-writing House Ways and Means committee; Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich.), senior Republican on the House Government Operations committee, famous for his irrepressible question, "Where's the money coming from?"; Robert B. Chipfield (R-Ill.), ranking GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs committee; and Sens. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.), Oren E. Long (D-Hawaii), John Marshall

Butler (R-Md.) and Benjamin Smith (D-Mass.) candidates in seeking reelection.

Several House members of long seniority were knocked off in primary battles. Among them were Rep. Carroll D. Keatts (R-Pa.), senior Republican on the House Education and Labor committee; Rep. H. Carl Anderson (R-Minn.), whose name was linked to the Billie Sol Estes case, and Rep. Frank W. Boykin (D-Ala.), who was eliminated in a "last-man-out" primary in which Alabama's nine incumbents vied for the eight seats left to the state after reapportionment.

Gunshot on Bus Results in Charge

Portland — A man accused of firing a shot in a Greyhound bus was held here Sunday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Michael William Moses also was accused of threatening a janitor and two passers-by near the Portland Public Service building.

A passenger on a Greyhound bus fired a bullet through a window Friday and then got off. The bus was headed for Pendleton.

Noted Folklorist Injured in Wreck

Austin, Tex. — J. Frank Dobie, 74, the Southwest's noted folklorist and author, ate a special diet and set propped up in bed today, but remained in serious condition from head and chest injuries suffered in an automobile collision Friday night.

Brackenridge hospital said the former professor required special treatment in the intensive care ward because of his age. Dobie was hurt when his car collided with an automobile driven by Polk Shelton, 20. Shelton was thrown from his car and suffered facial cuts.

Dobie for 30 years has been the foremost authority on the history and customs of the Southwest.

Rep. James C. Davis (D-Ga.) an outspoken segregationist, also was defeated after a Supreme Court ruling compelled Georgia to abandon its "county unit" voting rule, under which rural voters long had outweighed the votes of urban Atlanta. Davis had been defeated twice previously in popular votes but kept his seat because of the unit rule.

Seven of the 20 women now serving in Congress will be retiring. Best-known of those not choosing to run again is Rep. Kathryn Granahan (D-Pa.), who has been named treasurer of the United States.

CARL FISHER is a man on the go. People like and respect him. He has the great combination of youth, experience and maturity of judgment. He gets things done with fairness and dispatch. No wonder Republicans, Democrats and Independents agree that CARL FISHER will make an outstanding U. S. Congressman.

VOTE FOR HIM

Elect CARL FISHER

As your U.S. Congressman HE'LL DO THE JOB THAT NEEDS DOING

ACCLAIMED BY LEADERS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

GOVERNOR HATFIELD says: "Fisher will do an outstanding job in Washington, D.C."
 "Carl Fisher was one of the truly outstanding state legislators in the 1959 and 1961 sessions. He has given me complete cooperation in our efforts to bring new industry and new payrolls to Oregon. He will do an outstanding job as your U. S. Congressman."

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER says: "The Nation needs men like Carl Fisher in U. S. Congress."
 "The election on November 6th will be a crucial one for our country. In your District you have the opportunity to vote for a fine man, Carl Fisher. I hope you send him to Congress."

U. S. CONGRESSMAN WALTER JUDD says: "Fisher has ability, intelligence and integrity—I'd be proud to serve with him in Congress."
 "These are difficult times for this nation of ours and I believe that it is important that you send to Congress men of outstanding ability. Carl Fisher is such a man."

Rep. JOHN DELLENBACK of Medford states: "Fisher has tremendous qualifications for the job he seeks."
 "I served with Carl Fisher in the Oregon Legislature. He gained the respect of those with whom he worked. He has his feet on the ground and will work actively for Oregon."

U. S. CONGRESSMAN EDWIN R. DURNO says: "Fisher understands the need for more Oregon jobs and payrolls."
 "I served in the Oregon Legislature with Carl Fisher. He fully understands the problems of the lumber industry and the need for more jobs and payrolls in Oregon. I hope you vote for him as your next Congressman."

Plywood Executive ROBERT DAVIS of Grants Pass states: "Fisher understands the problems of the lumber and plywood industries and will work to do something about them."
 "I have discussed at some length with Carl Fisher the position in which the lumber and plywood industry now finds itself, and I believe he understands our problems and will work actively to find a solution."

U. S. CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM MILLER of New York says: "Fisher is a mover... a doer... the kind of man Oregon needs in Washington, D. C."
 "With international tensions and problems it is even more important than ever that we have men in Congress who have their feet on the ground. I know Carl Fisher. He is the kind of man we are looking for. I hope your votes send him to Washington, D. C."

U. S. CONGRESSMAN BOB WILSON says: "Carl Fisher is one of the best."
 "I have seen many other candidates from across the nation. As Chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee I can tell you that Fisher is one of the best. We need men like him in Congress."

YOU KNOW WHERE CARL FISHER STANDS

Carl Fisher is not a fence straddler. He tells you what he thinks and why. His outstanding record in the Oregon Legislature proves the soundness of his thinking. He is the kind of man who will effectively represent you in Washington D. C.

FISHER HAS CONTINUALLY URGED A FIRM STAND ON CUBA

In early September Fisher urged this nation to "support President Kennedy in a policy of firmness, even if it means the setting up of a blockade." Fisher's opponent said this was "an irresponsible position." However after President Kennedy called for the Cuban quarantine Fisher's opponent jumped on the bandwagon. Oregon needs leadership—not followership.

FISHER WILL WORK TO GET THE NEW JOBS AND PAYROLLS OREGON DESERVES

Fisher says: "Your congressman should be an 'economic ambassador' in Washington, D. C. and do everything possible to bring new jobs and new industry to Oregon. We need new payrolls. This is a broad and better matter that deserves attention all year around, not just at election time."

FISHER HAS A SOUND PLAN TO HELP OREGON'S LUMBER INDUSTRY

"Northwest congressional delegation from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Northern California should form a 'lumber bloc' and meet in Washington, D. C. on a regular basis to solve legislative problems of the lumber industry as they arise. These delegations should set aside their political differences—and concentrate on finding solutions to the problems of the lumber industry."

FISHER BELIEVES IN HELPING OUR OLDER PEOPLE

The problems that face Oregon's older people are of major concern to Carl Fisher. "We must pay particular attention to those burdens created by the catastrophic or long-term illness. So that those in need may readily find assistance, this effort must be soundly financed and responsibly managed. We can't let our senior citizens down."

FISHER URGES GREATER CARE IN FOREIGN AID EXPENDITURES

"Active efforts must be made to cut out unnecessary government spending so that a tax cut becomes possible. We need to take a long, hard look at our foreign aid programs where we spend millions and yet many times find the recipients of such gifts wish to only take advantage of us."
