

Hearings Denied In Storage Case

Washington - (AP) - The U.S. Supreme Court today denied a hearing to two men convicted in Portland, Ore., of conspiring to make false statements to the government in connection with a grain storage operation.

The brief order leaves standing a decision by the 9th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals last June 28 which upheld the convictions.

The men are Earl C. Corey, former director of the Portland Commodity office of the Agriculture Department's Commodity Stabilization Service, and L. M. Smith of Waterville, Wash.
