Progress Noted in Newspaper Talks

New York - (AP) - Progress was reported today on the major issues in the Newspaper Guild's strike against the New York Daily News following a seven-hour meeting between federal mediators and negotiators from both sides.

The bargaining session, which began at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, was recessed at 3:30 a.m. Negotiators were scheduled to reconvene at 2:30 p.m. today.

"Progress has been made tonight in resolving the remaining issues in the Daily News

A really educational gift for the geography student is an imported Zulu blow gun with a month's supply of poisoned darts.

Great for parties, it's perfectly harmless because the surprised victim laughingly swells up to three times his normal size for a couple of days.

Ecumenical Council Debates Sacraments

Vatican City - (AP) - The Ecumenical Council today debated the seven sacraments that affect every Roman Catholic from the cradle to the deathbed.

The sacraments, which canon law calls the "principal means of sanctity and salvation," range from baptism to extreme unction - the last rites. The others are confirmation, matrimony, confession, communion and holy orders.

The pace of the discussions is expected to pick up under new instructions issued by Pope John XXIII Tuesday.

The Pope ruled that discussion on any topic can be cut off whenever the council presidency deems it proper and the council fathers approve by a show of hands.

Formerly there was no limit on discussion beyond a rule holding speakers to 10 minutes on each subject.

The council Tuesday discussed proposals to make the marriage ceremony "a more conscious and devout celebration."
