

Mrs. Dorothy Ginn, Medford florist, is serving as district representative of Unit 11-F of the Florists Telegraph Delivery association. Mrs. Ginn was installed during a national meeting of the association held this fall in Detroit, Mich.

Medford Woman Serving As FTD Representative

Dorothy Ginn, Ginn's Flowers, was elected and installed district representative of Unit 11-F of Florists Telegraph Delivery association during a national FTD meeting recently held in Detroit, Mich.

The national president, Ralph Bachman, was installing officer when 92 district representatives from this country and Canada were installed at the close of a three-day indoctrination course.

The district representatives, 18 of whom are women, were trained in upholding the ideals of the association. Included was a tour through the new member-owned headquarters building.

The representatives act as liaison officers between their shops and headquarters in Detroit.

The FTD association is member-owned and was organized in 1910 to facilitate sending flowers by wire and telephone. It has grown from the original 22 members to more than 11,000 members.

Club To Hear Talk on Fossils

Rolf Pederson, vice president of Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club, will be speaker at the next meeting of the group Friday, November 9 at 8 p.m. in the Girls Community club, 229 North Bartlett street, Medford.

Mr. Pederson, who spent the summer at the University of California in Berkeley doing graduate work in paleontology and paleobotany, will tell of his experiences and show a motion picture, "Journey Into Time". This film deals with the manner in which animals and plants become fossils.

A field trip is being planned for the week end of November 17-18. Details of this outing will be given at this meeting, as well as the latest information on the class in local geology being organized by Bruce Nelson, education director for the club.

Refreshments will be provided by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter, Mr. and Mrs. David McClary, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McCay, and Bruce Wilson. Guests are invited to attend.

Footlighter Comedy To Continue

The light-hearted comedy, "Under the Yum Yum Tree" will be presented again this week end by Medford Footlighters at the Fairgrounds theater. Productions will be tonight, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

While advance ticket sales have been heavy the past few days, tickets will be available at the boxoffice according to Kathy Sage, director.

Principals in the cast are Ronald Ricketts, Mary Bea Jenkins, Margaret Ford and Charles Tucker, and all were applauded by the audiences who attended the first three performances.

Playgoers have also been intrigued by the resourcefulness of Mrs. Sage, Hal Applebaum and Frank Messenger who designed and built the set. Since the tiny Footlighter theater stage presents many problems, these were solved by the device of two doors—one without any wall on one side, and the other opening on to a small bit of stage and a set of stairs leading down into the area in front of the first row of seats. This is used as an exit by the actors when action calls for them to leave the apartment which the set represents.

Some of the most amusing bits of the play take place outside the doors—at one point the landlord, consumed with curiosity about a conversation in the neighboring room, uses a stethoscope in an effort to hear through the door.

The little theater is in the process of being renovated, but no inconvenience is being caused to playgoers. The building has been re-roofed and when sufficient money is in reserve, the group plans to ramp the seats which will improve vision for those in the back of the room.

Coffee and cookies are served at intermission.

Officers Elected By Artists

Mrs. John Pletsch is the new president of Southern Oregon Society of Artists. Mrs. Pletsch, who lives at 18 Willamette avenue, began to paint and became a member of the society in recent years.

Also named to office at the last meeting were Mrs. Ross Tweedell, vice-president; Mrs. June Phillips, secretary and Mrs. Grover Corum, treasurer.

New associate members of the society are Mrs. Florence Cox, Mrs. Barbara Kelsey, Mrs. Richard Melum, Mrs. Henry Ditmanson and Mrs. Donna Treadwell.

At the meeting Jack Teeters, local artist and art teacher, elected paintings by members of the society to be shown at the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County for the coming three months.

Paintings selected for November and now on exhibit are by Mrs. June Phillips, Mrs. Beyer, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. John Beyer, Glen Scott, all Medford; Mrs. Barbara Mower and Mrs. Georgia Neece, Gold Hill.

Paintings chosen for December and January are by Mrs. Bea Corum, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Beyer, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Birdie Johnson and Mrs. Ethyl Hixson, Central Point; Mrs. Ann Reid, Ashland, and Mrs. Viola Moore, Gold Hill.

A committee also selected paintings to be exhibited at Mon Desir Inn near Central Point for a three-month period. Those selected are by Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Ethel Shuck, Mrs. Lucille Jackson, Mrs. Pletsch, Mrs. Zella Van Valzah, Mrs. Corum and Harry Marie, Medford; Mrs. Aida Andrews, Mrs. Neece, Mrs. Mower, Gold Hill; Mrs. Hixson, Central Point.

Guests for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grossman, Mrs. Jene Skirvin and Miss Jill Martin, hostesses were Miss Marian Adv. Ashland, Mrs. Lucille Jackson and Mrs. Alfred Castillo, Medford.

The society's next meeting will be in January.

Californians Visit Williams

Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, Oxnard, Calif., recently were guests in the A. D. Fitzpatrick home, Williams, on their way to Seattle for the last few days of the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd returned to Portland to attend the wedding of A. D. Fitzpatrick Jr. and Miss Betty Johnson.

The Fitzpatricks and Todds were entertained at dinner in Portland. This was a renewal of a long-time friendship begun several years ago when the two families met while on a camping trip when their children were small.

Mr. Todd is an attorney in Oxnard.

Varying your meat dishes can be fun. Try creating "Beef Birds" by rolling round steak around stuffing of carrot sticks.

'Beef Birds' Make Hearty One-Dish Meal

Here is a familiar meat cut, round steak, that you can spruce up to win the esteem of your whole family, and make a hearty one-dish meal as well.

There is a surprise in beef birds, a favorite vegetable, carrots. The round steak is dredged in flour, wrapped around carrot sticks and browned.

Reba Staggs, home economist, suggests placing potatoes and onions in the same baking dish or skillet, and cooking the whole meal at one time. Mushrooms create a tasty topping. The meal may either be baked or simmered on top of the range.

BEEF BIRDS

One and one-half pound round steak cut 1/2 inch thick; one-fourth cup flour; one teaspoon salt; one-fourth teaspoon pepper; one-fourth cup lard or drippings; four to five small carrots, cut in strips; four peeled potatoes; four small onions; one can mushroom soup.

Cut steak into pieces about 3x3 inches. Combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat with seasoned flour. Place three or four carrot sticks on each piece of steak. Wrap steak around carrots and fasten with a wooden pick.

Brown rolls slowly on all sides in lard or drippings. Add potatoes and onions to steak and pour mushroom soup over all. Cover tightly and simmer in slow oven (300 degrees) or on top of range for one and one-half to two hours, or until meat is tender and vegetables are done. Yield, four servings.

Ashland Artist To Show Work

Ashland — Mark Young, Oregon artist, is to exhibit some of her paintings in the Fleur-de-lis gallery, 2306 S.W. Main street, Portland, beginning next Sunday, November 11. Mrs. Young will pour at a reception being given in the gallery that afternoon and later in the month will have a one-woman show of her work.

Mark Young has won widespread recognition in southern Oregon and on the west coast and has been featured in many art gallery exhibits, among them is Frames, Etc., Ashland, where she has also taught classes. Her forte is portraiture in oils. She also works in watercolors, sepias, pen and ink, and scratchboard. Her religious paintings on Biblical events have been called "deeply significant."

Camp Fire Girls

Visit Hospital
The sixth grade Camp Fire Girls of Wilson school went to Rogue Valley hospital on October 31. We took comic books and children's magazines which were donated by Wilson school students.

The girls themselves took gifts for the children in the hospital. We were shown around the hospital by Mrs. Charles Barnes and Mrs. Leonard Mayfield. We had a very interesting time.

The girls attending were Joy Babcock, Sandra Schlatter, Sandra Robinson, Gail Shuler, Bobbi Jo Meeker, Ora Swift, Pamela Satterlee, Carolyn Baumer, Bonnie Galloway, Debe Howell, and Judy Hedberg. Our leaders who took us were Mrs. Robin Bums, Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, Mrs. Robert Babcock, and Bruce Babcock.

Reviewer Has Praise for Little Symphony Group

Ashland — Prolonged and warm applause of some 250 music lovers rewarded the efforts of Dr. Herbert Cecil and his Little Symphony orchestra in their fall concert at Churchill auditorium on the Southern Oregon college campus, Sunday.

As usual, Dr. Cecil designed a program appealing both to those with some musical sophistication and to those preferring works of a lighter nature. The "March of the Peers" from the Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "Iolanthe" set a spirited mood for the concert with its satirical musical comment concerning the "peers of highest station, paragons of legislation."

The "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor" of the great Baroque master, George Frederic Handel, provided a fitting transition between the relatively informal Sullivan march and the classically-styled Mozart "Clarinet Concerto in A Minor." Gerald Jensen, freshman student at Southern Oregon college, played with dexterity the florid adagio and rondo movements of this composition.

Following Intermission, thirty public-school children, directed by Virginia Cecil, wife of the conductor, joined the Little Symphony to provide lively accompaniment to Haydn's "Toy Symphony," comparable to this composer's "Surprise Symphony" for sheer musical novelty. These earnest fifth and sixth-grade youngsters came in promptly on all cues with their bird calls, cymbals, bells, wood blocks, maracas, drums and horns. They should be commended for their accuracy and the Cecils for their ingenuity in using this unusual musical work to assist in building appreciations that

Rings Honored On Anniversary

Prospect — Mr. and Mrs. George Ring, Prospect, were honored at a party on their 25th wedding anniversary. It was at the home of Mrs. Ring's grandmother, Mrs. Florence Venham, Prospect, and hostesses were the couple's daughter, Miss Patty Ring, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Monte Ring.

Attending were Mrs. Florence Venham, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Ring and children Mike, Annalee and Rebecca, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burge, Glen and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Haas and Victor, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hedgpath, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Nye, and the Ring's daughters, Georgene and Mary.

The table was decorated in a wedding motif. A large wedding cake was decorated with 25 silver bells.
