

District 6 A-2 Title Prize In Phoenix-Riddle Hassle

Phoenix—Phoenix High school bids tonight for its fourth straight Oregon Class A-2 football quarterfinal berth.

The Pirates, who are defending the state co-championship they won last year, take on the Riddle Irish. The game will be at Riddle at 8 p.m.

Riddle topped the Umpqua Valley league this season and Phoenix heads the Rogue league. Immediate prize this week is the District 6 championship.

"I think (Jim) Construk and (Ron) Williams both will be ready although Williams may not be at top speed," said Phoenix Coach Jack Woodward. Halfback Construk has had a charleyhorse and quarterback Williams an all-basic T club. The Irish who ing knee.

Both are cogs in a versatile Pirate offense and Williams has been a particular stalwart in Phoenix pass defense.

Cover For Hand
Woodward reported that the Phoenix staff is trying to get something made to cover Dave Westfall's hand fracture so that he can see duty at his regular offensive guard. However, Rick Richey likely will open at the guard with Bob Fenton filling Richey's regular tackle berth.

The head coach said that Paul Dietrich probably will get a starting linebacker call. He has done well in late season.

Phoenix will take a well-rounded T and strong wing attack against a team which is have been strong for the past three seasons are said to have "a lot of horses" with good runners and a dangerous passing game.

Should Phoenix win it will have the choice of field for quarterfinal play.

PROBABLE LINEUPS:

Phoenix Defense—Granby and Esp. ends; Kerns and Richey, tackles; Tycksen and Ron Patterson, guards; Johnson and Paul Dietrich, linebackers; Grennan, Williams and Construk, safeties.

Unscheduled Match Takes Play From Wrestling Midgets

An unscheduled match between Haru Sasaki and Nick Kozak almost took the play away from the wrestling midgets on Thursday night's card at Medford armory.

It all started when Sasaki put a Japanese sleeper hold on Ted Evans and then failed to heed Referee Harold "Buck" Davidson's orders to break the hold. Sasaki did break it, but only long enough to smash Davidson to the mat.

Kozak came to Davidson's rescue and the furious skirmish was finally broken up when Promoter Elton Owen came into the ring and held Kozak at bay while Davidson brought Sasaki under control.

Davidson awarded the match to Evans on a foul after the cunning Japanese ace had won the first fall with judo chops and Evans had evened it with a figure four leg lock.

In a wild match that kept the good-sized crowd howling with laughter most of the time, Tiny Tim pinned Fuzzy Cupid for the lone fall. Tim teamed with Little Beaver to give Cupid and his partner, Sky Low Low, a pretty good going over before hostilities ended.

Kozak used an airplane spin to subdue Irish Pat O'Brien in a line match in which both men displayed exceptional grappling ability. O'Brien had taken the first fall with a hammerlock and Kozak evened it with a bottoms up applied over the ropes after he had been thrown out of the ring.

Owen announced that the next card will be presented Nov. 29.

OSU Picked To Spoil Celebration

Moscow, Idaho—UPI—Terry Baker and friends, having spoiled Washington State University's homecoming last week end, move into Moscow Saturday highly favored to do the same thing to the University of Idaho.

Baker, the Oregon State quarterback who is as good as the OSU publicity department says he is, ranks second nationally in total offense and has been responsible for more points than any other back in the country.

As if Baker by himself weren't enough for the usually under-manned Vandals, the Beavers also boast the nation's leading pass receiver in end Vern Burke.

The odds are just about the way Idaho coach Dee Andros wants them. He says Idaho does better when the opposition is favored by about 30 points and cites the narrow 25-21 loss to Utah and surprise 14-12 win over Arizona as proof.

Last week end's win over Arizona gave the Vandals a record of two wins, four losses and a tie. OSU has won five and lost two.

The Beavers will be minus starting center John Farrell and halfback Jim Sinyard. Idaho will be at full strength.

The game will be the 36th between the former Pacific Coast Conference rivals. Oregon State has won 29 and Idaho 6. The Vandals haven't won since 1952.

U.S. Cage Team Nicks Russians

New York—UPI—Russia's drive toward world basketball supremacy may be achieved in the near future - if the United States persists in fielding its "second" team for international games.

Although the U.S. did not have a college player in its lineup, the Americans managed to squeeze past Russia Thursday night, 70-66, on four free throws in the last 15 seconds - two each by Jerry Shipp and Gary Thompson.

The Russian women defeated Nashville (Tenn.) Business college, 59-57, in double overtime in the opener of a Madison Square Garden twinbill. A controversy has been raging that the U.S. team is not truly representative of the nation's capabilities because the college stars were not allowed to join the squad.

Coach Omar (Bud) Brownling of the Phillips Oilers and all-star mentor said, "This is the best Russian team I've ever seen. Our boys played a real good game, but the Soviets are becoming better shooters and more aggressive, especially under the boards."

Montreal is the world's second largest French-speaking city. Most of its million residents speak French and many know no English.

TIGER GETS CERTIFICATE
Paterson, N. J. - UPI - Abe J. Greene, commissioner of the World Boxing Commission, said Thursday that midweight champion Dick Tiger will be presented with a world boxing championship certificate when a goodwill mission of three U.S. senators visits Nigeria later this month.

There were 54.7 million households in the United States in a March, 1962, survey by the Census bureau.
