

Hawes - Cook Ceremony

Miss Deanna Darlene Cook became the bride of Ralph Edward Hawes of Roseburg in rites read here November 3. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Cook, Hillcrest-Phoenix road, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawes, Portland, who were in Medford for the wedding.

The nuptial mass was celebrated at 12 noon in the Medford Sacred Heart Catholic church by the Rev. Joseph Becker, a cousin of the bridegroom from Our Lady of Victory parish, Fresno, Calif. About 150 guests attended.

Mrs. David Gault came from Atwater, Calif., to be matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. D. Lorin Jacobs, and bridesmaids were the Misses Martha Hawes, Roberta Hawes and Kathleen Hawes, Portland, sisters of the bridegroom.

Paul Hawes, Portland, was best man for his brother, and seating the guests were Monte Cook, a brother of the bride, Bernard Hawes, Portland, a brother of the bridegroom, Richard Long, Grants Pass, and Thomas Kiehl, Portland. Father Escorts Bride

Mr. Cook escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride wore a white lace floor-length sheath gown with elbow length sleeves and full taffeta overskirt which graduated into a short train. Large scallops of the lace bodice formed the neckline, and the taffeta cummerbund was held by a large bow at the back. Her sheer elbow-length English imported veil was held by a rosette of pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses centered with a corsage to wear for traveling.

The attendants wore white brocade sheath dresses with taffeta overskirts. Their cummerbunds were wine color satin with large bows attached at the back and their pill box headpieces with float veils matched the cummerbunds. They carried nosegays of snowflake chrysanthemums and garnet roses.

The altar flowers were white pompon and spider chrysanthemums and ends of the family pews were marked with white bows.

Miss Sarah Robinson played the organ music and Larry Wright and William Depner served as altar boys.

Mother Wears Pink
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cook wore a dusty pink imported cashmere sheath frock with white accessories. Her corsage was of dusty rose chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a gold boucle sheath dress with jacket and matching accessories. Her corsage was of copper colored chrysanthemums.

The reception was held in the Blue room of the Jackson House. White screens decorated in the wedding color theme with wine and white flowers formed the back ground for the reception tables. Decorating had been done by Mrs. William North and Miss Marjory North.

Mrs. Ronald Gandee, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Paul Parson. Mrs. Earl Purdy presided at the punch table, assisted by Miss North.

The knife used to cut the cake was a gift to the bride and bridegroom from Miss Pauline Alderman, San Francisco. Greg Gandee, a cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. George Barlow, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. Barlow, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. George Griggs, Boise, Ida.; Miss Vivian Gregory, San Francisco, aunts of the bride, and Miss Alderman.

Other relatives and friends of the bridegroom from out of town were Mrs. Paul Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willis, all aunts, and all of Portland; Mrs. Walford Suva, an aunt, and Mr. Suva, Seattle; Charles Geenen, an uncle, Redwood City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seidl, Belmont, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pliska, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lair, Seattle, Marcus Geenen, and Scott Geenen, both Redwood City, Mrs. John Augustavo, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Renuard, all Seattle, and Mrs. Basil Badley, Olympia, Wash., all cousins; the Misses Lucy Noon, Redwood City, and Sharon Sharp, Portland; Al Hobgood, Palo Alto, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kiehl, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Long, Grants Pass.

The bride's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner for the bridal group and immediate families Friday at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Keyser, assisted, twenty-six guests attended.

The couple made a wedding trip to California. For traveling the bride wore a brown Italian knit suit with beige accessories. They will live in Roseburg.

The bride was born and reared in Medford and was graduated from schools here.

Marriage Is Held In Pennsylvania

News of interest here is the marriage of Miss Virginia Ann Pierucci to Capt. Jerry Dean Lambo. They are now living in Cambridge, Mass., after a wedding trip to Nassau, capital of the Bahama islands.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pierucci, Havertown, Pa., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambo, former Medford residents now living in Ukiah, Calif.

The ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon, September 1 in Ebenezer Methodist church in Manoa, Pa. About 400 guests attended.

Miss Lucille Biscioti, Ridley Park, Pa., was maid of honor. Mrs. Robert J. Tawoda, Ft. Monmouth, N. J., a sister of the bride was matron of honor, and another sister, Mrs. William E. Seymour, Broomall, was bridesmatron. Bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Pierucci, Llanerch, a cousin.

A niece of the bride, Cathleen Tawoda, was flower girl. Darrel Brittan, Richmond, Va., former Medford resident, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Brittan, 412 Manzanita street, was best man. He is a fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

Officers Attend
Dr. Pat Ferrara, Philadelphia, Pa., Capt. R. J. Tawoda, Fort Monmouth, and Capt. Norman Sparks and Capt. William Wix, both instructors at the U. S. Military academy at West Point, N. Y., were the ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original Bianca gown of white peau de soie with long train. Her three-tier bouffant veil was attached to a headpiece consisting of a rose and suspended petals. She carried phalaenopsis and cattleya orchids and stephanotis.

The attendants wore gold satin gowns and gold pill box headpieces.

The reception for about 400 guests was held in the Timbers restaurant, and a dinner and dance was attended by about 140 guests.

The bride attended Charles E. Ellis school in Newton, Pa., and the Square and Dean Junior college at Franklin, Mass. She has been employed as a secretary at Radnor Graphic arts.

The bridegroom, formerly of Medford, holds a bachelor of science degree from Oregon State university and is attending Harvard university under Army sponsorship, studying toward his master's degree in business administration. He is a 1953 graduate of Medford High school. He is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Mrs. J. J. McGrew, Medford, and Miss Lana K. Lambo, Ukiah, sisters of the bridegroom attended the wedding. The bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nargi, Stamford, Conn., also attended.
