

Mrs. Dorothy R. Monroe (left) heads the committee planning a dinner Thursday, November 15, at Rogue Valley Country club to focus attention on Stanford university's PACE program. Assisting her are Mrs. F. C. Lorch (center) and Mrs. Dorothy Dowson. All three women have sons enrolled at Stanford university. Speakers for the dinner will be Vice Provost Robert J. Wert and W. Parmer Fuller III, a Stanford trustee.

Stanford Dinner To Be Thursday

Nearly 250 alumni and friends of Stanford university in Medford have been invited to a dinner Thursday, November 15, at the Medford Country club to learn about Stanford's push toward new peaks of educational excellence.

The dinner is one of a series of nearly 70 scheduled throughout the nation during October and November in conjunction with widening phases of Stanford's PACE Program—a $100 million "Plan of Action for a Challenging Era."

Mrs. Dorothy R. Monroe, 2218 East Main street, is in charge of arrangements for the no-host affair. Presiding at the dinner will be Robertson E. Collins of Medford, regional chairman for the PACE program.

Zion Lutheran Church Setting for Wedding

Ashland—Zion Lutheran church of Medford was the setting for the October 27 wedding of Miss Janice McCoy and Jerry J. Anderson.

The bride, a graduate of Ashland High school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCoy, 2978 Barbara street. The bridegroom, also an Ashland High school alumnus, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Klamath Falls.

The 2 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey C. Covert. Lavender and white chrysanthemums were used in decorations and the gowns of the bride's attendants were in pastel shades.

For her wedding the bride wore a lace over white satin sheath and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations. Her illusion veil was shoulder length. Mr. McCoy gave his daughter in frock of blue chiffon with marriage.

Maid of honor was Miss Judy Ann Anderson, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a white flowers and accessories, while the bride's sister, Miss Jennie Ann McCoy, serving as bridesmaid, wore a dress of lavender and lace with white corsage and accessories.

The bridegroom's brother, Samuel W. Anderson, was best man and Donald James Ross was usher.

During the reception in the clubhouse Mrs. Cardula Ellis, godmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jennie Edmundson, the bride's grandmother, presided at either end of the table and Mrs. Richard Wilhelm, Oakland, Calif., cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Don Rhodes was in charge of the reception and Mrs. Larry James took care of the guest book.

For their honeymoon on the coast the new Mrs. Anderson wore a black and brown knit suit with matching accessories. October 30 the couple returned to Klamath Falls where they are living at 409 1/2 Richmond street. Mr. Anderson is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Home Extension Bazaar

The third annual Jackson county Home Extension bazaar has been announced for Monday, November 26 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., in the extension auditorium at the Jackson county fairgrounds south of Medford.

Twenty of the units throughout the county will participate. Many of the units use the proceeds to send delegates to the three-day state council meeting at Oregon State university in Corvallis each spring.

The financial aid encourages the younger members with families to attend these educational workshops. The units donate to the Lady Aberdeen fund which is an OSU scholarship sponsored by the Associated Country Women of the World. This scholarship helps foreign students who come here to study in the field of home economics.

Receive Aid
Girls from this country, who study home economics in a foreign land, also receive aid from this fund.

Some units divide their money between the 4-H scholarships, which help send boys and girls to 4-H summer school at Corvallis, and the Grant-in-Aid fund which gives financial assistance to girls in the field of home economics.

The Jackson county alumnae committee each year presents a silver award to the most outstanding girl in home improvement at the county fair. This is made possible by the proceeds from their sandwich booth at the bazaar.

Six units in the county plan meetings for the week.

Nitelights
The Nitelights unit will meet in the home of Mrs. W. W. Herzberg, 3358 Bursell road, Central Point, Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone who needs directions to the home may call Mrs. Herzberg, telephone 664-1323.

Lone Pine
Mrs. Lorene Babcock and Mrs. Earl Richardson will give the project on food buying for Lone Pine unit Thursday, November 15 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Charles Hurst, 765 Sunrise avenue.

Mrs. A. L. Henderson and Mrs. F. C. Lewman will be cohostess for luncheon. Members are to take articles or suggestions for bazaar items and have suggestions for next year's projects.

Child care will be provided in the home of Mrs. Don Heron, 2388 Crater Lake avenue. A sack lunch should be sent with each child.

Oak Grove
The women of Oak Grove unit will meet Tuesday, November 13 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Eldon R. Wimer, 2928 Madrona lane. The project lesson on food buying will be given by Mrs. Paul Larson and Mrs. Jack R. Coffin. Mrs. William Herman

Jr., Mrs. John Llewellyn and Mrs. Robert Wobbe will have charge of the luncheon. Table service will be required and child care will be provided in the home of Mrs. Anna Thomas, 185 Clover lane. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Jack R. Coffin, 773-1596.

Hillcrest
Mrs. Richard Sturgill and

Mrs. Robert Scofield will be project leaders for Hillcrest unit when they meet Wednesday, November 14 at 10:30 a.m., in Mrs. Scofield's home at Route 3, Box 169-B-6, Cherry lane. A sack lunch will be needed.

Medford Unit
A planned luncheon will be served at noon for the Medford unit meeting Thursday, November 14. The session will open at 10:30 a.m., in Santo hall on Columbus avenue.

Mrs. Howard U. Walters will give the lesson on food buying. The luncheon committee is made up of Mrs. Fred Middlebush, Mrs. Charles A. Burton, Miss Anna Herndal and Mrs. Leland Knox. Members are to take table service.

Several members of the group have been taking a mosaic tile course taught by Mrs. Dayton Varner in the home of Mrs. William Naylor, Wilson Park.

Mrs. Oliver Smeltz and Mrs. Victor Drew will give the lesson for the Wilson Park unit Tuesday, November 13 at 7:45 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Gary Shaffer, 116 Keeneway.

On the program will be a brief business meeting, the project on food buying and completion of bazaar items.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Shaffer and Mrs. Drew. Women interested in home extension activities are invited.

Oregon Trail Program Theme For Sorority

Mrs. Kenneth Oliver and Mrs. Robert Bennett presented an educational program at a recent model meeting of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

The theme, "The Oregon Trail," is the study of the settlement of the Rogue valley and its purpose is to inform members of the customs and culture of this period. The program followed the progress of the early wagon trains, and the women spoke of the early history and culture of the Pacific Northwest preceding the great migration west.

Later in the year the group will take a field trip to the Jacksonville area and will tour the museum.

Preceding the program Mrs. Delbert Cantrall, president of the chapter, introduced her executive board and committee chairmen to the guests at the meeting. Following the invocation given by the chaplain, Mrs. Chester Peterson, a report explaining the functions and history of the sorority was given by the vice-president, Mrs. Davis Young.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Riggert and hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Ristan and Mrs. Richard Harrison.

A business meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Bennett. Robert Bailey and Robert Cook, staff members of radio station KSHA, were guest speakers for the evening. KSHA is cooperating with the chapter on a philanthropic project.

Other guests for the evening were Mrs. Gene Durbin, Mrs. David Bodtker and Mrs. George Burton.

Past Matrons

Jacksonville — Past Matrons club of Adare chapter will meet Monday, November 12 at 12:30 p.m., for a dessert luncheon in the home of Mrs. Ralph Lue, 238 Oak Grove road. Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry will assist.

Adare Chapter To Hold Meeting

Jacksonville — A meeting of Adare chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, is scheduled for Thursday, November 15 at 8 p.m., in the Jacksonville Masonic temple. Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Shores, worthy patron and matron, will preside.

The dining room committee is made up of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pond, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gregory.
