

Methodist Rites Held

Miss Oleta E. Sheperd and Maurice E. McIntyre were married November 3 in 8 o'clock evening rites in Medford First Methodist church. Dr. George Roseberry performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Inez Sheperd, 909 Sunset avenue, Medford, and the late Mr. Sheperd. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre, 200 East Eighth street, Jacksonville. They have lived in the valley all their lives, and were married in Jacksonville in 1924. Miss Oleta E. Sheperd was maid of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids were the Misses Donna Lindemann and Sherry Pearson, both of Portland. Junior bridesmaid was Evelyn Guch, a niece of the bride, and Caryn Sheperd, another niece, was flower girl.

Richard Sanford, Jacksonville, was best man, and ushers were Gale Sheperd and Gary Sheperd, brothers of the bride. Alvin D. Sheperd, Jacksonville, gave his sister in marriage.

The bride's gown was of French bouquet material, with fitted bodice and long sleeves. Valencia lace trimmed the neckline and sleeves and the gown was designed with a chapel train. A pearl crown held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums with a yellow rosebud detachable corsage.

The attendants were matching avocado green frocks, the honor attendant in silk and the bridesmaids in brocade. Their hats matched their dresses and they carried bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums arranged with spikes of wheat.

The junior bridesmaid and flower girl wore avocado green velvet pinfolds over yellow nylon organdy and their headpieces were in yellow. They carried baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums with wheat.

Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church, and pew ends were marked with green bows. Mrs. Leslie Boardman furnished the wedding music and Michael Johnson sang the songs.

The reception given by the bride's mother was held in the church rooms. About 100 guests attended. Mrs. Marvin Marshall and Mrs. Dorna Smith, both Jacksonville, cut and served the cake, and Mrs. Phyllis Wellis, Ashland, served the coffee. Mrs. Alvin Sheperd, a sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sawyer and son, The Dalles, cousins of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gault, Roseburg; Mrs. Myrton Nelson, and Mrs. Leonard Hayes, both Portland; Mrs. Peto Thompson, a cousin of the bride, and children, Renton, Wash.; and Miss Frances Rober, Portland.

The bride and bridegroom have lived in the valley their entire lives. The bridegroom's parents were married in 1924 in Jacksonville.

The bride attended Jacksonville High school and Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing, Portland. She is employed as a nurse at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital.

The bridegroom, who also attended Jacksonville High school served for four years in the Air Force. He is a forester's aide with the United States Forest service.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco and Reno. The bride wore a beige wool dress with green accessories for traveling.

The couple is living on Huenners lane in Jacksonville.

News Received Of Marriage

News of interest in the valley is the recent marriage of Miss Judith Ann Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence John Douglas of Lima, Ohio, and Lt. (jg) Macy Edwin Overstreet, of the United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Overstreet, 59 North Orange street, Medford. The couple is now living at 3212 Ocean Front Walk, Mission Beach, San Diego, Calif. The bridegroom is stationed on board the USS Henrico.

The ceremony was read September 22 at Palm Springs, Calif. The bride is a graduate of the University of Toledo, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and more recently attended the University of California at Los Angeles. She is a teacher at Clairemont High school in San Diego. The bridegroom was graduated from Oregon State university where he received his degree in civil engineering, and was a member of Acacia fraternity.

New Age Church Rites Wed Couple

Shady Cove—Miss Barbara Ann Lacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lacy, Shady Cove, became the bride of Jesse William Wehde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wehde, Trail, in 7 o'clock evening ceremonies November 10.

The Rev. D. E. Millard read the rites in the New Age church, Eagle Point. About 15 relatives attended.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ice blue lace frock over taffeta and her accessories were white.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Larry R. Lacy, a sister-in-law, was dressed in a white brocade frock with white fur collar and her accessories were white.

The bridegroom was graduated in 1961 from Eagle Point schools. He is employed at Delah Timber Products company, White City.

The bride also attended Eagle Point schools and for the past year and a half has lived in Oroville, Calif., returning recently to Eagle Point.

The wedding reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McCracken in Eagle Point. Mrs. Eloise Velkos served the wedding cake and punch was served by Mrs. Delfene Denney. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Phyllis Long.

Following the honeymoon trip to Northern California, the couple will live in Eagle Point.

Couple Married In Chapel Rites

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Hiestand are making their home at 430 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland, following their marriage November 15 in Ashland. The bride is the former Violet E. Rugg, Siskiyou boulevard, daughter of Mrs. Bess A. Bellows, 47 Wimer avenue. Mr. Hiestand is of Eugene.

The bride wore a light blue brocade taffeta frock in ballerina length. She was attended by her daughter, Miss Linda Florence Rugg, Ashland. Jerry Pettitt, cousin of the bride, was best man and gave the bride in marriage.

The Rev. Oletha M. Abbott of the Chapel of Love officiated at the single ring ceremony held at 7 o'clock in the evening. About 20 relatives and friends attended.

The Stowe sisters' trio provided the wedding music and gave the reception which followed. Refreshments were served by Carletha Abbott and Julie Cox.

The bride is a practical nurse. The bridegroom is self-employed.

Rites Announced For December

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Brooks, 336 O'Garra street, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Rose Ann Brooks, to Burle Beard. Mr. Beard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis K. Beard, Lebanon, Ore.

The bride-elect attended Medford High school and was a nurse's aide at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital. She is now employed at Bear Creek orchards.

The bridegroom-elect attended Lebanon Union High school and is attending Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls, Ore. The wedding is set for December 15 at Medford Friends church.

Mrs. David L. Brumback is the former Donna Jean Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams, Talent.

Newlyweds Make Home In Texas City

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. David L. Brumback are living at 711 East Carson street, Apartment 3A, San Antonio, Texas, following their marriage in that city Friday, November 2. The bride is the former Miss Donna Jean Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams, Talent, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brumback, 612 South Ivy street, Medford.

The rites were read in Lisum Road chapel at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., by Chaplain Robert D. Thomas. About 20 guests attended.

For her wedding the bride wore a blue wool suit which had been made by the bridegroom's mother. Her accessories were white and her corsage was of white flowers.

The couple was attended by friends of the bridegroom and following the wedding a group of friends gave a reception at the post in their honor.

The bride was a senior at Phoenix High school and plans to complete her senior year at San Antonio. Until this year she had attended Prospect High school.

The bridegroom is a Medford High school graduate. He is stationed with the Army in the medical corps at Fort Sam Houston. Before entering the service he was employed at the Burrill Lumber company at White City.

Before the bride-elect's departure for Texas, she was honored at a linen shower held in her home at Talent. In San Antonio, two showers were given in the bride's honor.
