

Astorian To Head League of Cities

Portland — (UPI) — Astoria City Councilman Arnold Swanson was elected president of the League of Oregon Cities at the close of its three-day annual convention here Friday.

Swanson succeeds Portland Mayor Terry Schunk as president of the organization.

Hugh McKinley, Eugene city manager, and Eugene Bauer, mayor of Gladstone, were elected vice president and treasurer.

Delegates at the convention adopted several resolutions including one calling for the repeal of Oregon's controversial ambulance regulations.

The regulations were passed by the state legislature in 1961.
