Three Men Appear In Circuit Court

Donald Howard Wilson, Central Point, was re-sentenced yesterday in Jackson county circuit court to two years in the Oregon State penitentiary for burglary not in a dwelling.

Friday he had been sentenced to two years in the Oregon State Correctional institution, but was refused entry since he had been there before, according to court sources. The OSCI is an intermediate institution for the less severe criminal cases.

Wilson had pleaded guilty earlier to burglary charges.

In circuit court Monday, the probation of Kenneth Wayne Shockley, 23, of 3653 Highway 99 south, was revoked and he was sentenced to the Oregon State Correctional institution for three years. He was charged originally with obtaining personal property from a super market with a check he knew was fictitious.

Kirby Leland LeBaron, 230 Beatty st., Medford, was arraigned, and pleaded guilty to charges of uttering and publishing a forged check. A pre-sentence report was ordered.

Thanksgiving Day will be a happier, more meaningful day...

for a "thank-you visit" to your Church or Synagogue —

You can lift your life... Worship this week

It's a story we all know and love—the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving. The excitement in their little homes must have been pretty much as it is today—the tantalizing smells of roast turkey and pumpkin pie—the bustle and rush of eager children—it must have been a wonderful day!

But before the Pilgrims sat down to their feast they observed the true meaning of Thanksgiving. They all gathered together in their meetinghouse to give thanks for the good they had received, for survival through a long year of hardship, and to pray for the strength and courage to keep their faith in this strange, new land.

This Thanksgiving, why not take your family to your house of worship. A quiet hour of prayer and thanks will make your holiday so much more meaningful.

Wherever you are . . . whatever your beliefs may be . . . take time to offer your words of thanks . . . just as the Pilgrims did more than 300 years ago.

Find the strength for your life...
