Pearls Listed As Most Important Fashion Accent

Pearls are wisdom, so far as Christmas gifts for women are concerned. Regardless of what forms, shape, size or price tag pearls carry, they are a most important accent in the fashion picture, the Jewelry Industry council reports.

The ageless beauty and flattery of pearls have been enhanced by a new fashion appeal to make them one of the most wanted gifts of all this Christmas.

Simulated pearl necklaces come in all sizes, shapes, lengths to fill a wide variety of fashion needs. Multiple strands of tiny simulated pearls are twisted, draped and clasped to make the necklaces and bracelets; they are matched by earrings reflecting fashion's new "soft" trend.

Others, gently graduated, are limited to a 22-inch length and paired with strands of simulated lapis, jade or topaz to give the necklace a whole new fashion appeal.

Bibs of three to five strands boast of beautiful stone-set clasps that are meant to be worn to the front for fashion show. Chokers, single or multiple strands of simulated pearls, enhance any wardrobe.

Cultured pearls also feature shorter lengths of 18 to 22 inches to frame the new necklines. No graduation or a very gentle graduation is the newest mark of cultured pearl necklaces.

Enchanted Oriental pearls continue their ageless appeal with necklaces, earrings, rings and pins that are never-to-be-forgotten gifts.

Oriental pearls, single or in a cluster, also highlight some of the most beautiful pins on the gift market. However, whether real, cultured or simulated, they give a glow of lasting beauty to any jewelry.

'Beauty' Tools For Tiny Miss

A tiny miss tottering in her mother's shoes—or solemnly natural "powdering" her face—demonstrates that even the very young have the natural feminine interest in beauty.

This Christmas delight your pink-size charmer with "beauty" tools of her very own. Besides being fun to use, they can help establish good grooming habits.

For the mite of a miss, Anne Whitfield, beauty consultant for Dial Soap research laboratories, suggests choosing items in gay coordinated colors.

For girls who like sweet-scented baths (and who do not) give bubbly-type bath salts, a fluffy towel and washcloth, a bath powder mitt and, of course, a pretty shower cap. Add to the colorful array with a good deodorant soap with germicidal ingredients to help protect young skins against infection.

Young hands, soiled by finger painting and clay modeling, need beautifying care with a nail brush, emery boards, a manicure set and colorless nail polish.

Even a very young lady should learn the basics of good hair care—with a natural-bristle brush, a small but sturdy comb and, for fun, a frilly sleep cap.

And to imitate mother's beauty routine, give her a "lipstick" (really a pomade for chapped lips) and a light floral cologne.

Give your girl a Christmas gift of "beauty," and she will get a head start towards grown-up good looks.

Fashion News Has Robes for Giving

There's a lot of fashion news in the robe story for Christmas giving.

From classic wrap-around flannels, to elegant wide-sweep beauties, the robe story is elegant.

Smartly printed cottons, cotton flannels and cotton quilts make up into neat novelties for about-the-house wear.

The perennially popular quilted rayon, new handlings in chenille and corduroy, soft wools and fleeces, as well as the more traditional silk, lined nylons and satin-types continue to score in robe styles.

Zippered front, smooth fitting brunch coats... patch pocketed, button front dusters... semi-fitted or free "n" loose peignoir styles lead the array with such details as braid trims, smocking, bows, binding and rick-rack trims, lavish lace touches, handsome yokes and sleeve handlings, beautiful prints and—above all—wonderful wearability, soft colors and, usually, washability.
