EARLY SHOPPER - Decorations along Hollywood blvd. in Hollywood, Calif., have been put in place for the Christmas shopping season and at least one motorist was showing off that he did his Christmas tree shopping early. Temperatures reaching 70 degrees in southern California make it top-down weather. (UPI)

4-H Club News

Antelope Club

The Antelope 4-H achievement meeting was held recently at the Eagle Point Grange hall. There was a potluck dinner before the meeting.

Officers were elected. Jary Hansen was elected president; Dale West, vice president; Cheryl Swaim, secretary; Darrell Stanley, treasurer; Donna Nevin, songleader; Jennifer Nevin, game leader; Judy Hill, gift chairman; Kathy Pritchard, reporter.

Jerry Brog from the county extension office introduced Ron Bean from the Medford branch of the First National bank. He presented pins to members in recognition of the years they had participated in 4-H work.

First year pins were presented to Horace Webster, Eugene Stanley, Janice Pritchard, Mike Lehman, Mike Hefley, Debbie Grissom.

Fourth year pins were presented to Pamela Stevens, Gloria Meyer, Cheryl Hefley, Lester Hill and Lyndie Cate.

Fifth year pins were presented to Jennifer Nevin, Elaine Meyer, Greg Lathrop, Craig Lathrop, Donna Hammond and Kay Bever.

Sixth year pins were presented to Marilyn Lathrop, Bobby Hubbard and Paulette Anderson.

Seventh year pins were presented to Judy Hill, Donna Geren, Nikki Hammond, Errol Coffman and Richard Anderson.

Ninth year pins were presented to Karen Jossy, Georgia Hubbard and Ronald Anderson.

A tenth-year pin was presented to Alice Woolfolk.

The county record book medals were received by Paulette Anderson, Judy Hill, Elaine Meyer and Mary Wallis.

The Oregon Wheat commission award was presented to Gloria Meyer.

The state fair style review award was presented to Karen Jossy, senior division; and Donna Hammond, intermediate division.

The National 4-H Club Congress delegate award was presented to Georgia Hubbard, who also received the Safeway Stores, Inc., award.

Four new members attended. They are Margie Lehman, Allen Hertz, Alice Krambeal and Kathy Pritchard.

The next meeting will be Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Eagle Point Community building. It will be a white elephant gift exchange meeting.
