Subway Trains Collide in London

London (UPI)—Two subway trains collided in central London today, injuring at least six persons and blocking traffic on the line affected.

The accident occurred when one train ran into the rear of another on the section between Victoria Railway Station and the St. James Park Subway Station. The scene is within a few blocks of Buckingham Palace and the houses of Parliament.

A London fire brigade spokesman said six persons were treated in hospitals, two for slight injuries and four for shock.

The accident was blamed on signal trouble.

Passengers on the two trains involved and three others held up in the tunnel behind them had to walk along the tracks to the nearest station.

Mother, Daughter Perish in Flames

Gaston (UPI)—A 20-year-old woman and her 13-month-old daughter died Wednesday in a fire which swept through their home in this Washington county community.

The victims were Mrs. David Van Dyke and her daughter, Cheryl Anne. Mrs. Van Dyke was pregnant.

Darrel Rose, deputy county coroner, said Mrs. Van Dyke had run from the two-story frame house at least once to call for help and then had gone back in to try to save the baby. Their bodies were found in an upstairs bedroom.

The father left for Laurelwood Academy, where he is a teacher, a few minutes before the fire. Preliminary investigation indicated a faulty pipe from a wood stove may have been responsible for the fire, Rose said.

ISSUES RABIES ORDER

The Hague (UPI)—All dogs in Holland must be inoculated against rabies, the Agriculture Ministry announced here Wednesday. The order followed the death of a boy bitten by a rabid dog.
