

Guest Speakers Are Scheduled Sunday For Presbyterians

Due to the meeting of the Youth assembly of Oregon in Medford this week end, some changes will be made for the 9:30 a.m. worship service at First Presbyterian church.

More than 350 young people will attend the first service so the entire lower floor will be reserved for them, it was announced. Adults will be seated in the balcony and the fellowship hall.

Seating will be the same as usual for the 11 a.m. service, church officials said.

Dr. James Robinson, New York City, will speak at both services. He will also speak four times during the Youth Assembly. These youth meetings will be held in the Medford High school auditorium and are open to the public. The times are today at 1:20 and 6:30 o'clock and Saturday 9:15 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.

The youth choir will sing two anthems Sunday for the first service, "Canticle of Peace" and "Open Our Eyes" with tenor solo by Phil Frohnmayer. The chancel choir will sing "Christian, the Morn Breaks Sweetly O'er Thee" with incidental solos by Mrs. Charles P. Champlin and Robert Wright for the 11 a.m. service.

Moderator of the Youth assembly is Joel Gregory, freshman at Harvard university, who arrived home from that eastern college to preside at the meeting.

Westminster

The Rev. Burton Alvis, field director in the Synod of Oregon for the board of Christian education, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday. Before assuming this position Mr. Alvis pastored churches in Portland and Klamath Falls.

During the service the church choir will sing the anthem "To Thee We Sing," and the Rev. John O. Reynolds will lead children's church. Nursery care is available for pre-school children.

Church school will be held at 9:45 a.m. in all departments. The adult class meets in the pastor's office and continues its study of the subject "The People of God in the Bible." New members are welcome.

The junior high fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, 190 White Oak dr., to see the second half of the film on "Martin Luther." The senior high fellowship will not meet this Sunday.

A church school workshop for teachers in all departments and interested parents will be held Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p.m. Subjects to be covered will be the use of visual aids, music, storytelling, and the creative arts in the church school. Special leaders will direct each one of these subjects.

Rally Scheduled Sunday by Area's Baptist Churches

Conservative Baptist churches of Southern Oregon will participate in a Missionary rally Sunday at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist church, 241 Hargadine st., Ashland.

According to the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews, pastor of the Medford First Baptist church and rally general chairman, the rally, entitled "Operation Go," will feature missionaries and mission executives who will give information on the current status of missionary work around the world.

Dr. George Cole Sr., past president of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Missionary society, Wharton, Ill., will be the rally's principal speaker.

Other speakers will be Dr. Rufus Jones, director of the Home Mission society; the Rev. Hubert Morden, missionary to Brazil; the Rev. Marvin Cowan, missionary to Utah, and the Rev. Ken Cummings, former missionary to Portugal and now Northwest representative of the Foreign Mission society.

The purpose of the rally is to inform local church members about what they can do to help the missionary cause, Mr. Andrews said. Cooperating in the rally are churches in Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass, White City, Selma and O'Brien. It is one of more than 70 rallies being held during November and December in all sections of the country by the society.
