Book Club

Luncheon will be served at the Wednesday, November 28 meeting of the Contemporary book club. Members will convene at 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 2512 East Main street. Mrs. Charles Lemery will be cohostess.

Dinner Party Held by Groups

A Thanksgiving dinner party held at the Pythian building Saturday evening was sponsored by the auxiliary to the local branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers. Almost 50 persons attended.

The party was for all local letter carriers and their wives and guests.

The tables were decorated by Mrs. Dennis Pfaff and a committee. The turkeys were furnished by the auxiliary, the rest of the dinner was donated by members, and all arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Mary Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Mary Fredericks and committee.

The remainder of the evening was spent dancing to music furnished by Hamilton Ecker, member of the local branch.

Navy Son Visits Gold Hill Parents

Gold Hill — Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andrews, Upper river road have as their guest for the Thanksgiving holidays their son, John Andrews, a petty officer on duty with the U.S.S. Vega. He has completed a two-year tour of duty with the Navy at Sasebo, Japan.

With each donation the donor includes a poem which relates how the money was earned. Those who fail to include a poem are fined as an extra donation. Money collected at the party is sent to missionaries.

Butte Falls PTA To Meet Monday

Butte Falls — Students of the second and third grades under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Roger Harris and Mrs. Claude Curtis, will furnish the program for the Butte Falls Parent Teacher association meeting Monday, November 26. The session will open at 7:30 p.m., in the high school cafeteria.

The Mothersingers will make their first appearance during the next meeting of the association Monday, December 10.

Open house at the Butte Falls Elementary school was conducted recently in conjunction with American Education week.

Parents and friends attended and visited classrooms where work was on display and teachers spoke to parents regarding individual work or group projects. Rooms were decorated in holiday themes. Girls of the upper grades served refreshments.

Church Women Hold Dollar Day Party

Illinois Valley — The annual Dollar day party for members of the Ladies Missionary society of the Cave Junction Community church was held recently. Purpose of the event is to collect one dollar from each member for missionary work.

With each donation the donor includes a poem which relates how the money was earned. Those who fail to include a poem are fined as an extra donation. Money collected at the party is sent to missionaries.

Evening Circle Meeting Slated

The book, "Pace of a Hen," will be the subject of a panel and group discussion during the meeting of the newly formed evening circle of the Women's fellowship, Medford Congregational church, Tuesday, November 27 at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Welty house, 2940 Hillcrest road.

The group is being formed especially for women who cannot easily attend the regular afternoon monthly meetings of the Women's fellowship. All interested women are invited.

The book to be discussed concerns the needs of the housewife and mother who is confronted with more demands for her time and energy than she can meet.

Home Economists To Hear Speaker

Rogue Valley Home Economists in Homemaking will meet Monday, November 26, at the Girl Scout building, 431 West Ninth street at 7:30 p.m. Florence Medford, guest speaker, will discuss the home economist's role in Girl scouting.

An auction will be held and all members are requested to bring a white elephant. Family customs and Christmas ideas will also be exchanged.

Grasmembers Visit Prospect

Prospect — Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Zella Tullis, Laurelhurst road, were Mr. and Mrs. William Grasmember, Siltcoos, Ore. Mr. Grasmember served as a Jackson county sheriff's deputy some years ago.

Center Class Schedule Announced for Week

Mrs. Herman Ekerson will show colored slides of a trip taken last summer to Alaska to the Arm Chair Travel group Monday, November 26, at 1 p.m. at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street.

The Ekersons, accompanied by Mrs. Tom Brandenburg and the Paul Larson family, took the boat, the Glacier Queen from Vancouver, British Columbia, through the inside passage to Skagway, Alaska, traveling from there via the narrow gauge railroad to Lake Bennett, British Columbia, and return.

Newcomers are welcome to these regular Monday travel shows which are different each week.

There are several changes in the program this week.

The Tuesday mosaic class, which drew many new members last week, will continue to meet each Tuesday from 10 to 12 noon as a workshop.

Mrs. William Tyler, the teacher, has already completed the five lessons in the course.

Many members of the class are already well informed on the techniques of several types of mosaic craft and will help each other and keep the class going, it was stated.

Cooper Tooling
The Copper Tooling class will now meet from 1 to 3 p.m. each Wednesday instead of the former hour of 2 to 4 p.m. Robert Africa, the teacher, is now available at the earlier hour. He is making frames for the copper pictures already made by the class members which may be picked up November 28.

The shuffleboard teams who have spent three days sending out Christmas seals for the Tuberculosis and Health association, will resume their game hours Wednesday from 10 to 12 noon.

The square dance group will continue to meet Thursday morning and the orchestra, which practiced on Saturday last week, will meet as before on Thursday afternoon.

Knitting Class
Due to the illness of one of their members, Mrs. Pearl Spackman who is in the Sacred Heart hospital with a back injury, the orchestra is looking for some senior to play the snare drums. Any senior who is interested may contact John Gribble, 772-5932.

The new knitting class meets Monday afternoons with Mrs. Ed Barnett. Seniors who wish to crochet, tat, do any kind of needle work will be welcome to join the group.

The Tuesday oil painting class, which is taught by Mrs. Wanda Williams, had two members showing paintings in the last two weeks' art exhibit at Rath's store. They are Mrs. W. H. Walwyn and F. E. Friden. New members who wish to learn to paint are welcome to join the class at any time. The class meets from 1 to 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Ta-Ya-Mi-Ci Group
Girls of Jefferson school met recently at the home of Mrs. Tony Gerwick. We elected officers: Lynn Sanford was elected president, Diane Christensen, vice-president; Jocelyn Greer, scribe; Debbie Winans, treasurer; Linda Gerwick, secretary; Susan Blinagar, chairman.

Jocelyn Greer, Scribe.

Return
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Lattie, North Phoenix road, returned Friday from Portland where they had been since Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with their son, James Lattie.

Medford Garden club held a workshop recently at the home of the president, Mrs. C. F. Gordon (right) to make ornaments for swags and wreaths which clubs of the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, will put in the rooms and halls of the Veterans' Administration domiciliary at White City. Mrs. C. F. Gordon (right) is chairman of the club's domiciliary program. The ornaments were all made from articles and materials which the club members had in their homes; no new materials were purchased for the project. (Knackstedt photo)
