Colts Acquire Runnels From Boston Red Sox; Put in Bid for Adcock

By MILTON RICHMAN
Rochester, N.Y. —(UPI)—Trading in rapid-fire fashion, the Houston Colts put in a bid for Joe Adcock today after landing American league batting champion Pete Runnels while the Detroit Tigers planned still another deal to go with two they made Sunday.

The winter baseball meetings actually don't start until today but Houston, Detroit, Boston, Baltimore and Cleveland didn't even bother to wait.

All five swung deals Sunday and here is how they went:

—Runnels was traded to the Colts by the Red Sox for outfielder Roman Mejias.

—Catcher Gus Triandos and outfielder Whitey Herzog went to the Tigers from the Orioles in exchange for catcher Dick Brown.

—And the Tigers also obtained third baseman Bubba Phillips from the Indians for pitchers Ron Nischwitz and Gordon Seyfried.

—Runnels Swap Biggest
The biggest deal of the day was the Runnels-Mejias swap and Houston officials indicated they would attempt to follow it up by trying to get Adcock from the Braves.

"We needed a dependable hitter like Runnels," said Colts General Manager Paul Richards. "We realize he doesn't hit the long ball too often but there aren't many better hitters than him in the game."

The 34-year-old, lefthanded hitting Runnels beat out Mickey Mantle for the American league batting crown by five points this year with a .326 average, although he drove in only 61 runs and hit 10 homers in 152 games.

Runnels, who never averaged less than .314 in five seasons with the Red Sox, also won the AL batting title in 1960 with a .320 mark.

"We're thinking of Runnels either at second base or in the outfield even though he generally played first base for the Red Sox," Richards revealed.

That's where Adcock suddenly comes into Houston's plans. If the Colts can get him from the Braves—"but we're certainly not going to give up

Warriors Have Will in More Ways Than One

United Press International
Coach Bob Feerick of the San Francisco Warriors is faced with the problem of taking the "will" out of his National Basketball Association team—and that's no reflection on his star center.

The Warriors have lost seven of their last eight games, despite the fact that Will Chamberlain is averaging better than 50 points per contest.

The San Francisco team suffered its third home loss in a row Sunday night as the Cincinnati Royals led from start to finish for a 128-115 victory. Even Chamberlain wilted slightly, as he was held to a mere 41 points.

Jack Twyman led the Royal assault with 27 points. The fabulous Oscar Robertson scored 24 and set up his teammates for easy baskets time and again during the game.

The Warriors received some encouragement with the fourth quarter performance of Tom Meschery, who made his first appearance since fracturing his wrist in the Army. Meschery hit four goals in a row, but it wasn't enough to overtake the Royals.

The game was the only one played in the NBA Sunday night. In tonight's only contest, the Chicago Zephyrs visit the Los Angeles Lakers, who are tied with St. Louis for the Western Division lead.

Kozak, Sasaki Contend In Texas Death Tussle

A wrestling card which could be the best in Medford in many a day has been completed for next Thursday night at the Medford armory.

The main event will be a Texas Death Match between Nick Kozak, the airplane spinner from Vancouver, B.C., and Haru Sasaki, the Japanese sleeper artist from Los Angeles.

The local wrestling commission has agreed to a contract with only choke holds, eye gouging and low blows barred. There will be any number of falls, the men going until one cannot answer the bell. A rest of one minute will be allowed between falls.

Bad blood developed between the two on the Nov. 9 program here when Kozak jumped into the ring to help Ted Evans, subdued by Sasaki's sleeper hold which he refused to break. It took Promoter Elton Owen and the referee to separate the men.

Sasaki challenged Kozak to a match, which was readily accepted.

Savage Returns
The semi-windup marks the return of a local favorite, popular but rough Wild Bill Savage of Oregon City. He will go against Evans, the Canadian who specializes in the figure four toe hold, in two out of three falls or 45 minutes.

OSWBA Will Conduct Workshop, Annual Meeting at GP Tourney
A workshop on Saturday, Dec. 1, and the annual breakfast and meeting on Sunday, Dec. 2, will be among highlights of the state tournament of the Oregon State Woman's Bowling association being held at Grants Pass.

The workshop will be at 10 a.m. at Larry's Drive-in and the breakfast at 9:30 a.m. at the Josephine County fairgrounds on Highway 199.

Officers of the Medford Woman's Bowling association stress that local women are invited to attend both events.

Louise Kopp, Pendleton, OSWBA second vice-president will be workshop moderator. Mrs. James Farrar, president of the Medford association and member of the state tournament committee, will discuss city association tournament.

Parliamentary Procedure
Mabel Marrs, president of the OSWBA, and Florence Andrus, vice-president, will talk on parliamentary procedure and city association constitutions. Hazel Sinn, junior bowling supervisor's assistant will speak on junior bowling in Oregon.

The Oregon 600 club will be discussed by Muriel Baz, secretary of the club. Evelyn Kobow, secretary of the OSWBA, will speak concerning league rules and regulations. Question and answer periods will follow the talks.

The workshop will recess at noon and reconvene at 1 p.m. It is pointed out that local

RESPONSE!

Newspaper Advertising Brings Reader Response... through Buying Action!

More buying action results from newspaper advertising because of the atmosphere of believability. You've heard people say, "I know it's true, it's in the papers!" The printed word has always been accepted as more honest and binding.

Newspapers report facts; other media offer entertainment. Your advertising in an atmosphere of believability is bound to induce more "want-to-buy" action than that framed in fiction or entertainment.

Newspapers offer another vital element—an atmosphere of timeliness and urgency. This sense of immediacy fosters "here-and-now" sales action that no other print medium can match.

If it's a question of consumer response—newspapers are the answer!

"Your grandchildren will grow up under Communism!"
—says NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV
Will the Soviet threat come true? Will your grandchildren live under Communism? Forget God? Salute the Soviet flag?
"Never," you say. But are you sure? How can you oppose Communism? One sure way. Help Radio Free Europe. What does it do? It broadcasts the news of freedom to 79 million people behind the Iron Curtain. It helps keep them from turning to Communism. It poses a major obstacle to the Russians starting a war. But Radio Free Europe depends on individual Americans for its existence. Will you help? Give a dollar? Give 5 dollars... or more?
