SOC Play Opening Tonight

Ashland — "Goodbye My Fancy," a comedy by Kay Kanin opens at Church Hall auditorium, Southern Oregon college, this week end for a three-performance run. Curtain times are 8:15 p.m. Thursday and Friday, November 29 and 30, and 2 p.m. Saturday, December 1, it is announced by Dr. Dorothy Stolp, director.

Madeleine Carroll and Conrad Nagle played the leading roles of the congresswoman's secretary and the college president in the original Broadway production in 1948. Shirley Booth acted the role of the congresswoman's secretary and Bethel Leslie was seen as the college president's daughter.

In the SOC Players' production, Joan Ricketts, who has appeared with the Footlighters in Medford, is the congresswoman. Neil Green, the president of the college where she is to receive an honorary degree, Rose Mary White, the secretary, and Dave O'Donoghue, the photographer have been seen in a number of previous SOC Players' productions. Nola Robbins, who plays the Bethel Leslie role, has been seen with the Medford High School Thespians.

Other experienced players in the cast are: Regina Lundergan, who has played with the Texas A. and M. Players at College Station, Texas; Ken Fontaine with the Footlighters; Lois Stedman with the Thespians, and Fran Wynkoop with the University of Oregon Theatre.

Medford Woman Bridge Winner

Phoenix, Ariz. — Competing against a field of 732 players in the Yuma Pairs, a single-session championship feature of the fall national tournament of the American Contract Bridge League here, Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, 230 Saginaw drive, Medford, and Mrs. Amy Mernin, San Francisco, won top score in their section.

Record breaking crowds are playing for points and titles in the tournament, which ends Sunday, December 2.

Farm Bureau Women Hear Convention News
Montague — Shasta Valley Farm Bureau Women convened recently at the home of Mrs. Roy Townley in Little Shasta Valley.

Mrs. George Flock reported on her attendance at the state convention in San Diego earlier in the month.

Discussion was held of the distribution of the records "Living Constitution" purchased by the group recently. They are to be used in the schools in the area.

The unit's Christmas meeting will be December 17, at the home of Mrs. Flock.

WWI Barracks Will Nominate; Dinner Held

Nomination of officers will be conducted during the next business meeting of the Veterans of World War I barracks and auxiliary to be held on December 5, officers have announced.

The group met recently for a dinner in observance of Thanksgiving day when nearly 100 members and guests attended.

Joseph Dalton had charge of carving the turkeys for the dinner which had been prepared by Mrs. Claude Stevens, Mrs. Frank Otis and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Assisting with dinner arrangements were Mrs. Joseph Dalton, Mrs. Jack Gindling, Mrs. Shell Hale and Mrs. Frank Hoffman. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Fred Clark, Mrs. Anson Pitcher and Mrs. George Gunn.

A cake baked by Mrs. Wilbur Culp was served by Mrs. Gunn to members whose birthdays were in November.

A gift was presented the groups by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krieger who could not attend.

In Windsor

Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lemos and son Larry left on Wednesday to spend a few days at Windsor, Calif. on the Russian river with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pedrotti.

Officers Elected

Mrs. N. R. Deaver was re-elected president of the Friends of the Library of Jackson county at a meeting of the group, Monday evening in the Medford library. Other officers elected were: Harry Chipman, vice president; Omar A. Bacon, secretary; and Mrs. Curtis Nesheim, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Miss Claire Hanley, Mrs. Leland Mentzer, Mrs. Harry Danielson, Mrs. Moore Hamilton, John L. DuBay, Robert Heffernan, Donald Denman and S. Emil Duwe, all of Medford; Mrs. R. E. Axtell, Trail; John B. Harr, Rogue River; Mrs. George Moore, Central Point; Mrs. Donald Korth, Phoenix; Mrs. David H. Kahl, Eagle Point and Dave Allen, Jacksonville.

Activities for the Friends during the year were discussed. The group will sponsor the formation of a book selection consultant committee to assist Mr. Bacon, head librarian, and staff to obtain material of special interest to valley organizations. The Friends will arrange activities at the library during National Library week in April.

A coffee hour followed the business meeting.
