BLM Plans Roads In Deschutes Area

Portland –(UPI)– A Bureau of Land Management official said today BLM is planning construction of public access roads and development of recreation facilities for public use along the middle and lower Deschutes river where lands now are "bottled up."

Robert E. Wilber, a staff assistant to the Oregon BLM director, told the Portland Chapter of the Izaak Walton League the facilities would bring millions of dollars into local and state economies every year.

Wilber said there are 60 miles of publicly owned river frontage along the lower and middle Deschutes which are bottled up and closed to the public by a few private organizations. He said the organizations are maintaining roads and imporvements on pubic lands and using the lands as "their own private recreation retreat."

"Tt permit these lands to remain bottled up for limited use is contrary to the public interest," he said.

BLM designated 25,000 acres of public lands along the Deschutes for retention in federal ownership as a multiple use public land management area in 1961. The bureau has since entered into agreement with the Oregon Game Commission on development and management of the area's resources.

Wilber said public recreation will receive top priority but grazing, wildlife use, watershed protection, mineral development and other uses will be worked into future development.

He said the game commission estimates 66,300 angler trips were made to the Deschutes River between Warm Springs and its mouth during 1961 and that $520,000 was spent in pursuit of fish in that part of the stream.

Regulations on FHA Enforcement Of Order Told

Washington –(UPI)– Federal Housing Administration chief Neal J. Hardy announced today that owner-occupants of one and two - family houses will be exempt from a presidential order prohibiting discrimination in the sale and rental of federally aided housing.

Hardy made the announcement in releasing detailed regulations on how FHA plans to enforce Kennedy's order.

The regulations prescribed no minimum number of houses for sale or rent which would make a builder or landlord subject to the order. Hence, FHA can apply the order to any commercial-type seller or landlord, regardless of how few housing units he sells or rents.

Hasn't Decided

Hardy said he had not decided whether the order would apply to a three or four-family house if one flat or apartment is occupied by the landlord.

The Veterans Administration, which guarantees GI home loans, published regulations similar to FHA's. Hardy and Philip N. Brownstein, VA's chief benefits director, explained the regulations at a joint news conference.

Hardy estimated that FHA and VA loans account for 23 to 25 per cent of U.S. home building.

The regulations provided that a prospective buyer, borrower or tenant may complain of discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed or national origin to a local FHA or VA office.

Would Investigate

The target of the complaint would be invited by the agency to "discuss the matter in an informal hearing." If he denied the charge, the agency would investigate and perhaps hold a hearing, taking unsworn testimony.

If the agency found there was discrimination, the builder, lender or landlord would be summoned to a conference at which officials would seek his promise to refrain from further discrimination.

If he refused, the agency could cut him off from further participation in government housing programs.

Appeals from field office decisions could be made to FHA and VA headquarters. A builder, lender or landlord also could seek relief in the federal courts.

Strauss Will Quit Adenauer Cabinet

Munich, Germany–(UPI)–Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss announced today he is quitting his post in Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's cabinet.

Strauss announced his decision in a communique issued by his Christian Social Union, the Bavarian branch of Adenauer's Christian Democratic Party.

Last week Strauss and all the other CDU members of the cabinet offered their resignations to Adenauer to give him a free hand in meeting a crisis caused by his Free Democratic Party coalition partners. However, Adenauer did not act on the offers pending the outcome of last Sunday's Bavarian state elections, in which Strauss figured prominently.

Portland Workers Injured in Falls

Portland –(UPI)– Two workmen were injured in falls here Thursday.

John Horner, 25, suffered back and head injuries when he fell from a scaffold inside a sugar storage silo. He fell about 30 feet onto a concrete floor at the Amalgamated Sugar Co.

An ironworker fell three stories from a scaffold at the Standard Plaza Building but escaped with only superficial injuries. Carl Holmes, 31, Portland, suffered contusions and abrasions.

Airlines Ask Approval Of Mutual Aid Pact

Washington –(UPI)– Eight major airlines Thursday asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to approve an indefinite renewal of their agreement to give each other financial help during labor disputes.

The CAB is holding hearings on whether the airlines' mutual aid pact should be allowed to continue. Unions have charged that the agreement is illegal and violates the Railway Labor Act. The eight carriers who are members of the pact are American, Braniff, Continental, Eastern, Northwest, Pan American, Trans World and United.

PILOT, CAPTAIN CHARGED IN SHIP COLLISION

Yokohama–(UPI)–A Japanese pilot and a Norwegian captain were remanded on charges of criminal negligence Thursday in connection with a tanker collision that killed 41 persons earlier this month.

They were Capt. Peter Pedersen, 61, of the Norwegian tanker Tharald Brovig, and Toraichiro Uematsu, 75, who was piloting the Tharald through a crowded waterway when it collided with the Japanese tanker Munakata Maru. The captain of the Japanese tanker, which caught fire after the collision, also was named in an indictment but he died in the tragedy.

SOVIET ANTHOLOGY SAID MOST IMPORTANT

Moscow–(UPI)–An anthology of Soviet poetry containing anti-Stalin verse was cited by the official news agency Tass Thursday as the most important publication of poetry this year.

Tass said the anthology, "Poetry Day," contains poems by 200 writers, including Boris Pasternak and Yevtushenko. Soviet literary circles have been stressing anti - Stalinist themes lately.

ARREST OF COMMUNISTS IN INDIA PROTESTED

Moscow–(UPI)–The Communist party newspaper Pravda today protested the arrest of Communists in India last week.

It said it occurred under "extraordinary laws" adopted in connection with the fighting over the border with China. Western observers said the Pravda protest appeared mild, because it was not expressed directly.
