

If the teen man and his girl spend their leisure hours outdoors in the snow and rain, they will enjoy this stylish version of "his and hers" ponchos. According to the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, the pullovers with brightly hued patch pockets are popular with the young crowd.

This hand silk-screened over-shirt designed by Mr. Dino is a striking print in the bold colors of emerald, yellow and turquoise. It is worn with coordinating silk pants.

Lee Claire's Minaret silhouette with rippling tiers of fluid black Celanese crepe is typical of the elegant frocks which will be found at holiday parties in the Rogue valley.

For Parties For the Outdoors For Resort Wear

Miss Datesetter will wear this David Hecht party frock of shimmering Celanese satin to ring in the holiday season and the New Year.

Typical of the newest look for resort or cruise wear is this Americana print tunic worn with solid color pants.

This dress-up version of the continental apres-ski look in sweaters is by Mr. Dino. The flowers are of shocking pink or turquoise on a white background.

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1962

According to the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, this ensemble of matching plaid slacks and vest worn with a dark solid-color silver-buttoned blazer is meant for country week and wear.