Reception Honors Couple On Golden Anniversary

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jackson, 606 Iowa street, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary November 24 and were honored at a reception given by their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jackson, 606 Allison street.

Among the 160 guests who joined in the celebration were four generations of the family: Mrs. Jackson's 91-year-old father, E. B. Fisher of Craig, Colo., and their son and his three sons, David, Melvin and Robert, all of Ashland.

Also attending the reception were other relatives from a distance: Mrs. Charlotte Claar, Grand Junction, Colo., Mr. Jackson's niece, his nephew, Carlos Jackson and wife and their daughter Susan from Salt Lake City, Utah; Mrs. Jackson's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, Montague, Calif.; her cousin, Mrs. Irene Litton and son Kent from Warm Springs, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fowler, Ashland.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hartwell and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hartwell, all of Klamath Falls.

A golden color scheme prevailed throughout the rooms in baskets of autumn flowers as well as in the gifts and greetings received by the couple.

An elaborate wedding cake decorated the table from which punch and coffee were served. Mrs. Norman Klavins baked and decorated the cake. The antique coffee service was loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Virginia Greene. Nephews and nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson assisted during the afternoon and evening open house and their grandson, Robert Jackson, was in charge of the guest book. Those who served included Mrs. Claar, Mrs. Carlos Jackson, Miss Susan Jackson, Mrs. David Jackson, Mrs. Gayard Fowler, Miss Viola Hartwell, Mrs. Roy Hartwell and Mrs. E. N. Terrill.

For the anniversary reception Mrs. Jackson wore a two-piece afternoon ensemble of flowered blue silk and a deep purple throat orchid corsage.

Of interest to the guests was a photograph of the couple taken soon after their marriage in 1912 at Cheyenne Wells, Colo. The wedding date, November 25, is of double significance as it is also Mr. Jackson's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson first lived in Colorado and for a few years resided in Whittier, Calif. They have made their home in Ashland since 1920. Mr. Jackson has owned and operated restaurants in northern California and southern Oregon until recently and is now devoting most of his time to rental interests. Mrs. Jackson's hobby is iris and day lily culture and the Jackson gardens are famous for their beautiful spring and summer flowers. Each year crowds of visitors come from long distances to see the spectacular display. Mrs. Jackson has been an active member of the Ashland Garden club for many years.

Phoenix Women Slate Bazaar

Phoenix—Area women who are interested in filling their Christmas lists are invited to the annual holiday bazaar of the Women's association of the Phoenix Presbyterian church Friday, December 7, at the church. A wide selection of bazaar items along with baked goods will be on sale beginning at 12 noon, the committee states. Coffee and cookies will be served during the afternoon.

Following the bazaar that evening, the Women's association will serve a chicken dinner. Due to sports events in the community that evening the dinner will begin serving at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Edwin Brown is chairman of the bazaar and Mrs. Marvin Williams has charge of plans for the dinner.

It's not too late!

County Home Extension Unit Meetings Scheduled

The December meetings of the Jackson county extension units are popular ones for it is during this month that the unit women have special interest meetings. Early in the year the women vote in each unit to decide which subject they would be most interested in learning more about.

Most of the units will have a lesson on yeast breads, according to Miss Joan Beasley, home agent, who taught project leaders the principles of working with yeast.

The demonstrations will include breads, fancy holiday breads, sweet rolls and coffee cakes.

Westside
Westside unit will meet Thursday, December 6, 1962, at 10:30 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Austin E. Caldwell, 3475 Freeland road, Central Point.

A potluck luncheon will be held, to coincide with the special interest program on light breads.

Since this is the Christmas meeting, there will also be a gift exchange.

Lake Creek
The Lake Creek unit will meet on Wednesday, December 5, at the home of Mrs. John Benson, Brownsboro. The project lesson will be given by Mrs. Edmund Armitage and Mrs. Carl Vickoren.

A Christmas gift exchange will be held, with a $1 limit.

A report is to be given on the extension bazaar held November 26 in the extension auditorium in Medford.

Lesson suggestions for next year's program are to be brought to the meeting.

Each person attending is to take table service, and the menu will consist of foods appropriate for the holiday season.

The meeting will open promptly at 10:30 a. m. Women of the area are invited to attend.

Butte Falls
Mrs. William Bowen and Mrs. Elvin Rudge plan to give a lesson on, "Holiday Breads," at 10 a. m., Thursday, December 6, at the home of Mrs. William Earl on Laurel street.

To add interest, Mrs. Bowen has asked that each one attending, bring a favorite bread recipe.

The mosaic workshops have started and members are asked to watch for notices of time and place. Mrs. Donald Jolliffe is the director.

Child care for the unit meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Norling.

Griffin Creek
Mrs. George L. Mero, 1613 Thomas road, will be the hostess for the Griffin Creek unit at her home on Friday, December 7, at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Noel Erskine and Mrs. Eugene Pease will give the lesson. The covered dish luncheon at noon will feature Christmas foods.

There will be a gift exchange Christmas party in the afternoon. Those attending are reminded to take a handmade ornament to decorate the Christmas tree.

Child care will be provided, and further information may be obtained from Mrs. Arthur Savage, telephone 772-7601. All interested women of the community are invited.

Winchester
Winchester unit will meet Thursday, December 6, in the home of Mrs. Fred Buehling, 1232 Winchester avenue. A special interest project in gift wrapping will be given.

Members are to be prepared with suggestions for next year's project planning. This is the unit's annual Christmas party with exchange of gifts by members. Mrs. Gordon Gillmore and Mrs. John Finkbeiner will be cohostesses for the evening.

Medford Parents
A gift exchange will be held in the home of Mrs. Owen Kunkel, 1411 East McAndrews road, when Medford Parents unit meets Tuesday, December 4 at 7:30 p. m.

Upper Applegate
Dr. George Breece of Rogue Valley Manor will speak on "Life in Kentucky Mountains," during the Upper Applegate unit meeting Wednesday, December 5. The meeting will be in the Rich Community church.

Members are to take articles for a silent auction and Christmas gifts for the state mental hospital. Everyone is to take food and table service.
