

Ducks Nip Washington Club 59-57

Seattle—UPI—The Oregon Ducks found a new hero here Tuesday night in hometown boy Elliott Gleason, who provided the Webfoot with their winning points in a 59-57 win over Washington.

The Ducks proved themselves a power to be reckoned with in the Northwest as they collected their second victory in three games this year.

Gleason, a six-foot sophomore from Seattle, calmly sank two free throws with 39 seconds to play in noise-filled Edmundson Pavilion to put the game out of reach of the Huskies.

Free throws accounted for the last 14 Oregon points as the Huskies got over-anxious on their full-court press in the closing minutes.

Washington forward Steve Wilson led all scorers with 20 points and teammate Dale Easley added 15. Forward Steve Jones scored 17, center Glenn Moore 13 and Gleason 10 for Oregon.

Oregon now is idle until Dec. 17 and 18, when it plays host to Stanford in Eugene.

White, USC Gain Principal Awards

New York—UPI—Supreme Court Justice Byron R. (Whizzer) White and the University of Southern California football team received the major awards Tuesday night at the annual dinner of the National Football foundation and Hall of Fame.

White, a former All-American halfback at Colorado and later a pro star in the National Football league, was awarded the foundation's Gold Medal for his contributions to the sport.

Previous recipients of the Gold Medal were three presidents—Dwight Eisenhower, Herbert Hoover and John F. Kennedy—and General of the Army Douglas MacArthur.

Southern California received the MacArthur Bowl as the nation's top college football team of 1962. It was accepted by Jess Hill, Southern Cal's athletic director.

Twelve men were inducted into the Hall of Fame and eight scholar-athletes, including Heisman Trophy winner Terry Baker of Oregon State, were awarded the Earl Blaik fellowships for graduate study.

The 1962 electees to the football Hall of Fame: Ben Lee Boynton, Williams; Guy Chamberlain, Nebraska; Dan Hill Jr., Duke; Cal Hubbard, Centenary; Philip King, Princeton; John McEwan, Army; John Minds, Penn; Pat O'Dea, Wisconsin; Joseph Routh, Texas A&M; William Spears, Vanderbilt; Andrew Wyatt, Bucknell; and Tuss McLaughry, coach at Westminster, Brown, Amherst and Dartmouth.

The Earl Blaik Fellowship winners in addition to Baker were Al Snyder, Holy Cross; Tim Callard, Princeton; Gary Cuzzo, Virginia; Gary Heckman, Dayton; Rex Russell, Oklahoma State; Pat Culpepper, Texas, and Ron Manno, Utah.

Seattle Takes Lead in North
United Press International
Seattle has displaced Vancouver atop the Western Hockey league's Northern division thanks to the fancy foot-work of Totem goalie Al Millar.

Seattle nipped Edmonton, 3-1, and Spokane bounced Vancouver, 3-3, to move the Seattle club two points ahead of the Canucks.

Millar was under attack all night at Edmonton, but when the contest was over, Seattle had handed Edmonton its sixth straight home defeat and its 15th setback in the last 16 games.

Rudy Fillion, Don Ward and Jim Towers scored for Seattle while Lou Maroon scored for Edmonton.

Spokane moved out to a 4-1 lead after two periods when Vancouver fought back. Bob McCusker and Trend Beatty tallied for Vancouver who pulled goalie Gilles Villemeur out of the nets in the dying moments in an all-out gamble to knot the score. It failed as Day Bell hit the clincher into the open net.

Nebraska Gets Grid Bowl Spot
New York—UPI—Nebraska, mauled the last time it met a Southern team in a bowl game, hopes to present the university with its first post-season college football winner in the Dec. 15 Gotham Bowl against Miami (Fla.) at Yankee Stadium.

Nebraska has appeared in two previous bowl games, losing to Duke in the Orange Bowl in 1955, 34-7, and to a Frankie Albert-led Stanford team in the 1941 Rose Bowl, 21-13.

The Cornhuskers took 15 seconds to decide on the Gotham trip Tuesday after receiving a firm invite from bowl director Bob Curran.

Miami got the nod by beating Florida last Saturday night. Hurricane Coach Andy Gustafson was elated over the bid because it gave his players a chance to play in New York and cut down the practice period required for a late December bowl game.

TASEFF QUITTING
Buffalo, N.Y.—UPI—Carl Taseff missed the Bills' last professional football, informed the Buffalo Bills Tuesday he was quitting the game. Taseff missed the Bills' last two American league games because of a shoulder injury.
