

BUTTONS FROM MONACO—When students at St. Mary's grade school conducted a button drive last winter and spring, Pat Brusha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brusha of Hopkins rd., Central Point, wrote to Princess Grace of Monaco asking for any buttons she might wish to contribute. Recently he received a package from Monaco with the above buttons enclosed. Another button drive will be held at the school this winter. Mounted on cards, the buttons will then be sold at the B&B auction by auctioneer O. J. Brenner to raise funds for the school.

Only Outstanding Stock Shares Sold At State Auction

Salem — UP — A dramatic battle with dollars between a private citizen and the giant Mountain States Telephone company was played out here Tuesday at the Land Board auction of unclaimed articles.

Seven and a half shares of Malheur Home Telephone Co. stock—the only shares not owned by the company—were auctioned for $825.

The stocks had a book value of $10 a share, or a total book value of $75.

R. K. Timothy, Mountain States Telephone Co., Boise, Idaho, finally won ownership of the shares by bidding $110 a share.

"I don't want these stocks out," was all he said. Wanted To See Value.

Bidding against Timothy was Al Denbowski of Dallas. He quit bidding at $107.50 a share.

"I just wanted to see what they were worth," he commented after the bidding closed.

The bidding for the stock opened at $5 a share, and soon skyrocketed to the point where only Timothy and Denbowski were bidding.

Auctioneer Gene Lewin took the bidding up in $2.50 steps as Timothy and Denbowski took turns at upping the price.

More than 100 persons were in rooms 6 and 7 of the Statehouse Tuesday morning. Golf clubs, tea serving sets, jewelry and stocks were among the items being sold.

The Auction of more than 300 items continued throughout the day.

Lewin, wearing a flaming red shirt and tan pants and hat, enticed the prospective buyers with a sing-song chant.

One 17 jewel watch sold for $4, another for $20. Earrings went for $2. A pin was sold for $1.

Proceeds from the sale go into a special fund. Interest on the money goes to the school fund. The principal is held in case it is ever claimed.

Items being sold were unclaimed, and turned over to the state. After being held for a time, they are auctioned.

Tuesday's was the first such Land Board auction in three years.

Accused Killer Sent To Hospital

Salem — UP — Edward W. Sheckler, 27, was in the State Hospital here today after a Condon court Monday ruled him incapable of standing trial on charges of killing a state policeman.

Sheckler was accused of slaying State Parolman Ralph Bates of Medford near Arlington a few weeks ago. Bates was found shot to death on the highway.

Sheckler, carrying a gun, was arrested a few hours later. He was charged with the slaying but denied it.

Sheckler, who has spent time in a state hospital before, appeared in Circuit Court at Condon Monday. Two psychiatrists testified he was unable to assist in his own defense or to recognize the charges against him.

Judge E. H. Howell ordered him committed to the State Hospital until he is able to stand trial.

Chief Makes Plea For Dry Parties

Businesses and industries planning holiday employee parties this month are cautioned to keep the parties "dry" or provide transportation home for employees.

Chief of Police Charles P. Champlin warned that holiday office parties must "share in the blame for the tragic holiday traffic toll each year" and said he was joining the National Safety Council and the Oregon Traffic Safety commission in making the plea to employers.

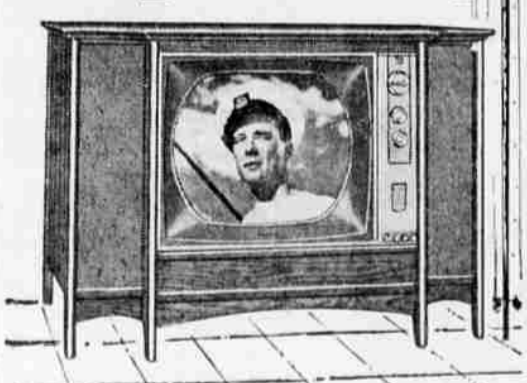

Chief Champlin reminded that it's the driver who has had "only a few drinks" who often presents the greatest traffic hazard since his judgment is dulled and his reactions are slowed, even though he may feel in top-top condition to drive.

Drinking drivers, he said, are involved in more than half the fatal Christmas time accidents in the nation. During the balance of the year, they are involved in one out of three.
