4-H Club News

Eagle Point Ranchers

The Eagle Point Ranchers 4-H club held their last meeting with 12 members and three parents attending.

The meeting was called to order by Darrell Dowell vice president. We planned a party time at our next meeting on Monday, Dec. 10, at the FFA building. Each member is to invite one guest and we are to take a gift, the cost not to exceed five cents.

Cookies were furnished at the meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Burrill.

Gold Hill Livestock

The first meeting of the Gold Hill Livestock 4-H club was called to order recently at the Sam Jones residence. We enrolled several new members.

Under new business we elect officers for the new year.

Bob Gail, our leader, showed us the film "In Good Hands," an educational film about a boy and a Hereford calf. It showed some of the things required for a 4-H beef project.

The next meeting is set for Dec. 17 at Peggy Martin's home. It is to be our annual Christmas party.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sam Jones, Candy Gail, Reporter.

DISLIKE HOUSEGUESTS

Stokenchurch, England—Neighbors complained to town officials today about some of the company Count Andre Lazard is keeping at his home. His guests include a lioness, five bears, a leopard, llama, boa constrictor, chimp and geese—all part of his traveling menagerie now housed in cages during the winter layover.

Suede Popular in Casual Wear

The secret of Santa's success with men is a gift that spells good taste and good living. A leather jacket or coat fits the gift formula to a "T."

This season soft suede, smooth and lightly grained leathers take over in men's casual fashions. Masculine, yet smart and bright as winter sports clothes, lightweight leather garments are tops in style, versatile in the wardrobe and easy on your gift budget.

For the sports car enthusiast, there are tapered jackets with broad comfortable shoulders, designed for free wheeling. In creamy tan, rich stag or jet black, a trim leather car coat puts the spotlight on its wearer.

One of the newest car coats of smooth, soil-resistant leather, has a yoke-like effect across the chest in which are set the opening to two neatly set breast pockets—one for cigarettes, the other for a wallet. Another leather sports jacket features convenient pockets on the sleeves to hold coins for toll collectors and a pen to jot down important numbers or notes. Self-leather buttons and a collar tab close the coat against brisk winds.

There are few garments as mobile and unhampering as a leather- and - knit jacket. Available in light knits combined with smooth, grained or suede leather, these jackets are seen in black, taupe and natural deerskin colors that highlight tweed, worsted and cheviot slacks. Knit insets under arms and on cuffs and waistbands either match or contrast.

That suede, he loves to touch, is found this year in everything from a casual three-button sack jacket—appropriate for both city and suburban streets—to a wind-breaker that combines masculine smartness with weather-wise practicality.

DEMILOUNGE CHAIR - A gift of real comfort is this demilounge chair luxuriously upholstered in foam rubber. The chair has a swivel base that makes it ideal for TV viewing or conversation. Its handsome silk cover makes it a fashionable addition to any room.—By DUNBAR
