

Mrs. Jean Ann Griggs (center) last week received a national Altrusa club grant to aid her in continuing her training in the Southern Oregon School of Practical Nursing. Mrs. Griggs is shown with Mrs. Bertha Morrill, R.N., instructor and coordinator for the nursing school, and Mrs. Walter Young, president of Medford Altrusa club. Aid to older women needing assistance to train for business or the professions is a continuing project of Altrusa clubs on a national and local level.

Concert, Dinner Planned by PTA

Central Point - The winter concert of Central Point Junior High school and the annual chili feed sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association will be held Thursday, December 13, at the Junior High school. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m., and the concert will be at 8 p.m.

The band, under the direction of Harry Meyers, will play "On Parade March" written by Mr. Meyers, a medley of spirituals and other numbers. The chorus will sing five numbers.

This is the major money raising event of the PTA. The membership is still short of the 600 anticipated number. It is stated, and there will be a booth Thursday night for those who wish to join.

There will be no executive or regular PTA meeting for December.

Kuck, Vera Bryant, Mai Morton, Lela Meek, Hylda Cooley, Sidney Terwilliger, Sam Cairns, Jess Sylva, James Young, Ralph Leavers, Helen Richardson, Ray Quigley, Charles Schultz, Ogden Walters, Roland Dexter and Sarah Jones.

Projects Completed At Illinois Valley

Illinois Valley - A total of $239.56 worth of dresses, quilts and other items have been completed by the Zulema Illinois Valley. Nite club. It was announced at a meeting of the club December 4. The items will be sent to the Shriners hospital in Portland.

The club members also made a donation to the hospital for a Christmas box. Another donation was made to the Convalescent Relief fund.

Mrs. Vivian Deaton was hostess to the group. Announcement also was made of a ceremonial to be held December 12 in Klamath Falls. This will replace one previously scheduled for December 8 in Ashland.

The local December meeting has been canceled in favor of an annual party to be held on January 4 in the Dan Piper home when a potluck dinner will be served.

Travelers Visit

Hornbrook - Overnight guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Spearin Jr. were her father, Ben Schuld and Mrs. Schuld of Oregon City, Ore. The visitors were enroute home after a trip to Los Angeles to see a new granddaughter for the first time. The baby is the daughter of Mrs. Spearin's brother, Don and his wife.

Altrusans Will Honor Scholarship Winners

Recent recipients of vocational scholarship grants from the Medford Altrusa club and from the National Altrusa Founders' fund will be honor guests at the annual Christmas party to be held Tuesday, December 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, 1 Eastwood drive.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Dippel, Miss Katherine Ponken and Mrs. Lucine G. Miles.

Mrs. Miles, vocational chairman for the club for the last two years, will present the guests, Mrs. Jean Ann Griggs, Gold Hill, Mrs. Marguerite Rick, Central Point and Mrs. Muriel Hector, Medford.

Mrs. Griggs received a year's scholarship tuition from the National Founders' fund of Altrusa, the presentation having been made by Mrs. Walter Young, Altrusa president, at Rogue Memorial hospital where Mrs. Griggs is in training at the Southern Oregon School of Practical Nursing. Mrs. Rick received a similar grant from the Founders' fund to take business training at the Robinson School of Business and is now employed at Bear Creek orchards in the office. Mrs. Hector was given a grant by the local club to retrain herself in business college, has completed her schooling and is employed at the Oregon Granite company.

Altrusa's local and national project is to assist older women to obtain training to re-enter the professional and business field to support their families. Mrs. Miles announced that funds are still available for this purpose and applications from any woman left alone to maintain her family will be carefully considered by her committee.

Since the project was adopted in 1954 under the presidency of the late Bertha Haskins, two older women have been trained as teachers, three as practical nurses, and five as business women through these Altrusa vocational scholarships which are used in local institutions of learning. The money is earned each year through the Altrusa place mats which are given away to local groups for use at public events and which advertise local merchants and industries. Any group wishing to use these mats can obtain them by calling Mrs. Victor Peterson, project chairman, 773-5379.

Mrs. Peterson announces that the Christmas project is the adoption of a family. Members are to take food for a basket and other gifts for the patients at the Oregon State hospital; these will be given through the Jackson County Mental Health association. The members also exchange gifts and will hear a Christmas music program.

Sister Visits

Ashland - A guest for the past several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodward, 1480 Oregon street, has been Mr. Woodward's sister, Miss Leonore Woodward of Albany. She was on her way to San Jose, Calif., to visit other relatives.

Minister Gives Club Program

Ashland - The Christian significance of Christmas was brought out in music and message at the Wednesday meeting of the Women's Civic club, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

The Rev. James Sinclair, minister of the First Church of Christ, presented the Christmas talk and sang after which Mrs. Milo O'Hara, program chairman, read a Christmas prayer.

A noon luncheon was served from holiday decorated tables by the hostesses, who were the Mesdames W. J. Chipman, Bessie Moore, Laura Sears, Beulah Mackay and Ethel Jones. During the social hour that followed the program members exchanged gifts from around the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Myrtle Reed, club vice president, conducted the regular monthly business meeting and Mrs. Elden Corthell, international relations chairman, spoke briefly and gave a report of the recent successful CARE benefit tea.

O'Brien Couple Home From Trip

O'Brien - Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Johnson returned last week from a trip to California where they visited Mrs. Johnson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Terbo at Ventura, and Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Amy Christenson at La Habra. They also were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burns in San Diego.
