Wisconsin Chided by SC Group
Los Angeles — The University of Southern California student rally committee Wednesday chided their reluctant Rose Bowl opponents, the University of Wisconsin, and volunteered to provide a rooting section for them. The Wisconsin student newspaper recently urged the university to make this year's trip to Pasadena their last because of the school's "hypocrisy" of overlooking its policy against post-season games whenever they received a bowl bid. Trojan rally committee chairman Michael E. Woodson telegraphed the chairman of the Wisconsin rally committee: "If the University of Wisconsin is unwilling to support the No. 2 team in the nation, please inform us, and we will split our rooting section in half and yell for you. By the way, the letters in Wisconsin, when rearranged, spell 'no. 1 SC wins'."

Packers Refuse To Look Beyond Rams' Contest
Los Angeles — The Green Bay Packers today refused to look beyond Sunday's final regular season game with the Los Angeles Rams to a league championship encounter with the New York Giants. Coach Vince Lombardi refused even to talk about Green Bay's plans beyond the Rams game, declaring that the Packers couldn't think past Sunday's clash because only a victory would permit that. A Packer win would clinch the division title for them. And the Packers were drilling with all the enthusiasm preliminary to a key game as they prepared for the meeting with the Rams whom they had little trouble defeating, 41-10, at Milwaukee two weeks ago.

LOOK, DON'T TOUCH
Fort Knox, Ky. — Kentucky is a state that prides itself in its hospitality. But one of its greatest tourist attractions is notable for a lack of hospitality. The U.S. Gold Bullion Depository at Fort Knox is out-of-bound for guests. It can be viewed only from a distance.
