

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Buchholz
(Landis photo)

Beth Potter Is Wed To George Bibby

Gold Hill — Of interest to valley residents is the marriage of Beth L. Potter to George A. Bibby. The Rev. Robert Maxson, pastor of Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River, officiated at the double-ring wedding ceremony performed at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Riis, route 1, box 67, Rogue River.

After a wedding trip to various places in Oregon, the newlyweds are making their home at 714 Pleasant street, Roseville, Calif.

Arrangements of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums in tall white baskets in front of the fireplace provided a setting for the ceremony. The bride wore a powder blue dress suit, with black patent accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage. She carried a white Bible with yellow rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Peter Riis. She wore a mist green suit and her corsage was red rosebuds.

Best man was William R. Bibby, Roseville.

About 25 close friends and relatives attended the wedding and reception.

Poinsettias and ferns decorated the family room at the Riis home where the reception was held. Lighted white tapers were in silver candelabra on the bride's table.

Mrs. William R. Bibby, sister-in-law to the bridegroom, kept the guest book. Mrs. Walter Jordan, Grants Pass, poured coffee. Mrs. John Garrison, Gold Hill, cut and served the cake and presided at the punch bowl.

The bride has resided in the Gold Hill area about 22 years. Prior to her marriage she was a nurse's aide at Crater Osteopathic hospital in Central Point. Mrs. Bibby is a former resident of Alliance, Nebraska where she attended Alliance High school. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Levi G. Burton, of Alliance.

The bridegroom is a clerk for Southern Pacific company at Roseville. He is a former resident of southern Oregon having attended Ashland High school and Southern Oregon college.

While on their honeymoon in Oregon, the couple planned to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ben Newell at Salem. Mr. Newell is county agent there. She is the former Phyllis Miller, Gold Hill.

Camp Announces Christmas Party

Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold a Christmas party Thursday, December 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Santa Claus is expected to attend and treats will be available for the children. Refreshments will be served.

All RNA members, juvenile club members and guests are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ermin Francis Bear
(McCall photo)

Newlyweds Live Here; Rites in Oregon City

Mr. and Mrs. Ermin Francis Bear are living at 742 Oak street following their marriage December 1 in Oregon City and their wedding trip to southern Oregon and northern California.

The bride is the former Miss Paula Gale Johnston of Milwaukie, Ore., a stewardess for West Coast airlines, and the bridegroom is station agent for the lines in Medford.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnston of Milwaukie and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear, formerly of Medford, now of Hornbrook, Calif.

Nuptial Mass

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Spink in St. John's Catholic church in Oregon City at twelve noon. Double ring rites were used for the ceremony attended by about 150 guests.

Mr. Johnston escorted his daughter to the altar.

For her wedding the bride chose a lace gown over satin with fitted bodice to the hip-line and full hooped skirt. The three-quarter length veil was fastened on a white tulle rose cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of small yellow rosebuds with stephanotis on a white prayer book.

The honor attendant, Miss Louise Gescwill, Seattle, and Miss Linda Mathewson, Renton, Wash., the bridesmaid, wore moss green brocade dresses with bell shaped skirts and their short yellow net veils were held by yellow tulle rose headpieces. Their flowers were small yellow rosebuds and white chrysanthemums.

Flower Girl

The flower girl was Judy Anderson of Molalla, Ore., and her frock was of ice green brocade. Her halo headpiece and veil matched her frock and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white flowers.

Michael Shaheen, Portland, a cousin of the bride carried the rings.

Leonard Bear, Hornbrook, was best man for his brother and seating the guests was Arnold Bear, Seattle, another brother.

Cascade bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar and yellow bows marked the pew ends.

Marian Herbst, West Linn, Ore., played the wedding music and prelude preceding the service.

Reception Given

The reception was held in the church hall. The bride's table was centered with nosegay bouquets of small yellow roses and white chrysanthemums. The wedding cake made by a longtime friend of the bride, Mrs. Armon Aho, was served by Mrs. Marcus Dugan, Molalla, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Walter Shaheen, Portland, a cousin.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Stephen Bjoasted, Seattle, and pouring coffee was Mrs. Frank Mathewson, Renton. Miss Claudette Rothery, Portland, took charge of the guest book, and Miss Darlene Dugan, Molalla, a cousin of the bride, registered the gifts.

The bride attended Dickey Prairie and Molalla High schools and for two years attended Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. The Couple Making Home On Dark Hollow Road

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Keith Frazier are living at 3440 1/2 Dark Hollow road, following their recent marriage in Medford and their wedding trip to Crescent City, Calif. The bride is the former Miss Marian Govenor, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Govenor, 401 West Second street, Medford, and the late George Govenor.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frazier, 3340 Dark Hollow road, Medford.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, November 21 in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, Ernest V. O'Dear, Jacksonville, performed the rites.

Mrs. Monty Combs, Prospect, was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Frances Govenor, another sister; Miss Sharon Mather, Shady Cove, a niece; Mrs. Judy Frazier, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Sue Betts, Prospect.

Barry Holt was best man and ushers were Joe Nixon, Mr. Combs and Michael Nixon. Groomsmen were Michael Carey, Klamath Falls, Richard Andrews, Warren Frazier, a brother of the bridegroom, and Kenneth Miller.

Bride Wears Lace
Vernon Govenor, Prospect, a brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace and her bouffant shoulder length veil was held by a headpiece of seed pearls. Her pearls were a gift from the bridegroom and she carried a bouquet of wood roses with stephanotis.

The attendants were dressed in spray green wool sheath frocks with rhinestones trimming and their headbands matched their frocks. They carried pink carnation nosegay bouquets.

Baskets of pink dahlias and white chrysanthemums decorated the hall.

About 225 persons attended the wedding, and about 180 were at the reception held in the American Legion hall in Central Point.

Mrs. Holt took charge of the guest book and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Paul Mather, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Joe Nixon. At the punch bowl were Miss Patricia Blondell and Miss Lois Ann Govenor, a niece of the bride, Miss Andrea Robinson poured the coffee. Miss Mary Lou Govenor, a sister of the bride, Miss Charlotte Mather and Miss Karen Karajala, a niece of the bride, opened the gifts. Music was provided by friends and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lawler were in charge of the reception.

The mother of the bride wore a turquoise blue satin dress with black accessories and the mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a tan cashmere and mink suit with brown accessories. Both had pink carnation corsages.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Prospect High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school. He is employed by the Double Dee Lumber company.

Planning a Christmas Party?

Have fun with Your Guests . . .

Receive Compliments too—with decorations and paper goods from our Large Selection!

Several Colorful Patterns in Paper Plates, Napkins, Cups, Table Cloths, Place Mats, Coasters, Nut Cups, Serving Bowls, etc.

RENT A CENTERPIECE!

- Revolves
- Plays Christmas Music
- Gay—Attractive, Amusing
- 3 Different Colorful Centerpieces to choose from

$1.00 Per Day

Check Over Our Huge Selection of CANDLES, FIGURINES, Etc., and Decorating Materials!

Choose Hallmark Christmas Decorations for Table or Mantle Priced $1.00 & $1.50

West Main Pharmacy

135 West Main Street
Phone 772-2330

Reception In Mt. Angel Honors Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas Buchholz, whose marriage was a recent event in Medford, were honored at a reception December 9 given by the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Buchholz at their home in Mt. Angel, Ore.

The bride is the former Miss Gail Ann Glidden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glidden, 243 South Stage road, Medford.

The couple is living at Route 1, Box 68, Mt. Angel. The bride, a graduate of Providence school of nursing in Portland, is employed as a registered nurse in the Salem Memorial hospital. The bridegroom, a graduate of Mt. Angel college, is a farmer.

The nuptial mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock in the morning, November 24 in the Medford Sacred Heart church, by the Rev. Athanasius Buchholz, a brother of the bridegroom. The double ring rites were used.

Bride Wears Satin

The bride wore a satin gown with scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The bell skirt was designed with a brush train and was decorated on the back at the waist with a Dior rose. A sunburst crown of seed pearls held her pouf veil.

of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds and two white orchids, and a crystal rosary which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Janet Glidden, a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant, and Miss Patricia Alton, Portland was bridesmaid. They wore matching gowns of ice blue brocade with scoop necklines and wrapped bell skirts. Miss Glidden carried a bouquet of yellow roses and Miss Alton's bouquet was of pink roses.

Carl Buchholz, a brother of the bridegroom from Mt. Angel, was best man, and the groomsmen was Lawrence Glidden, brother of the bride.

Miss Sara Robinson was the organist and altar boys were Douglas Van Dyke and Kurt Kruger. Seating the guests were Roy Griesenhausen, Mt. Angel, and Joseph Barrett, Corvallis.

Among the guests was Sever Knutson, Eureka, grandfather of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a cerise brocade suit with satin ribbon hat and the bridegroom's mother wore a black brocade jacket dress with winter white hat. Both wore pink tea rose corsages.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the banquet room of North's Chuck Wagon restaurant.

For traveling the bride chose a blue knit with black embroidery and black accessories. They made their wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev.

Personally I'd like

Daniel Green Comfy Slippers

FREE GIFT WRAPPING

Your Charge Account Invited!

OPEN MONDAY THRU SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P.M.

Rid 'n Shop Member

Main and Bartlett Streets Phone 772-6428

Burelson's

Downtown Medford

Gifts SHE CAN WEAR

Show that you Care

An Ideal Gift... Practical and Pretty

Jonathan Logan

Chanel in double knit. This three-piece costume in uncreasable 80% Orlon Acrylic-20% Wool... defined by contrasting trim. Short sleeved overblouse cleverly echoes the jacket — then reverses at its own jewel neckline. Sizes 7 to 15.

$29.98

Just Received
A Large Selection of PEARLS
by MARVELLA®

Pearls! Pearls! Oceans of Pearls
That Never Saw The Sea!

How really beautiful can "pretend" pearls be? This beautiful (which is very...) when they're Marvella's pearls glowing with the astonishing richness of the real thing, yet perfectly non-prohibitive in price!

SHOP MONDAY THRU SATURDAY
UNTIL 9 P.M.

Your Charge Account Invited!

Main and Bartlett Streets
Ride 'n Shop Member
Phone 772-6428