

Former Residents Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Clymer, Medford residents for 30 years, who for the past three years have lived in Willows, Calif., observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary recently at Willows. About 80 friends and relatives attended the party and all four of the couple's children were there for the occasion.

From Medford were two daughters, Mrs. Clara Wyant and Mrs. Ben Showalter. Their other daughter, Mrs. Harold Cady, lives in Willows and their son, Earl Clymer, lives at Woodland, Calif. The couple also has 11 grandchildren, and all were at the party but three of the grandchildren and great-grandchildren and their families who could not attend because of distance.

Mrs. Howard Chilson, Medford, a niece of the couple, had prepared a scroll, which gave a brief history of the Clymer family dating back to the time of Mr. Clymer's great-grandfather, and this was read.

A vocal duet was given by husbands of two granddaughters, Melvin Fellows and James Kempster. Mr. Kempster also directed a program in the honored couple's honor. Performing in the program were two small Korean girls who have been adopted by the couple's son, Earl Clymer, who sang a vocal solo. The girls sang a song composed by his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Kempster also showed pictures of a recent trip they had made from Washington, D. C., to Medford. Included were pictures of the homestead near Bluffton, Ohio where Mr. Clymer was born. These depicted the old Clymer ranch and cemetery where five generations of the family are buried.

Mr. and Mrs. Clymer were married in 1902 at the bride's home in Columbus, Ohio. Both had attended Mt. Vernon academy, graduating in 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Clymer, who left Medford recently after making their home here for 30 years, are shown during a party at Willows, Calif., which observed their golden wedding anniversary. It was held in the Monday Afternoon clubhouse.

Elections Conducted

Mrs. Leland Middleton was named president of Medford Sojourners club at elections conducted December 13 in the Girls Community club.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Bernice Jenkins, first vice president; Mrs. Marvin Slavens, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Babcock, secretary, and Mrs. William Wertz, treasurer.

The annual Christmas party was held during the meeting. Guests were Mrs. Stella Ewing and Mrs. Fred Baird. Seven inactive members attended and prospective members there for the first time were Mrs. Paul Bethel and Mrs. William Downing. New members were Mrs. Sherman Lee Fenny and Mrs. William R. Wood.

Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Babcock, Mrs. William Wertz, Mrs. Virgil Morton and Mrs. Marvin Slavens.

The gifts for children placed under the Christmas tree by members were given to the Salvation Army for distribution.

The next meeting will be January 10.

It takes 6.25 pounds of skimmed milk to make one pound of cottage cheese, a concentrated source of milk protein.

Security Benefit Club Sets Dinner; Dance Planned

Security Benefit club members will meet for a combined Christmas and birthday dinner Wednesday, December 19 in the Pythian building. Members whose birthdays are in December will be honored. No meeting of the organization will be held during the Christmas week, officers have announced.

Mrs. Mae Oland has charge of the dining room. The group convenes from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., each week in the same building.

In Friday, December 21 the members will conduct a dance from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight also in the Pythian building. A lunch will be served at 10 p.m. A nominal charge will be made for the event for which the Musical Melodeers will furnish the music.

Rebekahs Plan Monday Session

Olive Rebekah lodge will meet Monday, December 17, for its regular business meeting at 8 p.m. A Christmas party will follow. There will be entertainment and refreshments. Any out of town Rebekahs are invited to attend.

Members have been asked to take the price of an exchange gift to be put in a fund for the World Eye Bank.

Three Units Will Study Yeast Bread

Three Jackson county home extension units have announced meetings for the week, and all will have yeast breads as their project.

Central Point
Women of the Central Point unit are to take toys or a monetary gift for needy children, and a gift for an exchange during the day. The session will open at 10:30 a.m., on Wednesday, December 19 in the home of Mrs. Charles Ghelardi on Old Stage road.

Elk-Trail
The Elk-Trail unit will have Mrs. Harold Corliss and Mrs. Kenneth Lacy as project leaders for their meeting Wednesday, December 19 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Lacy.

Donations were taken at the last meeting to be used for toys for the Canada Mission in California.

Sams Valley
Canned food donations will be made at the Sams Valley unit meeting Tuesday, December 18 at 10:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Earl Bigham on Weber road.

Mrs. Bigham and Mrs. V. A. Hunt will give the lesson. The project will be featured in the luncheon and those who attend are asked to take a salad or meat dish and table service. Roll call will be answered by giving ideas for next year's project lessons.

Herb Society Will Install

Officers of the Rogue Valley Herb society will be installed at the next meeting of the group Tuesday, December 18 at 1:30 p.m., in the Girls Community club. Past presidents of the society also will be honored.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol will speak and members will answer roll call by naming an herb used in festival arrangements for Christmas giving. An exchange of herb gifts also will be conducted.

Decorations for the room will be furnished by Mrs. C. L. Hockersmith and Mrs. R. D. Abel. Mrs. George Dean and Mrs. H. H. Ward will be hostesses.

At a recent meeting of the society Mrs. Charles Ray spoke on herbs for hot beverages. Mrs. Abel exhibited various forms of artemesia. Guests were Mrs. John Watkins, Ashland, and Mrs. Lucy Washburn, Ocean City, Wash. Mrs. LeRoy Cline and Mrs. H. A. Ward were hostesses.

Garden Club To Hold Christmas Party

The Jacksonville Garden club will hold its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Katherine Farley, 3563 Jacksonville highway, on Thursday, December 20, at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Dee Hendrickson will be cohostess.

There will be a gift exchange. Members are reminded to take a holiday arrangement for display.

Warren Assembly To Meet Monday

Jacksonville — A meeting for Warren assembly of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls will be held at 7:15 p.m., Monday, December 17 in the Jacksonville Masonic temple.

Miss Melba Graham, worthy advisor, will preside, and all girls are reminded to take gifts for a package which will be shipped to Guam.

Men of Unity To Hold Dinner

Men of Unity will meet Monday, December 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Unity Church of Medford. Holly and Haven streets, for a potluck dinner.

William Turner, president, will conduct a business session. Ray Bosworth will speak to the men on "What Unity Teaches."

This is a non-denominational organization, and any man interested is invited to attend.

For an unusual as well as nutritious dessert, assemble a cheese and fruit tray using apple wedges and Cheddar slices and pear slices with blue cheese.
