

Flue Fires - Medford firemen were dispatched yesterday morning when flue fires were reported at the residences of Gus Augire, 2780 Lone Pine rd., and Berle Thornton, 903 Lone Pine rd.

Man Fined - Robert Calvin Windham, 26, of 1221 Thomas st., Medford, was fined $30 in Medford municipal court Friday following his arrest about 2:20 a.m. at a local tavern on a disorderly conduct charge.

Local and Personal

Business Names - The business name Mobile Home Lodge, 2495 West Main st., has been assumed by Maynard M. and Evelyn R. Legacy, according to records in the Jackson county records in the Jackson county recorder's office. Other names recently assumed were Anderson Signs by Robert W. and Thelma E. Anderson, 33 East Main st., Ashland, and Central Point Roofing, by Larry F. Hackworth, 646 Manzanita ave., Central Point.

Medical Patient - A medical patient at Rogue Valley hospital is Fred L. Ross, owner of the Dog Lake resort, Lakeview.

Visits Nephew - Roy Elliott, 294 West Ninth st., former Medford fire chief, plans to leave Sunday for Brigham City, Utah, where he will visit his nephew, Lee Johnson, during the Christmas holidays.

Sales Honors - John S. Humphrey, 340 Lindero st., and Terry D. Green, 36 South Bartlett st., both of Medford, have qualified for annual sales honors with Mutual of New York. Humphrey is assistant manager in Medford for the Portland agency, and Green also is associated with the Portland agency.

Gasoline Smelled - Firemen called to investigate the report of a gasoline odor about 10:40 a.m. yesterday at Dumas Domestic Laundry, 32 North Riverside ave., Medford, said that they stood by until a meter reading dropped to zero. They said the source of the odor apparently was gasoline dumped into the sewer at some undetermined point.

Firemen Summoned - Smoke from cooking, reported by a neighbor, was the apparent reason for a house fire alarm yesterday afternoon, firemen stated. They were called to 1314 South Peach st. and found no fire.

Permits Issued - The Medford building department issued a permit Thursday to Leeds Shoe store, Medford Shopping Center, to erect a sign at an estimated cost of $7,500. A permit also was issued to Sierra Construction company to erect a residence at 2508 Jackson dr. at an approximate cost of $9,500 and to remodel a commercial building at 1101 North Riverside ave. at an estimated cost of $1,500.

ARREST WRONG MAN
Sacramento, Calif.—(AP)—John K. Harrison Jr., who was arrested in Los Angeles and spent seven days in jail on a charge of failure to support two children, had rather convincing evidence of his innocence Thursday when he appeared in Municipal Court here. "It looks like we have the wrong man," prosecutors said of Harrison, 29. The children he was alleged to have fathered and failed to support are aged 15 and 13.
