IT'S THE SEASON — One gift counter which will not be empty this Christmas is the Detriot, Mich., dog pound. The pound's population is always, holiday or not, about 250 dogs. The puppies above, of a beagle mixture, bear a "wanted" sign which refers to a desire for a home for Christmas and the rest of the year, too. (UPI)

Man Seeking To Escape Brother's Wrath Turns Killer

Detroit—(UPI)—A girl was bludgeoned to death, her father severely beaten with a claw hammer and her mother kidnaped and assaulted by a man attempting to escape the wrath of a brother whose daughter he had raped, police said Thursday.

James G. Gostlin, 20, walked into the Dearborn, Mich., police station about 3 a.m., tossed a bloody hammer on the desk and told the officer in charge "I've killed two people."

Unconscious on Floor

State police rushed to the home of Wesley Husted in nearby Novi, Mich. They found Husted unconscious on the living room floor, his head battered and bruises on his body. In the kitchen, they found the body of Shirley Husted, 13, his daughter. She had been killed by a hammer blow between the eyes.

Three other Husted children, aged 4, 7, and 8, were asleep in a bedroom.

The mother, 33, nude and wrapped in a comforter, was taken to a hospital in Dearborn. Gostlin had let her out of the car minutes before he gave himself up.

Police said Gostlin told him the story of his night of terror.

Girl Told Father

About 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, they said, Gostlin told them he went to a home in Walled Lake where his niece, Gloria Gostlin, 11, was babysitting. He raped the girl and she ran to her home across the street and told her father, Gostlin's brother.

Gostlin, fearing the wrath of his brother, broke into the Husted home to arm himself. Police said they believe Gostlin knew Husted, a school bus driver, kept a gun in the house.

When he entered the Husted home, Husted was in a chair and Husted's wife was asleep on a couch. The television set was on. Gostlin attacked Husted with the hammer.

Fully Clothed

Then, police said, he apparently killed the girl in the kitchen. She was fully clothed and apparently also had been watching television.

Gostlin ripped the clothes from Mrs. Husted and forced her to accompany him, first allowing her to protect herself from the cold with a comforter.

They drove around for more than two hours, during which time, police said, Gostlin assaulted her.

Gostlin later let Mrs. Husted out of the car in Dearborn and she obtained aid. Then he surrendered.

Mrs. Husted and her husband were in serious condition in hospitals.
