

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan LeRoy Greenwood
(Brainard photo)

Cushings Make Home In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Stearns Cushings, whose marriage was an early December event in Salem, now live at 108 South Grape street, Medford. The bride, the former Miss Eloise Kay Brown, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dorcas of Salem.

The bridegroom is on the staff here of the Oregon Department of Employment as a Labor Market analyst for the southern Oregon area, and the bride was employed for the past eight years in the Salem office of the Department of Employment.

The wedding ceremony was read December 8 in the First Methodist church, Salem, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. S. Raynor Smith.

The bride chose a street-length gown of crystallette with full skirt and sweetheart neckline. Her elbow-length illusion veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid.

Cousin Is Attendant
Mrs. Terry J. Staats, Salem, was her cousin's only attendant. She wore a turquoise lace sheath dress with taffeta overskirt and carried red carnations with holly.

Herbert A. Harris, Salem, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dorcas chose a beige brocade dress with matching jacket and beige accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony. Mrs. Glenn A. Skeels, Hillsboro, sister of the bride, cut the cake, and Mrs. Orville Thompson, Portland, another sister, and Mrs. Gladys Scheverman, Monmouth, aunt of the bride, poured.

For traveling the bride wore a green wool sheath dress with brown mink collar and coat and brown accessories.

Other out-of-town guests included J. L. Larimer, John Larimer, Sacramento, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Loren Greenwood, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and their family from Prince George, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Greenwood, another brother and sister-in-law, Crescent, Ore.; and Mr. Stewart and family.

The bride attended Medford High school and the bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school.

For traveling the bride wore a brown and green plaid suit with matching accessories.

Sandra Buckendahl

Cave Junction Couple Engaged

Cave Junction-The engagement of Miss Sandra Jean Buckendahl to Noel Scott Turner has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Buckendahl. The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mrs. R. Scott Turner, and the late Mr. Turner.

Both Miss Buckendahl and her fiancé are residents of Cave Junction. A 1962 Illinois Valley High school graduate, the bride-elect is now attending Medford School of Beauty and living at the Girls Community club in Medford.

The bridegroom-elect is a 1960 graduate of the Illinois Valley High school and plans to return to Southern Oregon college in January to complete his junior year. He is a member of Delta Phi Delta fraternity.

No wedding date has been set.

Tetons-Flower Rites Announced

Montague-Mrs. Jeannette Flower and Jack Tetons, both Montague, were married in Reno, Nev., November 24, with Judge Guerin officiating. For the ceremony, Mrs. Flower wore a green knit suit with black accessories.

The new Mrs. Tetons is a surgical nurse at the Siskiyou County hospital in Yreka, and her husband is employed by C. L. Churchill and Son, lumber supply in Montague. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Churchill.

Relatives Spend Holidays Here

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald and family of Paradise, Calif., arrived in Medford Saturday to spend the holidays with their parents, Mrs. Fred Rankin, 18 Richmond avenue, and Mrs. Alfred McDonald, 1813 East Jackson street.

Also arriving is Mrs. Clinton Breesee, Coos Bay, who will be a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alfred McDonald and Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Allen, also of the East Jackson street address.

All of the families will have Christmas dinner at the Alfred McDonalds.

Newlyweds Now Making Home in Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Mr. and Mrs. Dale Campbell, whose marriage was a recent event, are living for the present in Cave Junction. The bride is the former Miss Ardyth Current, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Current, Cave Junction, and both the bride and bridegroom attended Illinois Valley High school, where the bridegroom was graduated in 1960.

The wedding rites were read in an afternoon ceremony November 17 in the First Baptist church in Leadore, Ida.

Before arriving recently in Cave Junction the couple lived in Billings, Mont., where the bridegroom was employed in drilling and mining.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Tibbs of Cave Junction.

Betrothal News Is Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Elzea, 302 Vancouver avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eileen Irene Elzea, to Darryl Dennis Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O. Sutton, 3761 South Pacific highway, Phoenix.

Miss Elzea is a senior at Medford High school, and is employed part time by J. C. Penney company. Mr. Sutton is a 1959 graduate of Medford High school. He served three years in the United States Army and is now employed by KYJC.

The wedding is planned for next fall.

Miss Eileen Elzea

Holiday Luncheon Held in Montague

Montague—Mrs. Samuel Cairns entertained the Willow Creek club at her ranch home north of Montague with a holiday luncheon December 13.

A Christmas tree and holiday arrangements decorated the rooms. The luncheon table was centered with a white bowl of poinsettias and greenery and angel favors were at each place. Thirteen women attended.

Exchange of gifts was held during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Diehl Jr.

Diehl-Graff Ceremony Takes Place in Nevada

Miss Susan Graff became the bride of Russell E. Diehl Jr., December 12 in 7:30 o'clock in double ring rites read in the Park chapel, Reno, Nev.

The bride is a daughter of Walter Graff, 2156 North Hillside drive, Medford, and Mrs. Sam Gilbert, El Paso, Tex. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Diehl, Roseburg. All were present for the ceremony. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Herbert I. Markham, Chicago, Ill., flew west for the wedding and others present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Graff III, the bride's brother and sister-in-law from Stockton, Calif., who attended the couple.

For her wedding the bride chose a pale green silk dress with jacket and her short veil was held by a silk satin hat. She carried a bouquet centered with a white orchid.

White carnations and chrysanthemums decorated the chapel's altar.

The bride's father was host for a wedding supper at Eugene's restaurant in Reno.

The bride attended Medford High school and recently completed her courses at the University of Oregon and will be graduated in June. After the holidays, she will begin practice teaching in Roseburg, and the couple will live in that city.

Visits

At home for the holiday season, is Kenneth Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, 2971 Delta Waters road. Kenneth is a student at Oregon Technical institute, Klamath Falls.

Knife-Fork Has Election

Ashland—Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond pastor of the First Methodist church in Ashland, has been elected president of the board of directors of Siskiyou Knife and Fork club, Ashland.

Marcus Norton, Phoenix, was elected as vice president and Mrs. Widener Hendrixson was reelected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Amos Huser, Talent, was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. E. E. Brown non the board of directors.

The next meeting of the club will be at the Mark Anthony hotel on January 10 and will feature talent from the Medford High School dramatic club.

The board stressed the need for new members and said that interested persons may telephone Mrs. Hendrixson at 482-2703.

Return

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pickell, 357 Liberty street, have returned from a several weeks' visit in southern California at the homes of their son, Sidney and his family, and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers.

Relatives Here

Jack Joyce, a junior student at University of Oregon, arrived last week for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Joyce, 1108 Queen Anne avenue. Also to be with the couple for the season is Mrs. Ada Joyce, Eugene, mother of Mr. Joyce.

POST OFFICE
OPEN TODAY
10 A.M. - 6 P.M.
Village Variety
Stewart near King

Church Rites Wed Couple

Miss Kathleen Mae Larimer and Nolan LeRoy Greenwood, both Southern Oregon college students, were married in double ring rites December 15 in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. Bolster performed the 8 o'clock evening ceremony.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco, and will make their home at 1307 Lee street in Ashland.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Larimer, 925 Mt. Pitt avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greenwood, Crowson road, Ashland.

Miss Janice Larimer was honor attendant for her sister, and bridesmaids were Miss Pamela Watson, Medford, Miss Karen Hendricks of Hawaii, who has been a roommate of the bride at college, and Miss Jeanie McCay, Ashland.

The flower girl was Laura Greenwood, Crescent, Ore., a niece of the bridegroom and Michael Gardner carried the rings.

Kenneth Jorde, White City, acted as best man. Ushers were Donald Ross, Ashland; Larry Clements, Duane Anderson, both Eagle Point, and all Delta Phi Delta fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, and Steven Charters, also of Eagle Point.

Father Escorts Bride
Mr. Larimer gave his daughter in marriage. Her floor length gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta with basque bodice, long sleeves and scalloped scoop neckline embroidered with pearls. The bouffant skirt was caught up in back, front and on the sides with lace bows over full tulle ruffles. Her bouffant elbow-length veil was of hand-rolled silk illusion held by a tiered miniature crown of pearls and iridescent crystals. She carried a nosegay of white carnations around a white orchid.

The attendants wore red brocade dresses with basque bodices and bell skirts. Each wore a hat of a single red rose with pearl-trimmed hairband bow and float veil, varried white muffs with sprigs of holly. The flower girl wore a white dress with red accessories and carried a basket of red and white carnations.

Poinsettias and chrysanthemums decorated the altar and pew ends were marked with white bows centered with red Christmas balls.

Friend Sings
Miss Pamela Jones, a friend of the bride's family, was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Larimer wore a white wool frock with brown accessories and Mrs. Greenwood was dressed in beige lace. Both wore white orchid corsages.

The reception was held in the church parish house. Cutting the cake were Mrs. J. L.

Larimer, Pinole, Calif., and Mrs. W. G. Larimer, both aunts of the bride. Punch was poured by Mrs. Charles Haley, a sister of the bridegroom, and another sister, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Klamath Falls, served the coffee.

About 200 guests attended the wedding and reception.

Other out-of-town guests included J. L. Larimer, John Larimer, Sacramento, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Loren Greenwood, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and their family from Prince George, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Greenwood, another brother and sister-in-law, Crescent, Ore.; and Mr. Stewart and family.

The bride attended Medford High school and the bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school.

For traveling the bride wore a brown and green plaid suit with matching accessories.

Mary Gayle Hodgins

June Wedding Planned by Pair

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hodgins, 192 North Mountain avenue, Ashland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Gayle Hodgins, to Dale Morris Walter, son of Mrs. Vera Walter of Talent and the late Harry Walter.

Miss Hodgins is a graduate of Oregon State university, class of 1961, and is now teaching in South Salem High school.

Mr. Walter was graduated from Southern Oregon college in 1959 and is now employed at Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan of Medford.

A June wedding is planned.

Concert Band To Appear Here

The Lewis and Clark college concert band, under the direction of Allen B. Skel, is planning a first annual tour of Oregon towns January 25 through 30. The band will visit Medford Sunday, January 27. Other towns hosting the musical visitation are Springfield, Albany, Astoria, Tillamook and Glide.

The 41-member band is composed mainly of freshmen and sophomores who are selected by audition each fall. Two Medford freshmen, Miss Mary Miller, oboist, and Lynn Peterson, clarinetist, will appear with the musicians.

The program consists largely of original band music ranging in style from 18th-century religious works to 20th-century secular works.

Initiation Set

Initiation ceremonies will be conducted during the meeting of Roames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Thursday, December 27 at 8 p.m. in the Medford Masonic temple.

Mrs. Gene Dyke, worthy matron, and Ross Gilkison, worthy patron, will preside. Chairmen for the evening will be Mrs. A. W. Denney and Mrs. Carmine Gigliotti. All OES members are invited.

The World's Most Wanted Barometer!
Be Your Own Weatherman . . .

Genuine Imported
German
BAROMETER
$4.50

Made by skilled West
German optical craftsmen
for superior precision.
Of polished mahogany, solid wood case, 5 1/2" Diameter
Ring, knob and bezel polished brass. Attractive painted, baked enamel dial.

An ideal Christmas Gift.
Hurry! Limited Quantity!

Airguide & Taylor Instruments and Binoculars
• We Give S&H Green Stamps • Credit Gladly

Our 57th Year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.

MELFORD SHOPPING CENTER 772-9990
casual shopping with convenient parking
MAIL ORDERS FILLED PROMPTLY
Add 50c for Postage and Insurance for Mail Orders to all our friends . . . may we extend best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Happy New Year.

P.S. Remember, A Burelson Gift Certificate
Makes A Wonderful Last Minute Gift!

Main and Bartlett Streets

Phone 772-6428

for a lifetime of proud possession

$79.50
14K Gold-filled

Quality Diamonds
Honestly Priced

THE PERFECTION accuracy of Omega has won for it an international reputation as
"the watchmaker's watch."
Holder of high observatory awards . . . official timepiece
of Olympic Games
(Rome 1960) . . . a gift of incomparable distinction.

Phone 772-6206

209 E. Main