State police Saturday cautioned motorists to drive carefully on the icy highway over the Siskiyou.

Ice was blamed for one accident early Saturday morning when a car driven by Jack Duane Jefferson, 28, Portland, who was south-bound, went off the highway and into a bank.

The car apparently went on some ice near Neil creek, state police said. No injuries were reported.

A California car crashed into a cement-finishing machine Friday on the unfinished portion of the new freeway a half mile south of Valley View rd., state police said. No injuries were reported.

A flagman on the construction job said he tried to flag down the car, driven by Homer Elwood Flora, Van Nuys, Calif.

Minor damage resulted to two vehicles Friday night when cars driven by Walter Charles Schmidt, 2477 Biddle rd., and one driven by Stanley Grant Ricks, 465 Gibbon rd., Central Point, collided.

Washington - About 63 million acres that produced food for 27 million farm horses have been taken over for human needs.

MOO-O-OS and MUSINGS

Here's our own brief little report on the way women look in the new clothing styles.

The fact that they make the torso look more so is sure so.
