

Portland Boy, 6, Lands in Custody

Portland, Ore.—A 6-year-old boy is spending Christmas in custody of the women's protective division.

The youngster has been accused of:

Setting fire to his home three times Sunday.

Cutting the telephone wires so his mother couldn't call the fire department.

Threatening his mother with a butcher knife.

Other threats if she tried to correct him.

The matter came to attention of police Sunday night after fire investigators made a preliminary investigation of the three fires.

Whereabouts of the boy's father was unknown.
