Drug Firm Settles Suit by Couple

New York —(UPI)— The American Home Products corporation reached a $125,000 out-of-court settlement Thursday with a Brooklyn couple who charged a baby formula manufactured by the company resulted in convulsions that caused mental retardation of their daughter.

State Supreme Court Justice Benjamin Brenner approved the settlement terminating a $500,000 damage suit brought by Frank and Mildred Cervo, parents of Jo-Ann Cervo, 10. A Brooklyn Supreme Court jury was deliberating the case when the plaintiffs accepted the corporation's settlement offer.

The suit charged that Jo-Ann suffered two convulsions followed by brain damage and mental retardation as the result of feeding solely on "liquid S-M-A formula" from shortly after her birth in 1952 until May 2, 1953.
