

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Christianson were among the guests at a holiday party given last Sunday by Robertson Collins for his friends and neighbors in Jacksonville. Mrs. Christianson, the former Mrs. Fay Peters, is particularly interested in the historic brick building which Mr. Collins recently acquired as his home since her late husband, Dr. Stanley C. Peters, a dentist, at one time, used it as his office. Dr. Peters used the building, one of the most interesting of the old structures in Jacksonville, for about 10 years beginning in 1935; his wife was associated with him as a laboratory technician and receptionist.

Many Visitors Reported In Hornbrook for Holidays

Hornbrook — Traditionally, the largest family gathering in this area during the holiday season is that of the Bray clan, and this year was no exception as 53 members of the family assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson on Christmas day.

Coming the farthest distance were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wells of Los Angeles, parents of Mrs. Gordon Bray of Yreka. From the same area of southern California came Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schulte and children Pamela, Billy and Johnny, who are here from Riverside, Calif., and visiting Mrs. Schulte's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummins.

Other members of the family at the Clawson home were from Yreka, Montague and Hornbrook, and from Sacramento, a nephew, Michael Tyrer.

Arriving early in the week and remaining until Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hutchins and sons, David and Joe, from Los Angeles. They are guests of Mr. Hutchins' sister-in-law, Mrs. Alberta Hutchins and children, Bob and Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jacobs spent Christmas day in Chico, Calif., with Mr. Jacobs' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pinkham, who have just returned from a several months' trip to the South Pacific and the Orient.

Another family reunion was held Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Minnie Bloomington and son, Charles. Guests were Miss Elsie Bloomington of the Bogus area, and Mrs. Bloomington's three daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cavin and daughter Janet of Hilt; Mrs. Marjorie Snyder and children Karen and Victor, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wyatt and Steven, Paul and Teresa, all of Medford.

Spending Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards, on Oregon road were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tucker and Linda from Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tucker and John, Chuck and Kathy from Gallez, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Don Flackus and Harold and Lola, Hornbrook and Robert Tucker of Yreka.

Also at the Edwards home for Christmas and remaining for a longer visit is Mrs. Edwards' brother, Cyril Haak of Richmond, Calif.

Miss Pat MacKinnon and Miss Ann Rutledge, students at Chico State college at Chico, Calif., arrived over the week end to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutledge.

Christmas Eve, the two girls led a group of high school and upper grammar school friends on a round of caroling, singing at the homes of neighbors and friends.

Also at the Rutledge home for the four-day holiday was another daughter, Mary Lee, from Sacramento.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Parshall were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart of Sacramento and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simon of Montague, Calif. The three women are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear had as guests on Christmas Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Halter and son, Bradley, of Montague.

The Bear's son, Leonard, spent the holiday in San Jose, Calif., with friends, and also visited in Livermore, Calif., with other friends, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Flick and infant son, Douglas.

German Bride Married To Sgt. James Walters

Montague — The Lutheran church in Yreka was the setting for the double ring marriage ceremony when Miss Barbara Fuhrer became the bride of Staff Sgt. James Ogden Walters Saturday afternoon, December 8.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Fuhrer of Bad Hersfeld, Hesse Province, Germany, and the bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Meyer Walters, Montague.

Sergeant Walters was stationed in Germany with the United States Army for the past three and a half years and met his bride while there. After the holidays he expects to be stationed at Fort Ord where they will make their home.

The bride wore a Parisian gown of white satin designed princess style with bouffant street length skirt. The dress, embroidered with sequins and beads, was worn with a bolero jacket of the same material with three quarter length sleeves and a stand up collar.

The bride's waist-length veil was held by a crown of green leaves and sequins and her corsage was two purple orchids. She wore white lace gloves and carried a white lace bag, a custom of her country. Her white satin slippers were trimmed with rhinestone buckles and she had a lucky penny in one slipper.

Miss Fuhrer was escorted down the aisle by her future father-in-law.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white stock. Mrs. Robert Moore was the organist.

Mrs. Robert Walters, matron of honor, wore the princess style gown which she had worn for her wedding six years ago. It was of blue crystalline with white lace overlay, three-quarter length sleeves and stand-up collar. Her accessories were blue and her flowers were pink carnations.

Robert Walters served as his brother's best man and the guests were seated by another brother, Gary Walters, Dunsuir, Calif.

A reception was given at the home of the bridegroom's parents on their ranch north
