Installation Set
By Kiwanis Club
On Saturday Night

A three-way installation will be conducted Saturday night at a Medford Kiwanis club dinner at Rogue Valley Country club.

E. Ronald Rice will be installed as governor of the Pacific Northwest district of Kiwanis International and Dr. Merle Foland as lieutenant-governor of Division 15A. Officers of the Medford club for 1963 will be seated.

The 7:15 p.m. dinner will be followed by a dance.

Freeman Sersanos, Portland, past district governor will install Rice who in turn will install Foland. Dr. Foland will conduct the installation of club officers. Both Rice and Foland are members of the Medford club.

New Officers

Medford Kiwanis officers for this year are Curtis Nesheim, president; Russell Renner, vice president; Glen Allen, secretary-treasurer, and Kenneth Wright, Clarence Young, Dr. Douglas Phillips, Edward Barnett, Robert Collins, Fred Gatter, Adam Richter and Lawrence Horton, board of directors. Billy Blackstone, retiring president, also will serve on the board of directors.

A club charter will be presented by Charles Walker, Portland, a past district governor. It will replace one which has been lost. William Warner, first president of the Medford club will accept the new charter. Walker was district governor at the time the Medford club was organized and handed the original charter to Warner.

Reservations have been made for 60 out-of-town guests.

Nesheim conducted his first meeting as president at the Wednesday noon Kiwanis luncheon at the country club. He outlined plans for the year and announced names of committee heads.

John F. Rowbottom and Norman B. Hankleman were introduced as new members. Rowbottom is associated with Lauretude Finance and Hankleman has a bookkeeping service.
