Medford Grapplers To Meet Cavemen

Black Tornado wrestlers of Medford High school begin the new year against a tough competitor on Friday evening.

They oppose the Grants Pass Cavemen. Scene of rivalry will be the Medford high boys' gym. Preliminary action is set for 6:30 p.m.

This match brings together the defending state champion and the runnerup in Oregon's 1962 A-1 competition. Grants Pass won the mantle with Medford taking second.

The two squads go into the match unbeaten. Medford has won over four rivals. GP success has included two tourney titles. It won from Klamath Falls before the holidays.

The Cavemen loom strong and tough again and Coach Ralph Monroe figures that the Tornado has its work cut out for it.

Monroe reported that Mike Miller has beaten out Mike Horton in the 123-pound class and John Swartsfager has taken over from Steve Hall at 130.

Frank Williams, although he has a boil on his leg, may get the 148-pound call since Greg Gandee is laid up with a bad back. Tom Owens will wrestle at either 136 or 141 and George McNair will vie at the weight left open by Owens. Denny Schmall, who has grappled at 136, has a bad ankle. At 168 Tom Metz was a question mark. He missed school on Wednesday.

Four Medfordites have unbeaten records in pre-holiday action. They are Rick Orr, Rod Smith, Horton, Mike Mayfield and Jeff Hardrath. Hardrath has been held to one draw.

UNBEATEN GRAPPLER — Mike Mayfield, above, wrestles at 191 pounds for Medford high which meets Grants Pass here on Friday evening. He is unbeaten in four matches this season.

ACE SCORED

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Young Bob McCallister became the first professional golfer to score a hole-in-one this year when he fired an ace on the 17th hole of Rancho golf course Wednesday during a warmup round for the Los Angeles Open.

PILOTS FACE GONZAGA

Portland—(UPI)—The Gonzaga Bulldogs, led by 7-1 center George Trontzos, play the University of Portland tonight in the first basketball game of 1963 in Memorial Coliseum. Gonzaga has won five games and lost six so far this season, while Portland has a 4-7 record.

Long Road Back For Ed Machen

San Francisco — (UPI) — It's a long road back for Eddie Machen, but the heavyweight contender has taken the first step.

Machen's family said Wednesday that he has been transferred from Napa State hospital to a San Francisco hospital where he will undergo private treatment.

Dr. Theo K. Miller, Superintendent of the Napa institution, said Machen "has made great improvement" since he was taken into custoday Dec. 12.

The fighter was brought to Napa after California highway patrolmen found him in his parked car beside a busy highway. He was writing a suicide note and had a loaded pistol, which he had tested by firing three shots into a mud bank.

Rogue League Cage Chase Will Begin

Rogue league basketball race opens on Friday with Illinois Valley, Eagle Point and Henley listed among the favorites but with Lakeview, Phoenix and St. Mary's figured as clubs who could surprise the top choices.

Eagle Point is defending champ.

Friday games are Lakeview at Eagle Point, Phoenix against Illinois Valley at Cave Junction, Henley at Rogue River and Sacred Heart against St. Mary's at Medford.

Saturday's slate will have Henley at Eagle Point, Illinois Valley against Sacred Heart at Klamath Falls, St. Mary's at Phoenix and Lakeview at Rogue River.

Sacred Heart will make its basketball debut in the A-2 loop.

Illinois Valley, third in the loop last year, gained stature as a top contender this time by downing Eagle Point in the finale of the Rogue River Classic last week. The Cougars of IV are reported to be a group of good ball-handlers who are fast and shoot well. They are 6-0 in pre-league action.

Henley, runnerup in the 1962 chase, has concentrated its pre-conference action in Klamath county, and its record offers no comparison with clubs of the Rogue Valley. However, the Hornets, who have size, including 6-8 Kent Gooding, are 5-0 and have been rated second to IV's seventh in the Portland Oregonian A-2 poll. Eagle Point, 6-2, is rated ninth.

Lakeview, in warming up for the race, has played eastern Oregon, northern California and Idaho schools, so will enter the league slate as an unknown quantity. The Honkers were fifth in the 1962 standings, behind Phoenix High's fourth spot.

At Phoenix, Coach Eldon Durham has moved Dale Sauer, forward and guard, and Steve Denham, center, up from the junior varsity. They replace Joe Workman and Tim Allen, who are no longer on the varsity crew.

Durham reported that the Pirates have done much work on offense this week. A lot of time has been spent shooting. He said that last night's workout was the best one of the season for his club. Alert play was noted.

Hard work has been the order of business for Coach Dick Paup's St. Mary's Crusaders. The SM club was right back at practice last Sunday after falling to Glide in a cold performance. There was no rest for the holiday.

There's been a lot of work on offense with plenty of running and shooting. "I'm trying to get them so they start hitting again," remarked the mentor.

Jeff Randolph, who turned an ankle at Glide, will suit down but likely will see no action for the Crusaders on Friday. Mike Stinson has been bothered by a stiff neck but probably will be ready to play. Pete Naumes was absent from the squad during the holidays and won't start, but is expected to see duty. He was on a trip with his family and returned to the team today.

Sambo's Wins SOIBL Starter

Sambo's restaurant of Medford downed Glendale 96 to 93 at Glendale last night in the first game of the Southern Oregon Basketball league season.

The Medford club ran up a wide early margin. It headed 31 to 16 at the quarter and 55 to 45 at the half.

Glendale had the top scorers and Sambo's balanced point making. Brock Lewis had 29 counters for the home club, Jim Allen 25 and Jack Berline 22. For Sambo's Bob Serak and Dick Griffin each put in 16, Dick Puhl 15 and Pete Amorde 14.

LINEUPS:
Sambo's 96—Wooton 10, Amorde 14, Griffin 16, Weddle 11, Puhl 15, Battistone, Berg 6, McCay 8, Serak 16.
Glendale 93—Allen 25, Lewis 29, Blevins 12, Berline 22, Snelling 4, Buchanan, Crews 1.

Len Casanova Not Interested

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Stanford may want Len Casanova as its next football coach or then again it may not. In either case Casanova—the successful University of Oregon headman — isn't interested.

"I haven't been contacted by Stanford about the job," said the white-haired Casanova. "But even if I were, I wouldn't be interested.

"I have tenure and a professorship at Oregon and I intend to stay here."

Casanova, in Los Angeles for the Rose Bowl game, was one of a myriad of names mentioned for the Stanford job — since the firing of Jack Curtice in November.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Los Angeles —(UPI)— Athletic directors of UCLA, Stanford, Southern California, California, Washington and Washington State are holding their annual two-day meeting to discuss what was described as "routine business." The schools' faculty advisors will join the athletic directors Friday, for another two-day session.

66 Poised For Tussle

Los Angeles —(UPI)— Sixty-six champions were poised here today for the first stop on the 1963 professional golf trails — the $55,000 Los Angeles Open tournament that gets under way on the Rancho course Friday.

Every major titleholder in the nation is present, ready to cut up the pot of gold on the new tax-year.

Headlining the cast are the top money-winners of 1962: Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler, Jack Nicklaus and Bill Casper.

Young Phil Rodgers is the defending champion.

Bowl Tilt Has Repercussions

Los Angeles —(UPI)— The repercussions still were being heard from what was called the most exciting Rose Bowl game in history and also turned out to be the longest.

Los Angeles County supervisors, on a suggestion from supervisor Kenneth Hahn, moved Wednesday to ask Rose Bowl officials to begin future games at an earlier time.

By the time the 1963 classic ended around 5:20 p.m. Tuesday it was dark. Both the spectators and players had trouble following the ball under the weak arc lights in the stadium, and once the game was over many fans — especially those from other cities — became lost outside the stadium.

Hahn also said poor visibility made it impossible for helicopters to direct traffic.

Supervisor chairman Warren Dorn said he would write Tournament of Roses officials suggesting they start the game at 1:45 p.m. instead of the customary 2 p.m.

Comptroller Requests Condition of Banks

Washington —(UPI)— Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon issued a call today for reports on the condition of all national banks as of the close of business Dec. 28.

At the same time, the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation issued a call for reports as of the same date on condition of insured state banks not members of the Federal Reserve system.

Russia, Red China Proclaim Support Of Castro Regime

By United Press International

Russia and Red China tried today to outdo each other in proclaiming support for Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime in Cuba which is celebrating its fourth anniversary in power this week.

Mikhail Suslov of the Soviet Presidium (politburo) told a Moscow meeting that the Communist world must "watch vigilantly" to see that the U.S. pledge not to attack Cuba is "strictly adhered to."

Suslov said Russia would act to counter any "provocation" around Cuba. He said the Kremlin "will never leave revolutionary Cuba alone in distress."

Requirements Not Met

The U.S. pledge against invasion of Cuba was conditioned on several requirements which have not been fulfilled, notably Castro's refusal to allow international inspectors to confirm that Soviet missiles have been removed from Cuban soil.

Red China and its North Korean and Albanian supporters used praise for Cuba as an oblique means of denouncing Russia for backing down before the United States in the Cuba crisis.

Chen Yi, foreign minister of the Peking regime, declared at a banquet that the Reds "resolutely support the just struggle of the (Castroite) Cuban people and will stand by them."

"We wish to congratulate you particularly on your great victory scored in the latest struggle against the military provocations of U.S. imperialism," Chen told Castroite Ambassador Oscar Pino Santos.

Maintained Dignity

"In this struggle . . . you have preserved your sovereignty, defended the revolution and maintained the dignity of a socialist (Communist) state, thus inspiring the people of the world in their revolutionary struggles."

Peking Radio broadcast an Albanian editorial saying that it was "the heroic and staunch attitude of the Cuban people" that sustained the Castro regime against "the political compromise of surrender."

Official organs in Communist North Korea parroted the Chinese line that Castro's firm stand in the Cuban crisis was a "great victory."

Castro, who has both Russians and Reds from China on his country's soil, urged the Communist giants in an anniversary speech to stand together against "imperialism."

The December meeting of the Sugar Cookies 4-H club was held at the home of their leader.

Mrs. Long brought up that we change our club name from Cooking Cookies to Sugar Cookies because there was another club with almost the same name. All members seemed to like the new name.

Our club members each brought one dozen cookies to the meeting. Our leader, Mrs. Long, put them in a Christmas box and we all went to a nursing home in Central Point and gave them the cookies. We also visited each woman there.
