

Congregational Continues Service At Hoover School

The Congregational church will celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at its service Sunday, 11 a.m. at the Hoover school. It will be a part of the regular 11 a.m. service and all adults attending the service will be welcome to partake. The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon entitled "The Arts of Burden-Bearing."

The Congregational church continues to hold its service of worship and its church school at Hoover Grade school, on Siskiyou Blvd., just east of South Modoc rd.

The church school, which is held during the worship hour, from 11 a.m. to noon, includes child care for children younger than three years of age, kindergarten for three, four and five year olds, and classes for first through sixth grade children. Mrs. Don Bohnert is superintendent.

Weekly Meetings

The Mid-High Study Fellowship, made up of ninth and tenth grade young people, will continue its series of weekly meetings at 4 p.m. Tuesday. The group will meet from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Welty house.

Tuesday evening the annual meeting of the church will be held at the Welty house. Beginning with a potluck supper at 6 p.m., the evening will include year-end reports by the various officers and organizations of the church, evaluation and discussion of the church's life, and the election of new officers. Following the annual meeting, the board and committee of the church will meet long enough to organize within themselves and to establish meeting dates for the future.

Activities Noted At 1st Methodist

The sacrament of holy communion will be observed Sunday at First Methodist church with Dr. George Roseberry preaching on "Jesus, The Bread of Life," at both morning worship services.

The youth choir will sing "God Our Father, Lord of Heaven" at 9:30 a.m. and the church choir will sing "Let Us Break Bread Together" at 11 a.m. with Mrs. D. G. MacDougall as soloist.

The Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship officers will meet in the fireplace room for a council meeting and snack supper at 5 p.m. The regular meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. Miss June Wheaton will speak on "Sin," the first in a series of four meetings on "New Meanings for Old Words."

The finance commission will meet Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. and the commission on missions will meet Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Adamson will be hosts to all members of the church choir at the annual Twelfth Night party at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the library of the church.

Portland Speaker To Hold Revival

Phoenix - The Rev. Lewis S. Steed, Portland, director of evangelism for the Oregon-Washington Southern Baptist convention, will speak at a series of revival services in Phoenix next week.

Mr. Steed is in Phoenix for the Siskiyou Southern Baptist association which started today. He will speak at the final session this evening at 7:15 o'clock on "The Holy Spirit, Power in Evangelism."

The revival services will be held nightly at 7:30 p.m. at the church through Jan. 13.

At the 11 a.m. service Sunday Charles Findley will be in charge of the music. A nursery will be provided at the services, according to the Rev. Amos Craig, pastor.

Concord Spiritualist Address Is Announced

Gold Hill - "Ancient and Modern Spiritualism" will be the title of the address by the Rev. Aleta Johnston at Concord Spiritualist chapel in Gold Hill, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Robert Routh will assist with the service. There will be a presentation of psychic experiences by members of the congregation and Mrs. Bianca Corona will play a piano solo.

YOUTH PARTY

Eagle Point - Eagle Point Community Bible church youth will hold a fellowship party at the church Friday, Jan. 11, following the Sacred Heart of Klamath Falls and Eagle Point high school basketball game. All youth of the community are invited.

Medford Adventists Elect Officers; Topics Listed

Medford Seventh-day Adventist church officers for the year of 1963 will officially assume their duties Saturday, Jan. 5.

Leading the church in the capacity of elders will be Edwin Fjarli, William Riemer, Paul Beddoe, Fred Cook, Kenneth Kamberg, Forrest Bigger and Louis Corwin.

Orville Houghton and Mrs. Roy Martin respectively will head the deacons and deaconesses in their work for the year.

Other church officers will include Gilbert Buck, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Kamberg, clerk; Louis Corwin, home missionary leader; and Mrs. E. F. Archer, missionary secretary.

Mrs. Clifford Fellows will be organist, with Keith Kendall at the piano, and Dr. Harvard Breece and Leonard Yost, Jr., leading the music.

Saturday Topic

"A Light in A Dark Place" is the title of the message to be brought to church members during the Saturday worship hour by Evangelist Duane Corwin.

Evangelist Corwin has been conducting a series of lectures for the general public in the National Guard armory. He is now holding services two nights weekly in the church building, located at 1900 Greenwood st.

Saturday night at 7 p.m., the subject of Mr. Corwin's lecture will be "Why I Am What I Am." The sermon will be preceded by a color motion film, "The Water of Life." The film is accompanied by an orchestral background.

Sunday night's topic will be, "The United States and Rome in Bible Prophecy," and a film entitled "Boycott" will be shown.

Musical selections are presented under the direction of Arvin W. Winkle, pastor of the Ashland and Valley View Seventh-day Adventist churches. Audience participation singing of familiar hymns illustrated in color on the screen are a nightly feature of the program.

Communion Set By Presbyterians

At the first communion of the New Year at First Presbyterian church Sunday Dr. D. Kirkland West will speak on "One Cup for the Whole World." He will be assisted by the Rev. David Brown, minister of Christian education.

Mrs. William R. Uhren will sing, "Thy Mercy, Oh Lord, is in the Heavens" by La Forge. For the early service the youth choir will present, "Adoramus Te" by Palestrina and the church choir will sing for the 11 a.m. service.

Senior High Fellowship will hold a discussion at 7 p.m. Sunday on the issues of the congregation's meeting with the citizenship commission in charge of the program. They also hold a midweek meeting Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

Student Team to Arrive Sunday

A student team from the Western Baptist Theological seminary in Portland will be here Sunday to present the entire evening service at the First Baptist church.

The team is composed of six students and is led by Warren Fleischmann, student body president of the seminary. The program will include music, testimonies and a message by one of the students. The service will be held at 7 p.m. at the Wilson school auditorium, Grand and Corona aves., where the church is presently meeting for all its services.

A family hour is conducted at 6 p.m. The Seminary team will give the program for the High School group. The adults will have a showing of the film, "Operation Abolition."

Dr. Kreisman To Speak Here Sunday

Sunday the Rogue Valley Unitarian fellowship will hear an address by Dr. Arthur Kreisman of Southern Oregon college. His topic will be "The Bible and Its Interpretation."

Dr. Kreisman is in charge of the department of general study at the college. The fellowship meets at 11 a.m. at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave.

Ernest Wanda, chairman, has announced that "Executive committee, composed of officers and chairman of committees, will meet the second Thursday of each month. The next meeting will be held at the Mar" on Jan. 10 at 7:45 p.m.

Missionary Group Official to Speak

Central Point - The Rev. Dwight Wadsworth, a representative of the Missionary Fellowship of Torchbearers, will be the guest speaker at the 7:30 p.m. service at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point.

Mr. Wadsworth has spent several years as the director of the Torchbearers in Germany. This missionary movement is primarily concerned with the youth conducting youth rallies, Bible camps and Bible study groups.

Special Month at Advent Christian

January will be "Step Ahead Month" in the First Advent Christian church located on West Jackson and Welch sts. Emphasis will be made on visitors in the Sunday school.

A foot print will be placed in the center aisle for each visitor during January. Thus, by the end of the month the Sunday school members will be able to see how far they have been able to "step ahead" toward the altar.

Sunday morning the trophy will be awarded to the winning class of the Sunday school contest. The name of this class will not be announced until Sunday. Classes for all ages begin at 9:45 a.m.

The worship service will start at 11 a.m. with the pastor, the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr., giving the morning message. At 11:30 a.m. the children will go to the Junior Church chapel for their own service.

At 6:30 p.m. a discussion period will begin to answer questions which have arisen during the Chapter-day reading. At 7:30 p.m. candle light communion will be observed. The pastor will present a short meditation.

Wednesday prayer meeting will be held in the parsonage at 7 p.m. Planning for special days in the Sunday school during 1963 will be held following the prayer time.

UNITY

Special New Year's Resolution PRAYER SERVICE—THURSDAY EVENING—7:30 Corner Holly and Haven Streets

Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo. REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister

Worship Hour—11:15 a.m.

"In the Beginning—God"

Genesis 1:1

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m. Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. 995 S. Oakdale Ave.—Phone 772-6902—Everyone Welcome

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

'Review, Preview' To Be Subject

"Review and Preview" is the sermon title which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach Sunday morning at the First Christian church.

The youth choir will sing "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" at the first service. Schubert's "Holy, Holy, Holy" will be sung by the church choir at the 10:55 a.m. service.

Mrs. W. H. Holt and Mrs. Wayne Troxell will be hostesses at the coffee hour.

At 5 p.m. Sunday all the counselors of the three youth fellowships will begin the first of a five-week in-service training course. These will be taught by the Rev. Wendell Wagler.

During January the Chi Rho Fellowship will study responsibilities of freedom. At their 6 p.m. meeting Sunday Nancy Bogener will lead the study and Bill Brooks will give the devotions.

Kathy Christensen will give the lesson at the Middlers Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. on "Why People Leave the Church." Anne Bazanister is the worship leader.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will hold installation of officers when they meet at 6:30 p.m.

Tuesday evening the official church board will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. at the church. A new series of midweek Bible studies will begin Wednesday at 7 p.m. Dr. George Breece will teach this class on "Man's Changing Concept of Man."

The Christian Men's Fellowship will have a dinner meeting on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship hall. Reno Offutt will show slides and tell of his experiences in Argentina where he lived and worked for many years.

THE REV. DAVID BROWNE Here From Coast

Assistant Arrives At St. Mark's

The Rev. David V. A. Browne, formerly vicar of Gardiner and Florence churches on the Oregon coast, has joined the staff of St. Mark's Episcopal church as assistant to the rector, the Rev. George R. V. Bolster.

Mr. Browne was born in Armagh, Ireland in 1912 and was educated at Armagh Royal school. He moved to Canada in 1932 and enrolled in the University of Saskatchewan and in Emmanuel college, Saskatoon, graduating with the degrees of bachelor of arts and licentiate in theology in 1938.

He served in the mission fields of Goldbridge, B.C. and Wells-Barkerville, B.C. from 1938 to 1941 when he went overseas with the Canadian Army as chaplain to the Calgary Highlanders. After five years military service he returned to Canada to become vicar of Barrehead, Alberta, where he served for ten years until health reasons forced him to seek a more temperate climate.

He came to Oregon in 1956 at the invitation of the then Bishop of Oregon, the Right Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, D.D. now retired.

Mr. Browne served as vicar of Brookings for two years before taking charge of the Gardiner-Florence field in 1958. He is now residing at 331 North Holly st.

Trinity Baptists Plan Communion

Trinity Baptist church plans to begin the new year with a communion service during the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday. Preceding the serving of the Lord's Supper, the Rev. Bruce O. Rogers, Howard Lindstrom, Russ Carr, and Marvin Kautz, will participate in giving a message, "Partners in Christ."

Mrs. Helen Merriman and Mrs. Lorene McCormack will sing a duet, "Out of the Ivory Palaces," at this service.

At the 10 a.m. Sunday school hour, Pastor Rogers will begin a new adult Bible study series entitled, "The Bible and My Life." This series will be a survey of great teachings of the Bible and a discussion of their relationship to the needs of modern man. Discussion Sunday will center around the question, "How Dependable Is the Bible?"

At 7:30 p.m. youth groups will meet and the adults will continue their Studies in Mark. The subject Sunday evening for the adults is "Christ in the Midst of Controversy," Mark 11:27-12:12.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. An attended nursery is provided for infants and pre-school children during Sunday school and morning worship services.

'Split-Level Church' To Be Sermon Topic

"The Split-Level Church" is the title of the sermon Sunday morning at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave. Speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service will be John W. Heberling, minister of the church. A junior worship service for elementary school children is also conducted at 11 a.m.

A study hour beginning at 9:45 a.m. precedes the worship service. There are Bible school classes for all ages.

Young people meet in three discussion groups at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. At 7:30 p.m. the message will be entitled "It Is Possible." Mr. Heberling will again be the speaker.

The annual business meeting of the church will begin with a potluck dinner Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. Summary reports of the various phases of church work and election of officers for the coming year will be held.

RLDS Youth Hold Meeting in Area

Medford youths of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, met with other youths and their leaders from all Southern Oregon District branches of the RLDS church for a two day conference at Grants Pass, Dec. 29 and 30.

Painting has been completed in the interior of the church, and new modern lighting fixtures were installed this week, it was announced.

Sunday is communion, and a re-dedication service shall follow the serving of the Lord's Supper at 11 a.m. Priest Tom Schuyler will speak.

The Priesthood will meet for a council meeting at 2:30 p.m. in the church.

Ministers Schedule Meeting Tuesday

The Medford Ministerial association will hold their first meeting of the year Tuesday, Jan. 8 at the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Peggyann Hutchinson, church news editor of the Mail Tribune, will speak. Ministers who are interested may tour the Mail Tribune facilities on North Fir st. at 9 a.m. prior to her talk.

The four will end in time for the ministers to be at the Presbyterian church by 10 a.m. A fellowship hour will precede the talk. It will be followed by a business meeting.

The monthly meetings are open to ministers of all denominations and churches.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main

"God"

Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.

Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.

You Are Always Welcome

Listen to: "The Bible Speaks To You"

Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.

Feast of Lights Scheduled At St. Mark's Episcopal

The traditional Epiphany pageant, the Feast of Lights, will be presented at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The production will be directed by the author, Mrs. Scott Hamilton, assisted by Mrs. Ed Howard, Mrs. Margaret Phillips, Mrs. Robert D. Dames, Mrs. A. Douglas Roach, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Jensen, Mr. Hamilton, Elwood Hedberg, Billy Hedberg, Jerome McDougall.

Children of the church school will provide the cast for the pageant, which will be narrated by Paul Goodwin, Jo Anne Hamilton and Bob Dames will have the role as Mary and Joseph. Accompanying music will be provided by St. Mark's Choristers, directed by Mrs. Ann Wirkkula with Mrs. B. A. Nunley at the console, a duet by Miss Patricia Selby and Lee Wimberly.

The pageant will relate the chain of prophecy which foretold the advent of the Messiah of God, unfolding the story of the Nativity and the visit of the Magi and concluding with the founding of the church, and the spread of the Gospel of Him, who came to be "The Light of the World."

The finale will be the distribution of candles, lighted from the altar, to the congregation as they leave the church, symbolizing the obligation of Christians to spread the "light" to the uttermost parts of the earth. Approximately 70 children of the church school will be involved in the presentation.

The presentation is open to the public.

Eastwood Baptist Services Noted

Sunday at the Eastwood Baptist church morning service, Pastor Clifford J. Young will give the message, "John the Baptist." The church choir will sing "My Shepherd Will Supply My Need," by Watts.

Superintendent Dean S. Anderson of the Sunday Church school has announced a class attendance award program, based on percentage attendance. The class having the largest percentage of attendance over a three month period will be awarded a trophy.

Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday with officers taking an increase in program presentation. The president is David White.

Senior High BYF will meet at 6:30 p.m. They have initiated the use of the Navigator's Bible Study program, according to President Carol Anderson.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on "The Baptism of Jesus."

The first week in January is set aside for cottage prayer meetings. The meeting Saturday, Jan. 5, will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Dale Harris home, 22 West Jackson st. Monday's meeting will be at the William Robertson home, 32 Ashland ave. Theme this year, "God's Answer to Prayer."

The annual meeting of Eastwood Baptist church will be held Wednesday, Jan. 9.

Family Altar To Be Emphasized Sunday

"My House in 1963," is the sermon topic by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarenes, 220 North Holly st., for Sunday's 11 a.m. service.

The pastor has announced emphasis on the family altar for the first Sunday of the new year. Information on the program will be distributed to the people.

Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education, has announced that the sanctuary choir will sing "Wonderful Peace," and the Fishermen male quartet will also sing.

In the 7 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on the subject, "Heaven's Motivations." Here again the approach to the new year will be emphasized. Music for the evening service will be a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen and a mixed quartet composed of Karen Warner, Mrs. Cliff Shafer, Walter Vail, and John Finkbeiner.

Mrs. Lowell Shepard will present the story sermon in the junior church service Sunday, Theme I - the service is "Resolutions."

'Christian Growth' Is Baptist Topic

The Rev. G. O. Skarr, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, has chosen "Christian Growth" as the subject for his message Sunday morning, another sermon on "Basic Bible Beliefs."

The adult choir will sing. At the 6:30 p.m. service, Gordon Roberts, missionary from Nigeria will be guest speaker. Mr. Roberts is in the United States attending classes at the University of Oregon at Eugene. The youth choir will sing.

Bible study week begins Monday evening at the church and will continue through Friday, Jan. 11. Studies in Matthew will be the subject. Classes will continue from 7:30 to 9 p.m. each day in the new Educational building.

Family Altar To Be Emphasized Sunday

"My House in 1963," is the sermon topic by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarenes, 220 North Holly st., for Sunday's 11 a.m. service.

The pastor has announced emphasis on the family altar for the first Sunday of the new year. Information on the program will be distributed to the people.

Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education, has announced that the sanctuary choir will sing "Wonderful Peace," and the Fishermen male quartet will also sing.

In the 7 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on the subject, "Heaven's Motivations." Here again the approach to the new year will be emphasized. Music for the evening service will be a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen and a mixed quartet composed of Karen Warner, Mrs. Cliff Shafer, Walter Vail, and John Finkbeiner.

Mrs. Lowell Shepard will present the story sermon in the junior church service Sunday, Theme I - the service is "Resolutions."

Topics, Services Noted at Berean

"Lights in A Darkened World" will be the message for the New Year theme at the 11 a.m. worship service by Pastor Richard Haden at Berean Baptist church of White City. Mrs. Haden, soloist, will sing "Then Jesus Came." Communion will be served following the service.

A short business meeting will follow the communion service.

A group from the church will go to the Veterans Administration Domiciliary at 6:15 p.m. to hold the service there.

"Three Supreme Resolutions" is the subject chosen for the service at 7:30 p.m. by Mr. Haden. The letter for Missionary Moments is from Miss Mabel Tyrrel of The Sudan Interior mission.

Nursery facilities for parents with infants is provided at both morning and evening services.

Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the church, the Rev. Stan Peach, veteran Conservative Baptist Foreign Missionary society missionary to Taiwan, will present his work.

Bethel Assembly Subject Announced

"The Untraveled Way" will be the sermon topic at Bethel Assembly of God's 11 a.m. service Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. Lawrence D. Krause, will speak at both the morning and 7:30 p.m. services.

The week of January 6 to 13 will be observed as a week of prayer with prayer nightly at 7:30 p.m.

The church location is 1225 East McAndrews rd.

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711

Communion Meditation:

"One Cup for the Whole World."

Dr. D. Kirkland West

Worship Services: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

Unity Activities Noted for Week; Resolutions Set

"In the Beginning—God" is the first of a series of four lessons the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will speak on Sunday, at the 11:15 a.m. service. The series is called "A New and Living Way." The text is taken from Genesis 1-1.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ, and Mrs. H. Breece will sing "I See God."

Thursday, Jan. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Unity church there will be a New Year prayer service; at which time resolutions will be drawn up by the individual, sealed and self-addressed. These will be collected and held until June, when they will be returned to the sender for spiritual evaluation, as to the progress made.

Miss Myers will be at the organ and Mrs. Dick L. Chamberlain, Eagle Point will sing.

Church school begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all age groups.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Jan. 9 at 11 a.m. at the Unity church. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet.

Grants Pass and Ashland will resume classes and meet as usual.

Unity church of Medford is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lees Summit, Mo.

St. Peter's to Hold Communion

St. Peter's Lutheran church will begin its first Sunday of the new year with two services at 8:15 and 11 a.m. The pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon, will be in charge. The 11 a.m. services will include the celebration of holy communion and the installation of the new church officers.

Clifford Wolff, congregation chairman, has called for a meeting of the church council at 8:30 p.m. Monday. New members on the council include William H. Wright, Wesley Graham, Hans Hess, Charles Mortimer, and Keith Walker. L. Smith will serve as secretary.

St. Peter's board of elders, headed by Robert L. Hawthorn, meets Tuesday at 5:15 p.m.

The church choir, directed by Al Huntemann, will continue to meet Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. and the children's confirmation classes will again meet at 10 a.m. on Saturdays.

Witnesses State Scheduled Events

Jehovah's Witnesses this week will hold a service meeting and ministry school at 7:30 p.m. Friday. The theme, "Serving the Ruler Out of the House of Bread," will be used throughout the evening.

A Bible discourse will be held Sunday at 4 p.m. and will be followed by a study in the Watchtower magazine entitled "The Benefits of Subjection To Authorities."

Tuesday, Jan. 8, at 8 p.m. a new chapter will be considered in the "Let Your Name Be Sanctified" textbook entitled "The Promised Forerunner Prepares The Way."

Covenant Service Scheduled in GH

Gold Hill - A covenant communion service, with a special order of service used by Methodists since the days of John Wesley, will be held at Gold Hill Community Methodist church, Sunday, at 11 a.m. The Rev. Lochlen L. Gregory, pastor, will have charge of the service.

On Sunday at 8 p.m. an official board meeting will be held at the church.

The Christian Social Concerns study on "None Shall Make Them Afraid," will resume Saturday, Jan. 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the church and will continue each week until the course is completed.

Wednesday, Jan. 9 at 7:30 p.m. a quarterly workers conference for the church staff will be held at the church.

Christian Science Lesson Announced

Man's inseparable relationship to his creator will be emphasized at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windor ave., Sunday at the 11 a.m. church services. Subject of the lesson-sermon is "God." The text will be from Revelations 21:3.

Persons up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are welcome to the services.

ST. LUKE'S METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Charles McDonald Pastor

CHURCH SCHOOL 9:45 a.m.

CHURCH 11:00 a.m.

2940 SISKIYOU BLVD.

IS YOUR HOME A CHRISTIAN HOME?

Hear these four Bible messages by Pastor B. E. Andrews of the First Baptist Church, Medford

Jan. 6—"Christ Wants to be the Head of Your Home!"

Jan. 13—"Church and Home—Inseparable"

Jan. 20—"The Biblical Psychology of Parenthood"

Jan. 27—"Divorce Is Not the Answer"

11:00 A.M. at

First Baptist Church

Wilson School, Grand at Corona

All Are Welcome Free Parking Nursery Provided

Broadcast over KBOY—11:00-12:00 Each Sunday

O sing to the Lord a new song:
Sing to the Lord, all the earth!
Psalms 96:1

SEE OUR LARGE SELECTION OF

- Records
- Sheet Music
- Song Books

AT THE

EVANGEL CENTER

230 S. Central