Tallis-Snodgrass Rites

Miss Janet Elizabeth Snodgrass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Snodgrass, 856 West Fourteenth street, Medford, and Terrance Norman Tallis of Sacramento, Calif., were married in 2 o'clock afternoon rites, December 29, in the Medford First Presbyterian church.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tallis of Hilt, Calif.

Dr. D. Kirkland West performed the double ring ceremony.

About 100 guests attended the service and the reception which was held after the ceremony in the church Fellowship hall.

Mrs. Ronald Fields, Gulfport, Miss., came north to serve as the honor attendant. Miss Barbara Preston, Spokane, Wash., and Miss Carole Doyle were the bridesmaids.

Walter Friday, Corvallis, was best man and seating the guests were James Snodgrass and Gary Tallis, Hilt, brothers of the bride and bridegroom.

Mr. Snodgrass escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride's floorlength gown was of white nylon organza over taffeta. The bodice was made with long sleeves and the scoop neckline was accented with Chantilly lace accented with pearls and iridescent sequins. Lace trimmed the bouffant skirt and butterfly bustle. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations on a white ribbon, a gift from the bridegroom.

For something old the bride wore a gold wedding bracelet, an heirloom from the family of the bridegroom's mother. The bracelet was one of two which were given to Mrs. Tallis' grandmother as an engagement present, as was the custom at the time in Sweden where she lived. Through the years they have been worn by brides in the family on their wedding day.

The attendants wore emerald rayon georgette gowns over taffeta designed with cowl-draped bodices in front and back. The matron of honor carried a cascade bouquet of bronze pompon chrysanthemums with gold eucalyptus leaves. The bridesmaids' bouquets were of yellow pompon chrysanthemums, also with gold eucalyptus leaves. Their headresses were of green velvet with emerald tulle.

Mrs. N. S. Thames played the wedding music and Otis Swisher was soloist. Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Snodgrass wore an ivory brocade sheath dress with jacket and matching accessories. Mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a gold boucle sheath dress with jacket with multi-colored feather accessories. Both had corsages of bronze pompon chrysanthemums.

Aunts Assist

During the reception given by the bride's parents, Mrs. Stewart Milne cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. H. B. Collins. Mrs. Irving Thomas, aunt of the bride, poured the punch. Mrs. Tolmond Hassman, aunt of the bridegroom, served the coffee and Miss Patricia Harris had charge of the guest book and the gift table.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco. For traveling the bride wore a white wool sheath dress with white velvet and gold accessories.

The couple will live at 2924 Watt avenue, Sacramento.

The bride, a teacher, attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom, a project engineer with Aerojet General, attended Yreka High school and Southern Oregon college.

Relatives from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Densmore, Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Halliday, Tacoma, Wash., and Dr. and Mrs. William Bayliss, Myrtle Creek, Ore. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohlund, Mr. and Mrs. Halo Marin and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Marin, all of Hilt, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Friday, Coos Bay, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Dorrence Reiger, Ashland, and Mrs. Walter Friday, Corvallis.

To Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of College Women's Club of the Rogue River Valley will be observed Saturday, January 12. The observance will be held during a meeting of the group which will open at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Girls Community club.

The founder of the club, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, now of Klamath Falls, and five charter members have been invited and will be honored during the event.

The charter members, all active in the organization, are Mrs. Glenn Taylor, the former Miss Theone Carkin; Mrs. J. D. Canfield, the former Miss Julia Hoppin; Mrs. Harris Jones, Miss Mable Mears and Mrs. Olen Arnsperger.

A review of the history of the club will be given by Mrs. Amos Willets of Ashland, and the musical program will be themed to Mrs. Willets' subject.

Open House Set Today

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewold, 2668 Jacksonville highway, are invited to attend an open house from two to five o'clock this afternoon in observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Their daughters, Miss Glenna Brewold, and Miss Patty Brewold, are hostesses for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewold have lived at the same address for the twenty-five years. They were married in the Zion Lutheran church.

Mr. Brewold operates the Brewold Chevron station on West Main street in Medford.

Miss Glenna Brewold is a teacher in the Eagle Point High school, and Miss Patty Brewold is a student at Southern Oregon college.

Family Returns From Islands

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Materie and daughter, Miss Nancy Materie, 213 Girard drive, arrived home Thursday after being in Hawaii since December 23. The three met the Materie's son, James Materie, in Seattle, Wash., and the group departed from there.

While on the islands they were guests at the Hawaiiana hotel on the beach walk, Honolulu.

James Materie attended the international surfing championships at Makaha.

They were guests of a Naval officer for a cruise of the islands and also attended the program, "Hawaii Calls." They made a Jeep trip and dined at the La Ronde, revolving restaurant.

The Materie's son recently was promoted to associate engineer for the International Business Machines company in Seattle.

Cocktail Party Honors Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Webber were honored at a cocktail party given recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Webber, Old Stage road. Approximately 30 friends and relatives attended. Following the party the group went to Mon Desir Inn for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Webber and children, Judd, Nancy and Holly, came from Marshall, Texas, to spend the holidays with the R. B. Webbers. The men are brothers. The Texas family are also visiting Mr. Webber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Webber, Marshall avenue, a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, Hillside drive, and another sister, Mrs. Ned Schuler, North Modoc avenue.

The Webbers are former Medford residents.

Winter Dance Slated by Club

Members and guests of the Lively Rogues will enter a "Winter Wonderland" at the Rogue Valley Country club on Thursday, January 10, as they gather for the mid-winter dinner and dance. Host couples for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Don Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Underwood.

A buffet dinner will be served promptly at 7:30 p.m. and dancing will begin at 9 p.m. with music provided by Caesar Muzzioli. Any member not contacted by the committee may make reservations by calling the club's secretary, Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor, or the president, John Graff.

Women Leave On World Cruise

Ashland-Mrs. Gladys Gardner, 94 Granite street, and Miss Ernestine Hicks of 208 Hawthorne avenue, Medford, left Thursday morning for San Francisco where they boarded the SS Polk Saturday for a three-month around the world cruise.

They have booked passage on a passenger freighter of the President Lines and will be in the company of 94 others who will visit the Orient and southern Europe before landing in New York the last of March.

Their itinerary includes, Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong and Singapore, India, Egypt and Italy. In many ports they will fly to points of interest.

Kleiber-Eastwood Ceremony Takes Place

An event of December 29 was the marriage of Miss Barbara Jeanne Eastwood and Kenneth D. Kleiber held at St. Peter's Lutheran church at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Eastwood, 1045 South Stage road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Kleiber, Gresham, Ore.

About 85 guests attended the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. John E. Simon. Mrs. Thomas Balch played the organ music for the ceremony and accompanied her husband, who sang. The church was decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and a Christmas tree in the background accented the holiday season.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown made by Mrs. Oral Harshman, a friend of the family of white lace over satin with a princess style bodice, accented by a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The full hoop skirt was floor length. Her bouffant illusion net veil was held by a coronet and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Martha Gifford, maid of honor, wore a pink chiffon ballerina length frock and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Robert S. Black, Hilt, Calif., served as best man. Seating the guests were Gale A. Eastwood, Coos Bay, brother of the bride, and Larry Black, Hilt.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Eastwood chose a blue lace sheath ensemble accented with white accessories. Mrs. Kleiber wore a princess frock of aquamarine silk with beige accessories. Their corsages were fashioned of pink and white carnations.

The reception immediately following was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, relatives of the bride. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Harshman. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Stuart Good and Miss Louise Kleiber, sister of the bridegroom.

Retired Officer Leaves for Home

Lt. Col. L. J. Conroy, (US Army retired) has left for his home in El Paso, Tex., after spending two weeks in Medford visiting numerous relatives and friends. He was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Mary Oliver, 815 West Fourteenth street, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Murphy and sons.

A number of parties were given in his honor during his stay.
