Miss Jensen, Gary Heath Are Married

Eagle Point - Of interest to valley residents is the marriage of Miss Aedene Lorene Jensen, 500B Allison avenue, Ashland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton C. Jensen, route 1, box 285, Eagle Point, to Gary Audrey Heath, Medford, in Odenton, Md.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Audrey F. Heath, 45 Lozier lane, Medford.

The Rev. Hayward Y. Rowh, minister of the Nichols-Bethel Methodist church in Odenton, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening rites held December 15.

Mrs. Nellie B. Hoffman played the organ music for the ceremony.

The bride wore a sheath dress in afternoon length of white di luna fashioned with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and scoop neckline. An overskirt of unpressed pleats, fastened with a bow at the waistline, was caught up in front and held by a bow. Her float veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of white velvet flowers with iridescent centers.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red rosebuds on a white bible. Mrs. Charles S. Baldwin, Severn, Md., attended the bride. She wore a powder blue taffeta frock with chiffon drapery. Her flowers were white carnations and red rosebuds.

Ronald B. Ward, Nampa, Idaho, served as best man.

The bride, a student at Southern Oregon college, traveled to Maryland during the holiday vacation at the college. Mr. Heath, a graduate of Ashland High school, is stationed at Fort Meade in Maryland with the U. S. Army.

The couple traveled to Washington, D. C., on their wedding trip after a dinner at The Sierra. Mrs. Heath has returned to Ashland for the winter term where she is a sophomore in elementary education. She was valedictorian of her 1961 class at Eagle Point High school, and is attending college on scholarships from Oregon Elks and Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Collins Return From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Collins and children, David, Barbara and Julie, have returned to their home on White Oak drive after spending the holidays in Hawaii. They were guests of Mr. Collins' brother-in-law and sister, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Sam Maddux, Hickam field. The Collins made the trip by jet plane from Portland.

Also in Hawaii for a winter vacation were Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes and children, Bonnie and Scott, formerly of Medford and now of Los Angeles.

Dads To Enter Baking Contest

Dads will be in the limelight when the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association holds its annual Dads' night in the school cafeteria Monday, January 7, at 7:30 p.m.

Of particular interest to dads will be the guest speaker, Fred Spiegelberg, football coach at Medford High school. He will tell about Medford's athletic program.

A musical group of dads will entertain too, according to program chairman Mrs. Ralph Matlack.

Another feature of the evening will be a bad cake-baking contest, with a prize for the most unique creation. All dads are urged by the committee to bring samples of their baking talents.

Mothers are also invited to attend the meeting.

Episcopal Rites Held

Miss Dolores Marie Smith became the bride of Daniel Lee Coghill, December 28 in 8 o'clock evening double ring rites read by the Rev. George R. Bolster in St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Smith, 2625 Lucky lane, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Coghill, 1289 Coghill lane, Medford.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated in 1962 from Medford High school. The bride attended Southern Oregon college and the bridegroom is a student at San Jose Junior college, Calif. The couple made their wedding trip to San Jose, where they are living at 875 Northrup avenue.

Miss Nona Joan Donahue was the honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Terre McCann, Redondo Beach, Calif.; Miss Vicki Brumback and Miss Bonnie Knapp.

The flower girl was Denise Hannaford, and Donnie Hannaford carried the rings. Both are cousins of the bridegroom.

Steven Ray was best man and ushers were Gene Offord, Jacksonville, Steven Smith, Kevin Davis and Rex Nicodemus.

Gown of Lace

Given in marriage by her cousin, Curtis Cook, the bride wore a floorlength lace gown styled with a tiered hooped skirt. The fitted bodice was designed with short sleeves and a scalloped neckline. Her elbow length veil was held by a crown with seed pearl trimming and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

The honor attendant wore a royal blue satin frock with street length skirt with draped bow at the side and matching headband of satin with float veil. The bridesmaids wore matching powder blue dresses and headbands with veils. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

The flower girl's frock and veil in light blue matched those of the attendants. Blue carnations and white chrysanthemums decorated the church and the organ music was furnished by Mrs. E. C. Conrad. Maynard Hadley sang the wedding songs.

The reception given by the bride's mother was held in the church rooms. About 150 guests attended the wedding ceremony and the reception.

Mrs. Edward J. Knapp served the cake and Miss Colleen Knapp and Miss Patricia Knapp served the punch and coffee. Mrs. Dale Ferguson registered the guests, and Miss Joann Kingslein had charge of gifts.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a black dress with matching three-quarter length jacket with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a white brocade suit with royal blue accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Guests Here

From out of town were Mrs. Clarence D. Comstock, the former Miss Janice Coghill, sister of the bride, now of Sunnyvale, Calif. She was accompanied by her infant daughter, Karen Tamara Comstock.

The bride wore a blue and grey plaid suit for traveling. The bridegroom also is employed by the Casey Jones Furniture company in San Jose.

Before the wedding two miscellaneous showers were given. One, for which Mrs. Ferguson was the hostess, was attended by family members and friends of both the bride and bridegroom. The other, given by Miss Donahue and Miss Bonnie Knapp was attended by friends of the bride. A personal shower given by Miss Brumback, also was attended by friends of the bride.

Student Chosen Board Member by Mademoiselle

Miss Ann Leslie McDuffee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, 2000 Hillcrest road, Medford, a junior at the Oregon State university, has been chosen to be a member of Mademoiselle magazine's 1963 national college board, made up of students from colleges and universities across the country. This is the third year that Miss McDuffee has been selected for the honor.

The annual competition is designed for young women with talent in art, writing, fashion, merchandising, promotion or advertising.

Miss McDuffee's major is in clothing and textiles. She is a Medford High school graduate.

Each board member was selected on the basis of an entry that showed her interest and ability.

As a college board member she will report news from her college to Mademoiselle and she is eligible to compete for one of the 20 guest editor-ships that will be awarded by the magazine in May. To win one of the top prizes, each member must submit a second entry to show her specific aptitude for magazine work.

The members who win guest editorships will be sent to New York City for the month of June to help edit, write and illustrate the 1963 August college issue of the magazine. They will share offices with the editors, advise the staff on campus trends, interview well known artists and writers and represent the magazine on visits to publishing houses, stores and advertising agencies.

They also will be photographed for the college issue and will be considered for future staff positions with Mademoiselle and other Conde Nast publications.

Miss McDuffee left the first of the week after being in Medford for the holidays.

Don't Know How Much to Deduct?

Are you one of those unfortunate taxpayers who never knows how much to deduct for drug purchases? You can relax. DrugTax can help you, and it isn't going to cost you a penny. DrugTax is the new record-keeping system now available at our pharmacy. With it, we keep a complete record of your drug purchases. And at the end of the year we send you a DrugTax statement which tells you how much may be deductible in computing your federal tax return.

Simple? Of course—and it can save you money! By making all of your drug purchases at our store, you will be guaranteeing yourself an annual tax record. Those "little" purchases (which can add up to big ones) won't be forgotten.

We think you'll be pleasantly surprised at how many items are deductible. It could mean tax savings for you.

Come in today and let us tell you more about DrugTax. Remember, it's free.
