Dance Held by St. Mary's School Legislators, Families Leaving for Salem Soon

Miss Charlotte Sokolowski, daughter of Mrs. Sophie Sokolowski, Barnett road, reigned as queen of the St. Mary's High school winter formal dance held December 28 in the Rogue Valley Country club. The event was attended by students from all four classes, alumni and invited guests.

Theme for the ball was Crystal Crescendo.

Sponsored by the senior class, Michael Stinson was chairman.

Princesses were Miss Kathy Newcomb, a senior; Miss Terri Calhoun, a freshman; Miss Kathleen Zapell, a junior and Miss Mary Rementeria, a sophomore.

Music was by the Roy Taylor combo.

Guests included the Very Rev. Carl Mai, the Rev. William McLeod, the Rev. John Ilg and the Rev. Gilbert Lulay; William McKibben, Richard Paup and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Friel.

Chaperones for the event were Mr. and Mrs. David Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darland, Mrs. LaVonne Hout, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stinson.

Sister Mary Agatha is senior advisor.

The St. Mary's High school winter formal recently at the Rogue Valley Country club was attended by alumni, students and guests. Shown above as they arrived for the dance are Raymond Nougier, an alumni student, now a sophomore at Shasta Junior college, Redding, Calif., and Miss Judy Brookman, a senior at Medford High school.

Jackson county's four legislators and their families will soon leave for Salem where they will live during the 1983 session of the Oregon legislature.

John Dellenback, Medford lawyer and member of the House of Representatives, and his family plan to leave about January 12. They have rented a house, and their children will attend school in Salem. Richard is 12 years old, David is 10 and their daughter, Barbara, will soon be 7.

The Dellenback's are active members of Westminster Presbyterian church and both also are identified with many civic projects.

State Senator and Mrs. L. W. Newbry and their son, Ronald, 13, will leave for Salem January 10. They have found living quarters near the school which Ronald, and Richard Dellenback, will attend.

Also leaving January 12 will be Edward Branchfield, new state representative, Mrs. Branchfield and their four children, Paul, 15; David, 12; Anne, 10 and Scott, 4 years old. The Branchfields have rented a home on Northeast 24th street near the Fairgrounds. Paul will enroll at North Salem High school. David will be a student at Parish Junior High school and Anne will enroll at Englewood school.

State Representative James A. Redden plans to leave Medford January 12, but Mrs. Redden and their children were to leave yesterday. Jim, 10, and Bill, 7, will both attend Englewood elementary school.

All four wives plan to work with their husbands as secretaries. Mrs. Redden reported that she is learning to type, and is "boning up" on civics. Wives of legislators find that unless they join their husbands in their work as representatives and senators, they are out of touch with the chain of events and may not be fully informed on bills and their progress.

Many social events take place during the sessions of the legislature, and one of the first of these will be the reception which Governor and Mrs. Mark Hatfield will give January 13 at the governor's residence in honor of the legislators. Hours are from 2 to 5 o'clock and assisting the Hatfields will be Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Warne Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Holmer and Mr. and Mrs. William Newell.

Adult Education Courses Scheduled To Open Soon

Two special demand courses are being offered through the Adult and Vocational Education department of the Medford Public Schools.

The first to open will be the course in Basic Food service for the employees of hospitals and nursing homes in this area. This class will begin Thursday, January 10 from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., and registration will take place at the first meeting. All food service personnel are invited. The tuition fee is $5. Mrs. Evadyn MacLeod will instruct and the classes will be held for a 10-week period in the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital auditorium.

A medical terminology course also is being organized in cooperation with the Jackson County Medical Assistants association. Mrs. Bertha Morrill is the instructor and the tuition fee also will be $5.

The class begins Monday, January 14 at 7:30 p. m., and will continue each Monday for a 10-week period. The class, which will be conducted in the hospital auditorium, is open to persons working in medical laboratories, clinics, and hospitals, and also to medical secretaries and assistants or those interested in doing medical secretarial or assistants work.

Further information concerning either class may be obtained from Lindsay M. Vinsel, director of adult and vocational education, telephone 773-7220.

Navy Mothers

Central Point — A meeting for members of the Central Point Navy Mothers club will convene at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, January 9, in the home of Mrs. Homer Brown, Old Stage road, Central Point.

Woman Honored For Service; Tea Is Given

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans and Mrs. Edith Whillock have returned to Medford after being in Corvallis to attend a scholarship tea which honored Mrs. Lester Stutz, sister of Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Whillock.

Mrs. Stutz lived in Medford as a young college woman. She recently was honored by the Corvallis Woman's club in recognition of her service to the club and the Oregon Federation of Women's club as community affairs chairman.

The tea was held to raise funds for a $300 scholarship which is to be known as the Bertha W. Stutz scholarship in her honor. It is to be given annually to a student in secretarial science or in business education departments. Mrs. Stutz was a member of the faculty of the secretarial science department, Oregon State university, for 35 years and was director of business education for more than 20 of those years.

More than 150 guests attended the tea and more than the needed funds for the first scholarship was raised.

Meeting Planned By Faith Circle

Central Point — Faith circle of the First Presbyterian church in Central Point will meet Wednesday January 9 at 8 p. m., in the church. Mrs. Jane Russell, the newly elected chairman of the circle, will preside. Refreshments will be served.

Much of the beauty and gaiety of "The Mikado" is due to the presence and songs of the Three Little Maids. These roles will be played and sung in the production of this long-time Gilbert and Sullivan favorite by (left to right) Lee Ann Allen, cast as Peep-Bo; Tresa Matlack, Yum Yum, and Diana Hunter, Pitti Sing. This will be the third time that Mrs. Matlack has played Yum Yum, and her performances have been enthusiastically received in the past. All women of the cast will be wearing new costumes made especially for this performance under the direction of Mrs. Henry DeVoss.

'Mikado' Performance Announced

A performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, The Mikado, will be presented by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon, Friday and Saturday, January 11 and 12 in the Medford High school auditorium.

Curtain time will be 8:15 o'clock each evening.

Heading the cast as the Mikado is Don Lewis of Ashland and playing the part of Ko Ko is Keith Bentley of San Francisco, member of the San Francisco permanent company for Gilbert and Sullivan. Another Ashland resident, Everett Winter, will take the part of Nanki Poo, and Yum Yum will be done by Tresa Matlack.

Sue Boe of Grants Pass is cast as Katisha and Poo Bah will be played by Maynard Hadley.

Singing Pish Tush will be David Deller and Pitti Sing's part will be sung by Diana Hunter. Appearing as Peep-Bo will be Lee Ann Allen, Ashland, and Louise Lull will do the part of Knee Bend.

Chorus members are Sue Breece, Violet Hunter, Jo Ann Dodge, Nancy Larson, Evelyn Graham, Lillian Leach, Jean Bowers, Loretta Zeleznik, Sam Foirier, Eldred Peyton, John Garman, Stanley Ties, Dr. Elliott Harlow, Robert Donald, all of Medford, and Yvonne and Betty Maynard from Grants Pass.

Officers To Be Installed Monday

Westminster Guild will meet Monday, January 7, at 7:30 p. m. in the fireplace room, First Presbyterian church. New officers will be installed by Mrs. O. A. Martolin.

New officers include Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck, president; Mrs. Robert Brewer, vice president; Mrs. Stanley Jones, secretary, and Mrs. George Tucker, treasurer.

Committee reports will be heard and plans made for the new year.

Mrs. Martolin will lead devotions.

Mrs. Betty Scott, Mrs. C. A. Thatcher and Mrs. Olive Adams will be hostesses.

OES Chapter Plans Meeting

Reames Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a stated meeting January 10 at 8 p. m. at the Medford Masonic temple.

Mrs. Gene Dyke, worthy matron, and Ross Gilkison, worthy matron, will preside.

Chairmen for the evening will be Mrs. George Osler and Mrs. R. L. Martin. All members of Eastern Star are invited to attend.
