

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Eagle Point - Ellen F. Mauldin and Vean Elmer Robertson, both of Amity, Ore., were married in double ring rites December 31 in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Robertson, Route 1, Box 598, Eagle Point.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller, also Amity.

The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. About 20 guests attended.

For her wedding the bride wore a dove grey flowered silk gown with black accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Charles Z. Denney, a sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's attendant and Mr. Denney was best man for his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Denney wore a lavender wool afternoon dress with white accessories.

A reception was held after the ceremony. Mrs. Lee Damon, another sister of the bridegroom served the wedding cake and punch was poured by Mrs. Philip Hannaford, an aunt of the bridegroom. Miss Kathy Mauldin had charge of the bride's book.

The couple will live in Amity, where the bridegroom has made his home for the past three years. He is employed at the Langlois Service Station at Langlois, Ore. He is a Prospect High school graduate and lived most of his life in Jackson county. He served for five years in the Asiatic-Pacific area with the Navy Air corps after his graduation in 1939.

The bride came to Amity from Oklahoma City, Okla., with her parents in 1937 and has lived there since. She attended Amity schools.

New Study Series To Start Tuesday

"The Rim of East Asia" is the new study series to begin Tuesday, January 8, for the Women's Fellowship of the First Christian church.

The executive meeting will be at 9 a.m. with the general business meeting at 10 a.m. Mrs. Herbert Sims, Mrs. C. D. Hersheiser, Mrs. W. H. Holt, Mrs. W. N. Troxell will take part in the study for the program beginning at 11 a.m. The countries represented in this series of studies are, Okinawa, Korea, Hong Kong and Taiwan. Mrs. George Breeca will show slides of Hong Kong taken when they visited there. Mrs. Ralph Matlack will sing a solo. Mrs. Jack Huston is in charge of the worship.

The luncheons that have been cancelled for the past six months will resume this month.

Book on Prayer To Be Reviewed

Gold Hill-The study book entitled "Dimensions of Prayer" will be reviewed by Mrs. Albert Gascon and Mrs. Melvin Burnett during the next meeting of the Woman's society of Gold Hill community Methodist church. Mrs. J. G. Kofahl will be hostess in her home on Highway 99 north, Wednesday, January 9. A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. and the business session will be held at 1 p. m. Mrs. E. C. Hoffman will be cohostess.

The December meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Carl Johnson. Mrs. Raymond Ritter assisted with luncheon. Mrs. Hoffman, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Roy Eskew, president.

Members were reminded that the individual projects program closes in January and all receipts should be turned in by the January 9 meeting.

Mrs. Loehlen L. Gregory and Mrs. Paul Molloy gave the program.

Math Student Is Selected

James L. Shinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shinn, 47 Western avenue, has been selected to speak before a section meeting of the National Council of Mathematic Teachers next summer at the University of Oregon. He now is studying toward his master's degree at Cornell university in Ithaca, N. Y., and is a Medford High school and University of Oregon graduate.

Mrs. Shinn is the former Miss Gail McDuffee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, 200 Hillcrest road. The Shinn's have two sons, Paul and Jack.

Mr. Shinn will speak on visual aids in high school mathematics.

Guild To Meet
Luncheon will be served Friday, January 11, at St. Mark's parish house preceding a meeting of St. Elizabeth's Guild. The meal is set for 12 noon.
