Art Workshop Set in Ashland

Ashland—Fifty teachers from Ashland public schools will attend an art workshop

Jan. 8, 9 and 10, at Bellview school, Stanley C. Jobe, superintendent of schools, announced recently.

Brophy Named Head Of Bar Association

Carl M. Brophy, Medford, was elected president of the Jackson County Bar association for 1963, according to a tabulation of ballots made at the association's meeting last week.

A free educational service provided by Binney and Smith Inc. manufacturers of Crayola crayons and other school art supplies, the workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Nancy Watkins, who has taught extensively and holds a degree from Texas Women's university.

William E. Duhaime and Karl Clinkinbeard, both of Medford, were elected first and second vice presidents. Secretary of the association will be Bonnie Phillips, Medford, and Gerald J. Scannell, Ashland, will serve as treasurer.

Teachers will spend 15 hours of their own time learning more about modern creative art education and some of its materials and tools. They will learn by doing, and trying out the art techniques presented by Mrs. Watkins.

Harry A. Skerry Jr., Ashland, served as president of the association during 1962.

The technicians will include some of the uses of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalks, and modeling clay. Simple craft techniques also will be shown giving teachers an opportunity to work with paper paste and other materials to gain three-dimensional effects. All of the art workshop activities will be experiences which the teachers can relate to their own classroom teaching. School officials responsible for the workshop arrangements, in addition to Jobe, include Verne H. Speirs, assistant superintendent.
