

Gridiron Coaches Favor Unlimited Substitutions

By ART SPANDER
Los Angeles (UPI) — The 57th annual National Collegiate Athletic Association NCAA convention opened officially today.

High on the list of topics was the suddenly renewed feud between the Amateur Athletic Union AAU and the NCAA-sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation.

The two days of pre-convention committee meetings produced a variety of decisions and discussions, including the following:

—Ex-Stanford football coach Jack Curtice, president of the American Football Coaches association rules committee, said his group strongly is in favor of unlimited substitution and would recommend adoption of the idea to the NCAA's football rules committee.

—The University of Utah, Humboldt State College of Arcata, Calif., and Whitworth College of Spokane, Wash., were taken off one year's probation and restored to good standing by the executive committee.

—Officials said they would attempt to close the gaps which allow professional baseball teams to sign college players prior to graduation.

—Several conferences, including the Big Eight, South West and Atlantic Coast, definitely are in favor of a letter of intent for prospective athletes to certain recruiting violations.

The battle between the NCAA and AAU, which had appeared to be over when both sides agreed to President Kennedy's suggestion for arbitration, was hot again.

Charles D. Chick Werner, an executive of the Track and Field Federation and also an NCAA official, Saturday blasted the AAU for suspending Southern Illinois University runner Jim Dupree, considered this nation's top half-miler.

Werner said the suspension was part of a "scare campaign" and "a flagrant example... of the lengths to which the AAU will go." Dupree was suspended for competing in a federation-sponsored meet.

Pilots Host UO Ducks

Portland (UPI) — Portland's Pilots host the Oregon Ducks at the Memorial Coliseum here Tuesday night in their first basketball meeting of the season.

Portland and Oregon each will be trying to improve on losing records. The Pilots have a 4-8 record and the Ducks have a 3-5 mark.

Art Wall Gains Lead In LA Open

Los Angeles (UPI) — Veteran Art Wall, who won a tournament win in nearly three years, sought to remedy the situation going into the final round of the $50,000 Los Angeles Open today with a two-stroke lead at 205.

Often in contention here, but never a victor, he held the slim margin over the quartet of Johnny Pott, Paul Bondeson, a long-hitting youngster, Bud Holscher, a hometown choice, and sentimental Ed Furgot. They had 207s.

And only another stroke back — in excellent challenging position — were 11 others. Heading this group were Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler and Billy Casper.

Wall, 39-year-old Pocono Manor, Pa., pro who last won a tournament in 1960 when he took the Canadian Open, shot into the undisputed lead at the end of 54 holes with a four under par 67 Sunday.

His near perfect round was witnessed by a large portion of an almost record 21,500 golfing enthusiasts who turned out at the Ranchor Park course in 89-degree weather.

Halas, Casares Ideas Differ Concerning NFL Investigation

By GENE BUDEAU
Chicago (UPI) — George Halas, owner and coach of the Chicago Bears, and Fullback Rick Casares disagreed today as to whether any more players on the team would undergo lie tests to clear themselves of point-shaving suspicions.

Halas said the "investigation can end right now because I'm convinced that not a single one of the Bears has ever tried to shave points or otherwise fix a football game. He scheduled no more lie tests were held for Bear players.

But Casares, who revealed he had taken and "passed" two lie tests at the request of Halas and National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle, said he believed "one or two more" Bears would take the tests.

Thus far, Casares is the only name to emerge from an investigation of possible point-shaving and "fixes" conducted both by the National Football League and the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington.

In a radio and television interview Sunday night Casares said "I feel I've been betrayed," referring to the lie tests.

"I thought the tests were taken in strictest confidence and would not be exploited," Casares told Jack Brickhouse, manager of sports for Chicago station WGN.

Bill Gagne, defensive captain of the Bears, who also appeared on the program, declared "there was not enough money to bribe a player like Rick."

George said "I know lots of times when other people wouldn't go near the ball park with injuries, he had — he played with a broken wrist at one time."

Lions Take Playoff Bowl Conflict From Steelers

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer
Some guys are pure gluttons for punishment.

That includes those thoroughly worked-over casualties from the week end's bowl games who still haven't had enough football and plan to play some more next Sunday.

Hardest hit of all were the poor Pittsburgh Steelers, who not only dropped a 17-10 decision to the Detroit Lions in the National Football League's Playoff Bowl game at Miami, Fla., Sunday, but also suffered three severe injuries.

Here was the damage:

Steelers fullback John Henry Johnson was kicked in the eye, suffering a concussion which sent him to the hospital.

Halfback Bill Daniel suffered a broken jaw and went along with Johnson to the hospital.

Dan James, the Steelers' 260-pound tackle, got off a little easier with a possible chipped ankle bone.

Milt Plum's passing and Webb's running made the difference for the Lions. Webb took a 20-yard touchdown pass from Plum in the second period and scored again on a two-yard plunge in the third period.

For all their lumps and bruises, some of the Lions and Steelers will be back for more next Sunday when the NFL's Eastern conference stars meet the Western conference standouts in the Pro Bowl game at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

They'll have company, too, because the American Football league holds its All-Star game the same day at San Diego.

Mets Tame
Four other bowl games were played during the week end but they were more tame. Maybe it was because all four involved colleges instead of pros.

In the two other games played Sunday, Ron Vanderkelen of Wisconsin led a North team to a 20-13 victory over the South in Honolulu's Hula Bowl, and Louisiana State quarterback Lynn Amodee sparked the East to a 38-10 triumph over the West in the Crusade Bowl at Baltimore, Md.

On Saturday, the South defeated the North, 33-27, in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala., and the National All-Stars downed the Southwest, 33-13, in the first Southwest

Who sticks its nose into 1451 cities?

We do — with the aid of giant Canadian Swingtail 44s and Skyroad

Skyroad is our vast new interconnected shipping system combining the speed of airfreight with the most direct mode of surface transportation. Skyroad's total transportation lets you ship door-to-door to any of 1451 cities and towns without delay. Our nationwide teletype network monitors each shipment to assure worry-free reliability.

You pay no more for this premium service than for ordinary airfreight.

Often you pay less. You pay one thru rate and receive just one invoice for this multi-carrier service. Shipments travel on one thru bill of lading.

Our new Canadian Swingtail-44s make Skyroad possible. Each Swingtail swallows 33 tons of cargo; speeds it coast-to-coast overnight. Loading is fast too, because a hinged tail section allows straight-in loading and unloading. It's this Swingtail speed and efficiency that make Skyroad a reality.

Let us stick our nose in your business to improve your way of shipping.
