UO Ducks Win 62-54 Over Pilots

Portland—UPI—Center Glenn Moore, who supposedly was recovering from a sprained ankle, scored 21 points and led Oregon to a 62-54 basketball victory over Portland Tuesday night.

The Pilot's big man, 6-8 Steve Ansett, picked up three fouls in the first 10 minutes and spent most of the rest of the game on the bench. Ansett, who averaged more than 20 points per game in Portland's first 12 contests, finally fouled out with only four points.

Portland led through much of the first half as Jim Dorch scored 14 points in the first 20 minutes. Oregon moved ahead late in the half and led 33-28 at intermission. Oregon salted the game away in the opening moments of the second half when Jim Johnson hit a field goal and Moore added two.

That made the score 39-28 and the Pilots never got closer than eight points after that.

Dorch led all scorers with 23 points. Moore's 21 led Oregon, but Steve Jones added 18 and guard Elliott Gleason 10.

Stanford Indians Nick Cal in Double Overtime

United Press International
Stanford's Indians were the team to beat in the Big Six basketball race today after a monumental win at Berkeley in a double-overtime thriller.

The Cards scored a 70-68 win in one that left the fans as limp as the players.

Stubby guard Lou Shupe hit two free throws in the closing seconds of the final overtime and Clayton Raaka contributed another to put the Indians out in front. But the final buzzer found California trying to tie it again as the Bears missed three tip-ins.

The win left Stanford with a 1-0 record in the Big Six and California 2-1. Although Washington is 2-0 after wins over UCLA at Seattle, the Huskines' over-all 5-5 record has made observers skeptical that they rate with the four California teams.

Even a split this week end by Washington at USC might make believers out of the skeptics, however.

55-All in Regulation
California will be at UCLA in other frantic Big Six actions this week end, while Stanford will host Oregon State in a sparkling pair of battles between two hot teams with a berth among the nation's top 10 probably awaiting the winner.

The regulation contest at Berkeley Tuesday night ended with the score 55-41. The first overtime saw the score tied at 59-59.

Cal's big 'Camden Wall twice missed free throws in the second overtime which might have changed the result but still left scorers with 22 points. The Bears' Dick Smith and Stanford's Tom Dose tallied 19 apiece.

In other games St. Mary's bounced Pacific in West Coast Athletic conference. Score was 87-73 as the Gale's deadly Steve Gray bombed 29 points. Bill Wilson had 19 for the Tigers, who trailed by as much as 23 points toward the end of the contest.

Idaho defeated Washington State 75-67 at Pullman as big Gus Johnson, perhaps the Coast's most underrated performer, hit 24. Johnson is ineligible for NCAA tourney games and Idaho's two losses were sustained in the Far West Classic without Johnson in the lineup. With Johnson in there, the Vandals are 7-0.

Prep Cage Clubs Slate 13 Games

Thirteen varsity games are scheduled in this section of the state this week as the A-1 and A-2 prep basketball teams engage in their second week end of conference play and Butte Falls entertains a rival twice.

In the Southern Oregon conference it will be Crater at Grants Pass and Klamath Falls at Medford on Friday and Grants Pass at Ashland and Medford against Crater at Central Point on Saturday. Junior varsity and sophomore games are billed on each occasion.

In the Rogue league on Friday it will be Sacred Heart at Eagle Point, Illinois Valley at Hixley, Phoenix at Lakeview and Rogue River versus St. Mary's at Medford. Saturday's schedule has Eagle Point at Rogue River, Illinois Valley at Lakeview and Phoenix at Henley.

Paisley Foo
Butte Falls plays Paisley both nights.

The freshman or ninth grade slate has North Grants Pass at Crater on Thursday afternoon and Eagle Point is at St. Mary's that evening. McLoughlin ninth will be host here to Klamath Falls on Saturday afternoon.

On Friday Hedrick eighth contends at McLoughlin and seventh grade teams of the two Medford junior highs play. Mac's Blacks and Golds will be in one game and Hedrick's Greens and Reds in another.

PACIFIC WINS
Forest Grove—UPI—Pacific pulled away from Oregon College of Education in the closing minutes for a 70-54 victory in the only basketball action in Oregon small college circles Tuesday night. Pacific held a 37-34 halftime lead but did not pull ahead to stay until Leon Johnson gave the Badgers a 48-47 lead on a field goal. Johnson led all scorers with 22 points.

Marshall, Grovers Have Tough Games
United Press International
Undeclared Marshall and Forest Grove added another victory each to their win streaks Tuesday night in Oregon high school basketball action, but both had trouble before emerging on top.

Marshall collected win No. 7 with a 46-40 triumph over Benson, while Forest Grove was pressed to score a 57-56 victory over St. Helens for its 5th victory of the season.

Oregon Club Names Baker Top Opponent
Eugene—UPI—The Oregon Club has named Terry Baker of Oregon State as the outstanding football player faced by the Oregon team during the past season.

Other outstanding opponents included: Jay Carly of Oregon State, basketball; Gordon Brynildsen of Oregon State, tennis; Dan Schneider of Arizona, baseball; Frank Budd of Villanova, track; John Lotz of San Jose State, golf; Dick Jochums of Washington, swimming, and Richard Bell of Washington, wrestling.

The man who coached the Detroit Lions' defensive backfield before being elevated to his first head-coaching job Tuesday by Colt owner Carroll Rosenbloom will be joining a club that still has 11 players who were his teammates when he played with the Colts from 1953 to 1957.

The question cropped up in Baltimore earlier this week when Shula was reported the likely successor: "How will these veterans accept taking orders from a former teammate, one who was cut in fact while many of them remained with the club?"

The answer, of course, remains to be seen. Nonetheless, this could be a source of friction in a sport known for fraying nerves.

It's not going to bother at least one player, so he says. Bill Pellington, who now calls defensive signals for the Colts and who was on the club when Shula played, said he learned from Shula in those days and expects to learn more now that he's head coach.

Rosenbloom said Shula had a two-year contract. The salary was not disclosed.

The Colts' new coach will hold a press conference Thursday, at which time he may announce who his assistants will be.

Shula played college ball at John Carroll University in Cleveland. He was drafted by the Browns and earned a spot with the club in 1951, the only rookie to make the team that season. A native of Painesville, Ohio, Shula came to the Colts in 1953 and remained until 1957. Before leaving the pro ranks he also played with the Washington Redskins.

Don Shula Coach at Baltimore

Baltimore—UPI—Don Shula, the 33-year-old defensive backfield specialist named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Baltimore Colts, faces at least one potential psychological hurdle in his new job.

Ewbank was offered an undisclosed post with the Colts, but has not yet decided whether to accept. He still has two years, at $30,000 annually, to go on his current three-year contract. If he doesn't accept
