William Grenfell Found Innocent On Technicality

Portland - (UP) - William A. Grenfell Jr., 37, was found innocent of a charge of making a false police report late Wednesday when a judge ordered a directed verdict of acquittal.

Grenfell, Democratic state senator who was defeated for Multnomah County commissioner in the November election, still faces trial later this month in Circuit Court on a charge of failing to leave his name at the scene of an accident.

Municipal Judge Joseph J. Labadie accepted a motion by Burton H. Bennett, Grenfell's attorney, who asked for the directed verdict of acquittal. The motion hinged on use of the word "kidnaped" in the complaint against Grenfell.

The complaint charged Grenfell made a false statement to a police officer to the effect that Grenfell "had been kidnapped on the 9th day of October, 1962."

Bennett urged the city had failed to prove that a kidnapping as defined by the state code was reported to police. Judge Labadie agreed.

Grenfell, who appeared at the trial in a wheelchair, told police last Oct. 9 he was abducted and pushed from a moving car. Later, he admitted through his attorney he was driver of a car involved in an accident in which Harold Jones, 61, Battle Ground, Wash., was killed.

Tidal Wave Drowns 17 in Portugal

Santiago do Cacem, Portugal - (UP) - A 30-foot Atlantic tidal wave swept 80 fishermen into a lagoon near this fishing village Wednesday night, drowning 17.

The freak wave washed over a strip of dunes and raced across the sands to the Santo Andre lagoon where the men were casting their nets from the shore for small fish. Bad weather had prevented them from going out in their boats.

The fishermen were crouched on the beach slinging and smoking when the huge wave towered over them.

The few who saw the on-rushing wall of water had no time to run. The wave picked up the men and their nets, boats and equipment and swept them into the lagoon.

Coon Rapids, Minn. - (UP) - Officers Bill Morris and Willard Johnson walked around Morris' squad car to investigate a gasoline can at its rear and saw a hand protruding from beneath the auto. They arrested Irving Smith, 22, for stealing gasoline.
